SCIENCE COMMUNICATOR | KEYNOTE SPEAKER | CHANGE AGENT

www.shenelltolson.com

PARTNERSHIP OPPORTUNITIES

Shenell is a dynamic, high-energy speaker, and change agent. As a science communicator, her down-to-earth demeanor makes it easy for audiences to understand complex science concepts while also challenging them to rethink their biases. With a background in molecular biology, biochemistry, and bioinformatics, she uses her knowledge as a health scientist and risk assessor to develop engaging and interactive presentations.

She is dedicated to service, education, and informing the community about basic STEM and public health concepts to support modified health behaviors. This includes but is not limited to growing fruits and vegetables and understanding the etiology of communicable and non-communicable diseases.

Speaking topics and partnering examples include, but are not limited to:

STEM Education

Science Writing

Public Health

Social Media and Film

Community Outreach

Hosting

" SCIENCE IS MY SUPERPOWER."

TESTIMONIALS

QUARTZ MAGAZINE

"Excellent piece on why some Black people are rationally wary about getting Covid vaccines, and a 5-step plan to address their concerns, by molecular biologist @G_Protein." - Katherine Bell, Editor in Chief

COOL PROGENY

"It WAS so fun -Thank you for being a part of it! We loved your segment and thought it has such great information that everyone should hear." - Kelly Gonce

SCHOOLIN' THE SYSTEM

"...When Dr. Tolson speaks it is with great passion and intention. She is able to relate to others by being authentic to her experiences. If anyone is looking for a person to motivate and uplift them in regards to STEM look no further. Our episode with Dr. Tolson was one of the most downloaded in Season 1." - Darian Kelly
