

James “Goldenfist” Sisco
THE MOTIVATOR

Professional Overview:

James “Goldenfist” Sisco has over 40+ years of experience as a Martial Arts professional who holds 8 World Champion Titles and has been inducted into 5 different Martial Arts Hall of Fames. He is a compassionate leader and motivational speaker, showing those around him the true power of inner-strength.

Experience:

1969 | Professional Football Player for the Boston Patriots

1973 | Started his journey in Martial Arts

1977 | Received Black Belt

1977 | Became the Caribbean Kickboxing Champion and continued to hold the title for 10 years running

1978 | Claimed the WAKO World Kickboxing Champion Title for Full Contact Kickboxing and has since received 8 World Champion Titles in Martial Arts

1978 | Won the World’s Tallest Trophy in the US Open for Sport Karate Battle of the Superstars

1980 - 1988 | Actor Roles (off and on) on the TV Series “Solid Gold”

1982 | Danced in Michael Jackson’s “Thriller” Music Video

1982 - 1987 | Cast for Stand-In Roles on the TV Series “Fame”

1983 - 1988 | Top Bouncer and Dancer for Stinger’s Nightclub

Early 1980’s | Performed Security & Bodyguard, Stunt Double, and Actor in Movies & TV Shows including: Miami Vice, 21 Jump Street, Smokey & the Bandit, and BL Striker

1986 | Created the Miami Vice Dance Team

1988 | Participated as a Motivational Speaker on the Christian Motivational Power Team series

1990 | Danced in Madonna's "Vogue" Music Video

1977 - 2005 | Owned and Operated a dance studio

James "Goldenfist" Sisco is currently working on 3 books with a possible 4th that encompass his Biography, Martial Arts, and a book on Life. He is also currently working on a screenplay.

For more information on James "Goldenfist" Sisco, please visit:
www.SiscoTheMotivator.com