SEPTEMBER 2024 REPORT

We praise the Lord for the salvation of one soul during the ten day visit that Michael Lane and I made to Honduras. He rejoiced as the pastor we were visiting rescued another soul from eternal damnation.

PASTORS BI-MONTHLY MEETING

Because of changes in our schedule, we had the privilege to preach in two churches located on unpaved roads. Some spots having been paved made Aragua accessible for my first visit in over 25 years. That small congregation has produced two other churches.

The bi-monthly meetings we began in Tegucigalpa continue to draw unaffiliated pastors and workers seeking fellowship. My goal of the nationals finding spiritual encouragement from each other instead of from the missionary is bearing fruit.

We visited the Sunday outdoor service in Carrizal where construction has begun on their building. A drone view shows the many homes the church will be able to reach with the Gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ.

OUTDOOR SERVICE

CONSTRUCTION

Every Sunday Juan Martinez drives an hour from the capital with a small group of brethren to help with the services. Many souls will be saved through this new church.

Your support enables us to help with some needed projects.

CARRIZAL

A special $5,000.00 offering from Faith Baptist Church in Artesia, NM, that our home church doubled, has allowed us to help some seminary and camp projects.

The problem of adequate facilities hinders the new Hispanic works in Pageland and Rockingham, NC, and in Woodbury, OR. Pray for divine provision.

Another need is for the 11 students in my virtual seminary course on Missions and the 7 students in Peru studying about the Holy Spirit. Also, for an operation our daughter-in-law, Jane will have on Oct. 16. If declared to be cancer free she will be a candidate for a liver transplant. Finally, for the November ladies two-day conference that will be held at the camp facilities the national churches are building in Cenicerias for the poor ladies and youth in the poor isolated rural churches located two hours south of the capital.
