Quality Assessment

This diamond demonstrates strong overall quality.

The 3 Excellent grades are the most important factor contributing to brilliance and light performance.

The F colour grade appears colourless to the naked eye.

VS2 clarity is typically eye-clean and represents a good balance between appearance and value.

Value Assessment

Based on current market observations, the asking price is within a reasonable range for a natural diamond of similar specifications.

Comparable diamonds currently available online range between approximately £7,100 and £7,800.
