

LAW ENFORCEMENT DE-ESCALATION ACADEMY

PRACTICAL DE-ESCALATION TRAINING FOR MODERN POLICING

Who We Are

The Law Enforcement De-Escalation Academy (LEDA) is a nonprofit training organization founded by veteran law enforcement professionals, offering evidence-based, scenario-driven education grounded in the realities of modern policing.

What We Do

We move beyond classroom lectures. Officers practice de-escalation and decision-making in realistic scenarios that mirror daily challenges, equipping them to de-escalate volatile encounters, reduce use-of-force incidents, strengthen community trust, and protect officers and agencies.

Our Courses

De-Escalation Essentials

Core strategies in communication, officer mental health, and recognizing crises

De-Escalation Comprehensive

Immersive scenarios and advanced applications

Community Engagement

Trust and communication in everyday interactions

Train-the-Trainer

Preparing instructors to deliver LEDA's curriculum

Why LEDA?

LEDA training helps agencies lower liability, strengthen officer performance, and enhance community confidence. Our programs improve decision making, reduce use of force incidents, and provide documentation that supports compliance with national standards. Agencies gain safer outcomes, reduced risk, and stronger public trust.
