OVERVIEW

Fadeth is a Malawian manufacturer and supplier of furniture and fittings. Fadeth has been a major player in the Malawian furniture industry since its inception in 2009. We specialize in custom made furniture and fittings as such we focus on understanding our customers specific needs.

Fadeth is a reputable company with a workforce that has many years of firsthand experience and expertise in the furniture industry. We have developed, manufactured and supplied furniture to a vast range of clientele with different needs all across Malawi.

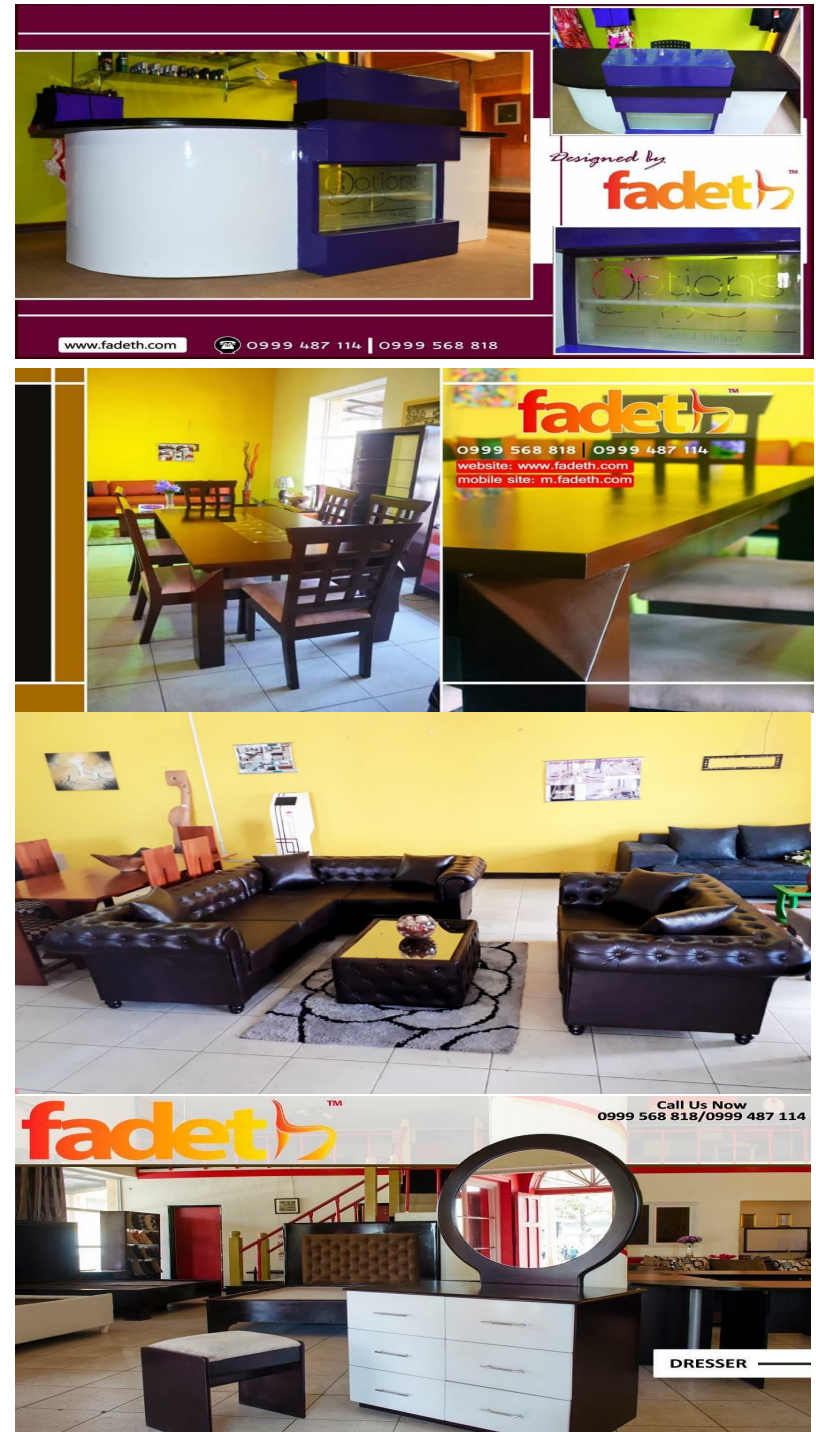

We involve our clients in our work to produce new designs as well as to reduce costs in production and procurement of furniture. Our proficiency in working with quality materials such as timbers, metals, glass, cane, various fabrics, and leathers results in superior quality that goes beyond customer expectations and showcases the power of exceptional creativity and design.

Over the years Fadeth has flourished into one of the country's most prominent furniture manufacturers and brands trusted by both corporates and households.

To date Fadeth has employed many skilled workers and trained many interns in the fields of management, upholstery, carpentry, joinery, tailoring wood polishing and painting.

Our furniture and fittings are featured in some of the country's high end buildings like hotels, banks, government offices and the presidential palace.

Wherever necessary Fadeth involves its international partners to meet its customers' needs and exact specifications.
