Asking Price: £3,500

Design & Craftsmanship Assessment

The ring features a classic eternity design that remains timeless and versatile.

The bezel is securely and delicately mounted.

Based on the images provided, the overall workmanship appears to be of a satisfactory standard.

Materials Assessment

The ring is mounted in 18K white gold, a popular choice for wedding and fine jewellery.

The diamonds appear visually well-matched to the setting and design.

Additional documentation would be required for a more detailed assessment of the diamond's quality.

Value Assessment

Based on current market observations, the asking price appears to be within a reasonable range for jewellery of similar design and specifications.

Comparable items currently available online range between approximately £3,200 and £3,800.
