

delightacademy.org

#PropheticParenting.5

Playfulness and Joking

Playfulness and joking are extremely important in all aspects of the educational and behavior-modulating process. This is because play is one of the child's psychological and even intellectual needs. Education built on play and delight is one of the most effective teaching methods. The Prophet's (ﷺ) life is full of numerous instances where he allowed children to play and personally observed their play.

