

WORLD Mission BAPTIST Agency FELLOWSHIP

November 2025

Dear Prayer Partners,

Jesus after the healing of a man blind from birth said, "I must work the works of him that sent me." Jesus goes on to say why He must work, "the night cometh when no man can work." There is a sense of urgency for us to be about the work of the Great Commission. With the magnificent legacy we have as a church and a mission we must not fixate on the past. As Paul said, "forgetting those things which are behind..." we must reach "forth unto those things which are before." That being said, "I press toward the mark for the prize of the high calling of God in Christ Jesus." For me this means I must not compare myself to what I used to do or what others do.

I will soon reach my 90th birthday and our Lord's command to go into all the world with the gospel is still in effect. Our Lord has enabled me to teach over twenty hours a week in Brazil using the internet. On occasion I speak at my home church, hold mission conferences, and try to witness those I meet. The Lord willing in 2026 I will be going to Brazil for a series of meetings in May and June.

The month of October I was fortunate to hear the twelve-year-old son of a Brazilian pastor preach his first sermon. This young man has already memorized over three hundred verses of Scripture. I know his dad is proud of his son and the manner in which the Lord is using him. Please keep him in your prayers. His name is Josias.

Our future as a mission agency is bright. The WBF Mission Agency is strong, stable and moving forward. If we are going to reach the next generation before they walk away from the truth, we must act today. Exodus 35:21 tells us, "And they came every one whose heart stirred him up, and every one whom his spirit made willing, and they brought the Lord's offering to the work of the tabernacle of the congregation and for his service, and for the holy garments." I want to thank you for your prayers, tithes and gifts that make it possible for your church to go into all the world with the good news of salvation.
