

Reflecting on 2024, Looking forward to 2025

As 2024 comes to a close, the EcoLife Alliance extends its heartfelt thanks to all our members, partners, and supporters for making this year remarkable.

Together, we've achieved significant milestones in fostering sustainable ecosystems and paving the way for driving impactful change.

Here's a look back at our key achievements this year and an exclusive preview of what's on the horizon for 2025.

2024 Highlights

Strengthening Partnerships

- We established official collaborations with over 10 new organisations in Europe, UK, Africa, and the US, advancing our shared mission of sustainability.
- We promoted cross-organisation networking and discussions aiming to foster future collaborations, with the first co-marketing initiative between two of our partners (see: <https://recycle-labs.com/whats-going-on/f/the-future-of-medical-device-manufacturing>).

Engagement and Outreach

- We initiated a brainstorming on how build and promote sustainable practices in life science domains.
- We released the positioning slide deck of our association, which illustrates our mission, ambition and objective (https://www.linkedin.com/posts/ecolife-alliance_ecolife-vision-activity-7267099837752373248-Wy4c?utm_source=share&utm_medium=member_desktop).

What's Coming in 2025

New Initiatives

- Introducing the Ecolife Vision in an upcoming (February 2025) virtual workshop
- On the same occasion, we will aim at having your ideas, and help to understand what we can do together
- Stay tuned! Details will be sent to you in the beginning of the ne year to identify the best date for such workshop

Call for Collaboration

We invite you to join hands with us in 2025. We need your support, energy, and network to make EcoLife grow and create more opportunities for every partner.

We will look for members with key scientific and innovation expertise to enhance our credibility and bring you more opportunities and high-quality content. Whether you're an organization, policymaker, or an individual passionate about sustainability, there's a place for you in our mission to create a greener future.

Thank you for being part of our journey in 2024. Let's continue to innovate, inspire, and impact together in 2025.

Warm regards,
EcoLife Alliance Team
