For free charts and loads of old school/OG/long-standing human design information:

www.jovianarchive.com and www.mybodygraph.com which is run by Jovian

www.geneticmatrix.com

human.design

A very easy to navigate and understand site that gives good explanations of chart aspects:

humandesign.tools

Check out videos on YouTube that feature Ra (the guy who channeled HD into our consciousness) as the speaker! As he is the original channeler of the system, it's very informative to hear him talk about it. If he doesn't resonate with you, that's ok too! Find what works for YOU.

Jovian Archive probably has the most comprehensive collection of videos of Ra.

For thorough and affordable readings, my friend Abbey used to live in Shenzhen! Originally from the UK, she lived in SZ for about 4 years, then has been back and forth between Hong Kong and Sweden. Her offerings are lovely and she is a wealth of info!

My Hypnotherapist, Tresa, is AMAZING and also does amazingly thorough Human Design readings. She really digs into the science of it AND she's super intuitive and has a wonderful perspective.

THE ARCHIVE!!!

The BEST decision I have made in a long time to help me understand how my human design works IN my body. This work goes beyond "thinking" and "learning" about Human Design and full on into embodiment through biomechanics and sensory exercises. The teachers who created this program are incredible humans and I highly recommend!

For Generators! (and others as well!) I LOOOVE Rachel and her site. I have had a couple readings from her as well. She is from the same city as me, and I was first introduced to her by another friend who designs tarot cards because Rachel also makes and sells a beautiful Oracle deck! She also has a HD podcast with other Human Design Entrepreneurs.

For Human Design variables!!

My absolutely favorite source for everything about the variables in Human Design is Vaness Henry.

She is a WEALTH of knowledge about this super fun niche in HD.
