

Position Description: Engineering Support VI

Summary:

The Engineering Support VI role supports federal, scientific, technical, or business operations through clear, effective,

Key Responsibilities:

- Perform technical analyses and solve complex problems.
- Develop and evaluate engineering or scientific solutions.
- Document technical findings in clear written reports.
- Coordinate with project teams to support technical goals.
- Ensure work adheres to relevant standards and procedures.

Minimum Qualifications:

- Education and experience consistent with the labor category.
- Strong written and verbal communication skills.
- Ability to work independently and collaboratively.
- Solid organizational and time management skills.