

Present Truth Hear All About It!

Lyrics by:
Brooke Typaldos

This song is inspired by the following Bible verses:

Revelation 14:6-8
Revelation 18:1-5

Verse 1:

Present truth, hear all about it
Jesus is soon to come!
He's left the holy place; He's in the most holy
The judgment has begun!
Present truth, hear all about it!
Keep in step with the times
Prophetic events unfolding before our very eyes!

Chorus:

Get ready, get ready!
The judgment will soon pass to those who live
Make headway, make headway!
Part with every besetting sin
Get ready, get ready!
The latter rain God is soon to give
Make headway, make headway
Worship God who made all there is!

The Spirit and the bride say "Come!"
And let he who hears say "Come!"
And let he who is thirsty drink freely of the Water of life
The Spirit and the bride say "Come!"
And let he who hears say "Come!"
And let he who is thirsty drink freely of the water of life!

Verse 2:

Present truth, Babylon has fallen!
The great city of the earth
Who made the nations drink of the wine of her adulteries

Became the haunt of unclean birds
Present truth, come out of Babylon!
God's people must separate from her
That they partake not of her plagues, nor participate in her sins

Chorus:

Get ready, get ready!
The judgment will soon pass to those who live
Make headway, make headway!
Part with every besetting sin
Get ready, get ready!
The latter rain God is soon to give
Make headway, make headway
Worship God who made all there is!

The Spirit and the bride say "Come!"
And let he who hears say "Come!"
And let he who is thirsty drink freely of the Water of life
The Spirit and the bride say "Come!"
And let he who hears say "Come!"
And let he who is thirsty drink freely of the water of life!
