Keywords: Keywords are words or phrases that readers might enter into a search engine (e.g., Springer Publishing's CONNECT platform) to locate a particular piece of content. Think of keywords as important index terms that capture the topics covered in your manuscript. Supply 6 to 10 keywords or brief (no more than 3 words) phrases for each chapter. Make the keywords as specific as possible (avoid general terms or phrases) and include abbreviations or acronyms if familiar to the reader.

Text

Text Formatting

- Manuscripts should be submitted in Word.
- Use a normal, plain font (e.g., 12 point Times Roman) for text. Follow similar font style for figures and tables.
- Use italics for emphasis.
- Use the automatic page numbering function to number the pages.
- Do not use field functions.
- Use tab stops or other commands for indents, not the space bar.
- Use the table function, not spreadsheets, to make tables.
- Use the equation editor or MathType for equations.
- Save your file in docx format (Word 2007 or higher) or doc format (older Word versions).
- References inside the manuscript should not be numbered, author names should be included (For example: Ramesh, 1984 or Ramesh and Pedro, 1985 or Ramesh et al., 1988). Likewise it should be alphabetically arranged in the final list at the end of the manuscript.

Headings

Please use the decimal system of headings with no more than three levels.

Type chapter headings in a consistent style to guide the copyeditor and typesetter.

All headings should be typed on a separate line. Number headings sequentially.

Preferred typing styles follow:

TYPE NUMBER 1 HEADS IN BOLD/ALL CAPITAL LETTERS/UNDERLINE

TYPE NUMBER 2 HEADS IN BOLD /ALL CAPITAL LETTERS/NO UNDERLINE

Type Number 3 Heads in Bold / Title Case

Footnotes

Avoid text foot notes at the end of pages.

Footnotes to the tables can be included below the table or figure (along with figure captions). Do not include any connections to the foot notes or to the text in the manuscript.

Acknowledgments

Acknowledgments of people, grants, funds, etc. should be placed in a separate section before the reference list. The names of funding organizations should be written in full.

Manuscript Structure

Manuscripts should be structured into following main sections:

Abbreviations (All abbreviation included in the manuscript should be included in this section and each abbreviation should be separated as per the example) (Eg., Coastal region - CR; Flood water - FW; Climate change - CC; Water circulation - WC; Ocean currents – OC)

- Your manuscript length maximum can contain maximum 8000 words (Excluding figures and references; but including abstract, abbreviations and tables).
- Introduction (at the end describing objective of the study)
- Materials and methods
- Results and discussion (Sub-titles/ divisions can be included as per the requirement)
- Conclusion

Requirements due to Manuscript Type Please note:

- The use of footnotes is not encouraged
- All submitted manuscripts have to be written in English (Check last page of instructions for authors submit articles in Spanish language).
- Manuscripts should be submitted in the specified format.
- Manuscripts should be paginated along with line numbers (Tables and figures need not be numbered).

Scientific style

- Please always use internationally accepted signs and symbols for units (SI units). Please use the standard mathematical notation for formulae, symbols etc.:
- Italic for single letters that denote mathematical constants, variables, and unknown quantities Roman/upright for numerals, operators, and punctuation, and commonly defined functions or abbreviations, e.g., cos, det, e or exp, lim, log, max, min, sin, tan, d (for derivative)
- Bold for vectors, tensors, and matrices.

References

Citation inside manuscript:

Cite references in the text by name and year in parentheses. Some examples:

- Negotiation research spans many disciplines (Thompson 1990).
- This result was later contradicted by Becker and Seligman (1996).
- This effect has been widely studied (Abbott 1991; Barakat et al. 1995; Kelso and Smith 1998; Medvec et al. 1999).
- Include DOI for all references

Reference list

The list of references should only include works that are cited in the text and that have been published or accepted for publication. Personal communications and unpublished works should only be mentioned in the text. Do not use footnotes or endnotes as a substitute for a reference list.

Reference list entries should be alphabetized by the last names of the first author of each work.

EndNote style \(zip, 2 Kb\)

Please provide each reference with an English translation of title (if not written in English).

Tables

- All tables are to be numbered using Arabic numerals.
- Tables should always be cited in text in consecutive numerical order.
- Avoid using unwanted horizontal lines; use limited vertical lines if needed
- For each table, please supply a table caption (title) explaining the components of the table.
- Identify any previously published material by giving the original source in the form of a reference at the end of the table caption.
- Footnotes to tables should be indicated by superscript lower-case letters (or asterisks for significance values and other statistical data) and included beneath the table body.

Artwork and Illustrations Guidelines

Electronic Figure Submission

- Supply all figures electronically (Separately).
- For books and book-sized journals, the figures should be 80 mm or 122 mm wide and not higher than 198 mm.
- Indicate what graphics program was used to create the artwork (It can be specified in cover letter or if needed it can be included in methodology section).
- For vector graphics, the preferred format is EPS, JPEG; for halftones, please use TIFF format. MS-Office files are also acceptable.
- All figures should be of 300 dpi or more.
- Scanned line drawings and line drawings in bitmap format should have a minimum resolution of 1200 dpi.
- Vector graphics containing fonts must have the fonts embedded in the files.
- Name your figure files with "Fig" and the figure number, e.g., Fig1.eps.
- Do not use faint lines and/or lettering and check that all lines and lettering within the figures are legible at final size.
- All lines should be at least 0.1 mm (0.3 pt) wide.
- Vector graphics containing fonts must have the fonts embedded in the files.
- When preparing your figures, size figures to fit in the column width.

- Color art is free of charge for online publication.
- If black and white will be shown in the print version, make sure that the main information will still be visible. Many colors are not distinguishable from one another when converted to black and white. A simple way to check this is to make a xerographic copy to see if the necessary distinctions between the different colors are still apparent.
- If the figures will be printed in black and white, do not refer to color in the captions.
- Color illustrations should be submitted as RGB (8 bits per channel).
- If the figure requires permission (i.e., if reproduced from another source): Include full source information as a footnote - whether an exact “lift” or an adaptation using two or more sources. The source footnote should be presented as a reference citation, listing author, title, work, publisher, year, and figure number and page number of the original source.
- If the figure is original to your chapter: Indicate this as a footnote enclosed in pointy brackets (< >) that reads “<original to the author>” to guide our copyeditors and permissions team. This, of course, will not appear in the finished book.

Permissions

Authors wishing to include figures, tables, or text passages that have already been published elsewhere are required to obtain permission from the copyright owner(s) for both the print and online format and to include evidence that such permission has been granted when submitting their papers. Any material received without such evidence will be assumed to originate from the authors.

Note 1: Manuscripts written in Spanish language will be translated using AI software of Springer. Only text will be translated, all figures and tables will not be translated and it is the authors responsibility to send the final version of figures (in JPEG format) and tables (in word format). However, all contents, discussions after the translations should be revised by the concerned authors. After due approval by the authors only the manuscripts translated in English language will be sent for external reviews/ comments and further processing.
