

MUNSIYARI

Land of Panchachuli Peaks

QUCK OVERVIEW

Munsiyari - Where the Himalayas Whisper

Perched at an altitude of 7,200 ft, Munsiyari is a serene hill town often called the "Little Kashmir of Uttarakhand." Surrounded by dense forests, alpine meadows, and sparkling rivers, it is best known for its breathtaking views of the Panchachuli Peaks. Once a bustling trade route to Tibet, today Munsiyari is a paradise for trekkers, nature lovers, and those seeking peace in the lap of the Himalayas. From the thunderous Birthi Waterfall to the spiritual Nanda Devi Temple and the enchanting trails of Khalia Top, Munsiyari offers an unforgettable Himalayan experience that blends nature, culture, and adventure.
