

Prayer Letter
Nov-Dec. 2025

The Joshua McClure Family

Serving in the Northern Mariana Islands

Dear Praying Friends & Churches,

“Thanks be unto God for his unspeakable gift.” 2Corinthians 9:15

Happy New Year. Thank you all for the faithful prayers for my family. I am elated to share some amazing news that I pray every parent may experience. Back in October, while in Illinois, we attended a Cowboy Carnival held at Amanda's home church, Faith Baptist Church in Bourbonnais. A cowboy evangelist brought his "Smiling Horse" and trick dog to share the gospel in a unique way to all in attendance. My oldest 2 girls, Melody & Moriah, were quite enamored with the fun but also listened to the truth spoken. Both prayed for salvation on their own in their seats and then went forward during the invitation time to talk to someone about it. I quickly followed and after questioning and listening to them both, Melody is now sure she is saved and Moriah knows that she got saved back in February during a family devotion time. While I know they are very young I also know this is what their mother and I have been praying for since before they were born. We have prayed that they would see God in us, God would get a hold of them at a young age, that they understand their need for Him, get saved, and grow in Him from little children. The faith of a child is all it takes to get eternal life. We do not know the hearts, but it is such a joy knowing my kids are hearing the gospel in many ways while on furlough.

Over the last many months for Moriah and few months for Melody, we have both seen changes in our daughters' attitudes and behavior which we believe is evidence to their "New Creature" that is inside both. We have both been flabbergasted at some of the profound wisdom that they have shared in some of our family talks. They are already trying to tell people about Jesus. Melody controls her anger and feels guilty when she doesn't. Moriah is sharing how being saved is forever and that when you do wrong you just need to ask God to forgive you because He doesn't like that, but you don't need to get saved again. Wow!!! Amanda & I are so overjoyed. Thank you all for the prayers and the continued prayers.

Over the last many months for Moriah and few months for Melody, we have both seen changes in our daughters' attitudes and behavior which we believe is evidence to their "New Creature" that is inside both. We have both been flabbergasted at some of the profound wisdom that they have shared in some of our family talks. They are already trying to tell people about Jesus. Melody controls her anger and feels guilty when she doesn't. Moriah is sharing how being saved is forever and that when you do wrong you just need to ask God to forgive you because He doesn't like that, but you don't need to get saved again. Wow!!! Amanda & I are so overjoyed. Thank you all for the prayers and the continued prayers.

Gratefully Serving Our Lord,

Joshua, Amanda, Melody, Moriah, Makenna, & Manoah McClure

Praise the Lord for childlike faith...
...that's all it takes to be saved.

Prayer Requests

& Updates:

- 1) 68% of needed support.
- 2) Amanda's Dental - Need $2,060 for crown & fillings.
- 3) Family Health & Wisdom while traveling.
- 4) Pray for Terry & Gloria's – leading Church in Saipan
- 5) Dorothy McClure - Stroke recovery.
- 6) Answer in progress - currently have $7,700 for our Passenger Van. Needing $40,000