

ELISABETH PERDUE

MISSIONARY TO THE DOMINICAN REPUBLIC SINCE 2018

I hope you all had a wonderful Christmas and New Year with loved ones. I spent a calm and peaceful Christmas with my parents in Florida, and New Year's with my friend's family in Kentucky! Looking back at 2024, I recognized some patterns in my life both healthy and unhealthy. Things that I needed to get under control, and other things I needed to let go of. This year I'm asking the Lord for more wisdom and guidance as to how to handle even the smallest of situations as well as the greatest challenges. I'm praying for more love and mercy for those around me, as well as what Paul describes in James 1:19 as being quick to hear, slow to speak, and slow to anger. God has been gracious to keep me here and allow me to do work that I truly enjoy. Whether I'm sitting down with a woman who once sold her body to earn a living, and reminding her of her value and purpose in Christ, or coaching kids in a basketball league, or helping lead the congregation as we sing songs of worship on a Sunday morning, I love my life. Thank you for praying, encouraging, giving, and loving me so well.
