

■ Bible Lesson: Missed Opportunity

(Exodus 4:1-17)

Summary of Exodus 4:1-17

Moses was afraid the people wouldn't believe that God had really spoken to him. So God gave him three signs to prove it: his staff could turn into a snake, his hand could turn sick and then be healed, and water from the Nile could turn into blood.

Even after this, Moses still worried because he didn't speak well. God reminded him that He is the one who made mouths, ears, and eyes, and promised to help Moses speak. But Moses still asked God to send someone else.

God became angry, but He agreed to let Aaron, Moses' brother, speak for him. God told Moses to take his staff and use it to show God's power.

✧ Lesson:

Moses had trouble speaking. Maybe his words came out too fast, maybe they got jumbled, or maybe he stuttered. Whatever the problem was, Moses didn't feel confident.

When God told Moses, "Go to Pharaoh and tell him to let My people go," Moses quickly started telling God all the reasons he couldn't do it. He thought Pharaoh would not take him seriously because of the way he spoke.

But God reminded Moses that He has all power. God promised to help him speak and even tell him what to say. Still, Moses refused.

This was a missed opportunity. If Moses had trusted God, he would have seen God's power working through him. God could have even made him into a great speaker!

The lesson for us is this: when God asks you to do something, trust Him. He can give you the words, the courage, and the strength you need. Don't miss the chance to see God work in your life!

Maybe God is asking you to share your faith with a friend, to sing in front of your class, or to stand up for what is right. Whatever it is—act in faith, and trust Him.

Craft: “Open Door of Opportunity”

Supplies

- 1 sheet of construction paper (any color)
- Scissors
- Crayons/markers
- Optional: stickers

Instructions:

1. Fold the Paper:
 - Fold the construction paper in half like a card (the fold is the side of the “door”).
2. Make a Doorknob:
 - Near the edge of the front, cut (or draw) a small circle to look like a doorknob.
3. Decorate the Front (the “door”):
 - At the top write: “Don't Miss God's Opportunity!”
 - Kids can draw panels, hinges, or designs to make it look like a real door.
4. Inside the Paper (the “room”):
 - When they open the folded paper, have them write inside: “I will help you speak and will teach you what to say.” – Exodus 4:12
 - Underneath, they can write or draw one thing God might want them to do (pray, be kind, share their faith, etc.)
5. Finish & Share:
 - Let kids decorate with colors or stickers.
 - Invite a few to share what they wrote/drew inside.

Discussion While Crafting:

- Talk about how the door reminds us of the opportunities God gives us.
- Every time they open the door at home, they'll be reminded to trust God and step out in faith.

Hardening of the Heart – Understanding God's Plan

Main Question:

- What does it mean to harden someone's heart? How should we feel about God hardening Pharaoh's heart?

 Read Together / Summary:

Exodus 4:21 (NIV):

“When you return to Egypt, see that you perform before Pharaoh all the wonders I have given you the power to do. But I will harden his heart so that he will not let the people go.”

Kid-Friendly Summary:

God told Moses he would show Pharaoh the miracles God could do. But God would also make Pharaoh's heart hard so he would refuse to let the Israelites go. Even when people stubbornly say “no” to God, He is still in control and working out His plan.

About God:

It might seem strange or unfair that God would make someone's heart hard. Here's what it means: When someone keeps saying “no” to God and doing wrong again and again, God may let their heart stay that way. Over time, their heart becomes so hard that they don't want to say sorry or change. This is part of God's judgment when people keep choosing evil and refuse to listen.

Bible Connection:

2 Thessalonians 2:10–12 (ICB)

- Some people don't want to believe the truth or do what's right. They keep saying “no” to God.

God lets their hearts stay that way. In the end, they will be judged because they chose evil over good.

Our Nature:

When life gets hard, we may start to believe lies:

- “God doesn’t love you.”
- “God is trying to hurt you.”

But those lies are not true! God always keeps His promises.

💡 Verses to Remember:

- Numbers 23:19 (ICB) — “God is not a man. He will not lie. He does not change His mind. What He says, He will do. What He promises, He keeps.”
- Romans 8:28 (ICB) — “We know that in everything, God works for the good of those who love Him. They are the people He called, because that was His plan.”

🌟 Activity: The Hard Heart vs. The Soft Heart

Supplies: rock (hard heart), sponge (soft heart), bowl of water.

