

JOAT Hauling Payment Agreement

By scheduling or accepting services from JOAT Hauling, the customer agrees to the following payment terms:

Pricing

- Pricing is based on the estimate provided before work begins.
- Additional items, labor, disposal fees, stairs, extended loading times, or changes requested by the customer may result in additional charges.
- Any changes to the quoted price will be discussed with the customer before additional work is performed.

Payment Due

- Payment is due immediately upon completion of services unless otherwise agreed in writing.
- JOAT Hauling accepts cash and credit/debit cards.

Deposits

- For hauling and roadside assistance jobs, we charge a deposit that goes towards your final invoice.

Cancellation Policy

We request that cancellations be made as soon as possible. We don't have any fees for cancellation and just request transparency from our customers.

Customer Responsibility

- The customer is responsible for ensuring safe and legal access to the property.
- The customer represents that they own or have authority to remove, transport, or dispose of all items provided to JOAT Hauling.

Damage Claims

- Any claim for property damage must be reported within 48 hours of service completion.
- JOAT Hauling will investigate all claims and, when appropriate, repair the damage, arrange repairs, or provide a reasonable credit.
