Quick Mission Update & Children's Christmas Donation

Dear Partners in Christ,

Marie and I want to begin by expressing once again our heartfelt gratitude for your partnership in fulfilling the Great Commission of our Master in Tampa, Haiti, and the Dominican Republic.

Missionary Update – Hurricane Melissa

As you know, this is hurricane season and at the time of this writing Hurricane Melissa is sweeping through the Caribbean with great force. When it first reached Haiti and the Dominican Republic, it was only a tropical storm with winds near 45 mph. Yet Haiti suffered 3 deaths, one from a landslide, one from a fallen tree, and one from a collapsed wall. In the Dominican Republic, there was 1 death and another person missing.

People still face high winds and cloudy skies over both Haiti and the Dominican Republic. By God's grace, it could have been far worse. Our orphanage children are safe, though for now the solar system is producing very little energy for their living quarters until the sun returns.

Now Melissa has struck Jamaica as a Category 5 hurricane, leaving behind devastation. We ask you to pray earnestly for our brothers and sisters there, for God's mercy and quick recovery.

Looking Ahead – Christmas for the Children

As we focus on recovery, we are also preparing for Christmas for the children in Haiti and the Dominican Republic. This is always a joyful time of celebration, hot meals, toys, and above all, the sharing of the story of the birth of our Savior, Jesus Christ, for the salvation of all who believe. Much of this will depend on the level of donations received, God willing.

A big "thank you" to those who have already sent donations. Your generosity will sow seeds of hope and joy. Your prayers and support can turn this Christmas into a season of light for children who have endured so much hardship this year.

So far, so good - for our God is good no matter what. As one of my dear Texan sisters in Christ likes to say, "A Texas-size thank you!" for your monthly support. We love you in Christ.

*In Christ Alone,
Jacques and Marie Alexandre*