1. Show the rock. Ask: “If I pour water on this rock, will it soak in? Why not?” (Answer: too hard)
2. Show the sponge. Ask: “What happens when I pour water on this sponge?” (It soaks it up)
3. Explain: “Our hearts can be like the rock or the sponge. A hard heart doesn’t want to listen to God. A soft heart is ready to soak up His truth and obey.”
4. Quiet reflection: Have each child think—Is my heart more like a rock or a sponge right now?
5. End with prayer, asking God to help everyone keep a soft heart.

Pharaoh, Moses, and God's Power

Main Question:

- Why did God harden Pharaoh's heart, and what can we learn from it?

Recap from Lesson 1:

Last time we learned that Pharaoh's heart was hard, and God was still in control. Even when people stubbornly say “no” to God, He can work through it to show His power and accomplish His plan.

Summary of Exodus 5:1–10 (Kid-Friendly):

Moses and Aaron went to Pharaoh and told him what God said: “Let my people go so they can celebrate a festival to God in the desert.”

Pharaoh refused, saying, “Who is the Lord? I don't know Him, and I will not let Israel go.”

Pharaoh then made life harder for the Israelites. He stopped giving them straw for making bricks, but they still had to meet the same brick quota.

The Israelites had to gather straw themselves while still making the same number of bricks, which made their work much harder. The Israelite foremen were beaten when they couldn't meet the quota.

When the foremen complained, Pharaoh blamed them and said it was their fault—they were lazy. Pharaoh's heart was hard, and he refused to listen to God's command, making the Israelites suffer more.

How Moses Felt:

Exodus 5:22–23

“Moses went back to the Lord. He said, ‘Why, Lord? Why have you brought trouble on this people? Is this why you sent me? I went to Pharaoh and spoke in your name. But he has made things worse for your people. You haven't rescued them at all!’”

● Even Moses struggled to understand God's plan. ●

God Made Moses Aware Beforehand:

- Exodus 3:19 (NirV) — “I know the king of Egypt won’t let your people go unless he is forced to.”
- Exodus 4:22–23 (NirV) — “Tell Pharaoh, ‘God says: Israel is like my firstborn son. Let my son go so he can worship me.’ But you refused.”
- God made Moses aware that Pharaoh would refuse and that His plan was already in motion, even if Moses didn’t understand it yet.

Discussion Questions:

1. How do you think Moses felt when Pharaoh kept saying no?
2. Have you ever felt like God wasn’t answering your prayers?
3. How does knowing God is in control even when people choose evil help you trust Him?

Verses to Remember:

- Romans 8:28 (ICB) — “We know that in everything, God works for the good of those who love Him. They are the people He called, because that was His plan.”

Reflection Activity:

- Write or draw one “lie” that people sometimes believe when life is hard (example: “God doesn’t care”).
- Then write or draw the truth from God’s Word beside it.
- Close with a short prayer asking God to help you trust Him, even when things are hard.

Lesson: God Reveals His Name

Scripture Focus

Exodus 6:3, 6 (NIV)

"I appeared to Abraham, to Isaac and to Jacob as God Almighty, but by my name the Lord I did not make myself fully known to them. Therefore, say to the Israelites: 'I am the Lord, and I will bring you out from under the yoke of the Egyptians. I will free you from being slaves to them, and I will redeem you with an outstretched arm and with mighty acts of judgment.'"

Main Idea

God revealed Himself to Abraham as God Almighty (all-powerful and strong), but to Moses and the Israelites He revealed something even deeper: His personal name, Yahweh. Yahweh means "life." God wanted His people to know that He is the One who always exists, gives life, and keeps His promises.

Bible Connection

- Colossians 1:17 (NIV): "Before anything was created, He was already there. He holds everything together."
- Hebrews 1:3 (NIV): "He uses His powerful word to hold all things together."

These verses remind us:

1. God has always existed—no one created Him.
2. God holds the universe, the earth, and even our lives together by His power.

Truth About God

- God is life.
- God is eternal—He has no beginning or end.
- God is faithful to His promises.
- God is our Savior and Redeemer.

Activity: "Hold It Together" Challenge

Purpose: To help kids see how God holds everything together.

Materials:

- A Jenga tower (or stackable blocks, cups, or books)
- A Bible

Instructions:

1. Build the Jenga tower (or stack). Explain: "This tower represents life and creation. It only stands because it is being held together."
2. Invite kids to carefully remove one block at a time. As the tower gets weaker, ask: "What happens when something holding it together is removed?" (The tower starts to fall.)
3. Read aloud Colossians 1:17: "He holds everything together."
4. Say: "If God ever stopped holding the world together (which He never will), everything would fall apart. But because He is Yahweh, the God of life, we can trust Him to keep everything in His hands."
5. Close by praying and thanking God for being Yahweh—the One who gives life and holds everything together.
