JUNE 2024 REPORT

Baptisms: PERU, OREGON, HONDURAS

Pastor Caleb Olórtogui's seminary classes enable him to begin a church in San Clemente, Peru. Baptisms are the fruits of their labors.

Luis Turcios contacted me after leaving a fruitful 25-year ministry in El Salvador because of a vicious gang's death threats against him and his family. He shared that he has begun a church in Woodburn, Oregon, with five believers. To those were added 12 converts and one baptism. Pray for a meeting place for services.

The other churches, like in Agalteca, Honduras, are also baptizing new converts. In May 22 men attended the customary bi-monthly meetings that I began for the capital city area.

Christology was taught virtually to 18 students in Peru, while my recorded course, Five Major Prophets, is being used this semester and will be available to teach future students. The 13 new students from four countries have increased Logos' enrollment to 100. Pray as next semester I virtually teach two courses in two seminaries.

On May 23rd we celebrated our 60th anniversary. Reese Bratton, our newest great granddaughter, was born on April 24th. A Hispanic man was reborn in our home, as was a preteen boy in church.
