Attachment : -

Dear
Chengdu XUE ER SHI XING Education Consulting Co., Ltd.
(Go Study Global Education),

In order to thoroughly implement the ASEAN Community Vision 2045 and the spirit of the Kuala Lumpur Declaration, and to further strengthen cooperation between ASEAN countries and China in the field of vocational education, the Southeast Asia Youth Sustainable Development Foundation (PASITA) attaches great importance to and fully supports the China–ASEAN Industry–Education Integration “Core” Initiative, which is jointly initiated by PASITA and the Southeast Asian Ministers of Education Organization Regional Centre for Technical Education Development (SEAMEO TED).

The “Core” Initiative aims to build a forward-looking regional cooperation platform for industry–education integration. It will effectively promote the development of vocational and technical education standards, curriculum design, teaching resource sharing, and the establishment of training bases across ASEAN countries. It will also support enterprises in achieving localized and sustainable talent development, while empowering ASEAN youth with enhanced technical skills and broader career development opportunities.

As a foundation dedicated to youth empowerment and sustainable development in Southeast Asia, PASITA has long served as a bridge connecting governments, higher education institutions, and industries. Through programs such as international lectures, youth forums, and cross-border internships, PASITA provides young people with opportunities to grow, exchange knowledge, and gain practical experience. Leveraging this mission and its extensive regional network, PASITA will actively participate in the organization, coordination, and promotion of the “Core” Initiative.

We sincerely invite and encourage Chinese higher education institutions to actively join this initiative and work with us to build an open, inclusive, and win–win framework for regional industry–education integration—while helping Southeast Asian youth to thrive and achieve sustainable growth in their careers and lives.

Advisor of Southeast Asia Youth Sustainable Development Foundation
