DISNEY SPRINGS - RESTAURANT OVERVIEW

The Disney Springs shopping and dining district is, in a way, Disney World's 5th "park." But instead of rides and attractions – it's filled with restaurants, snack stops, themed bars, and yes, plenty of shops and stores.

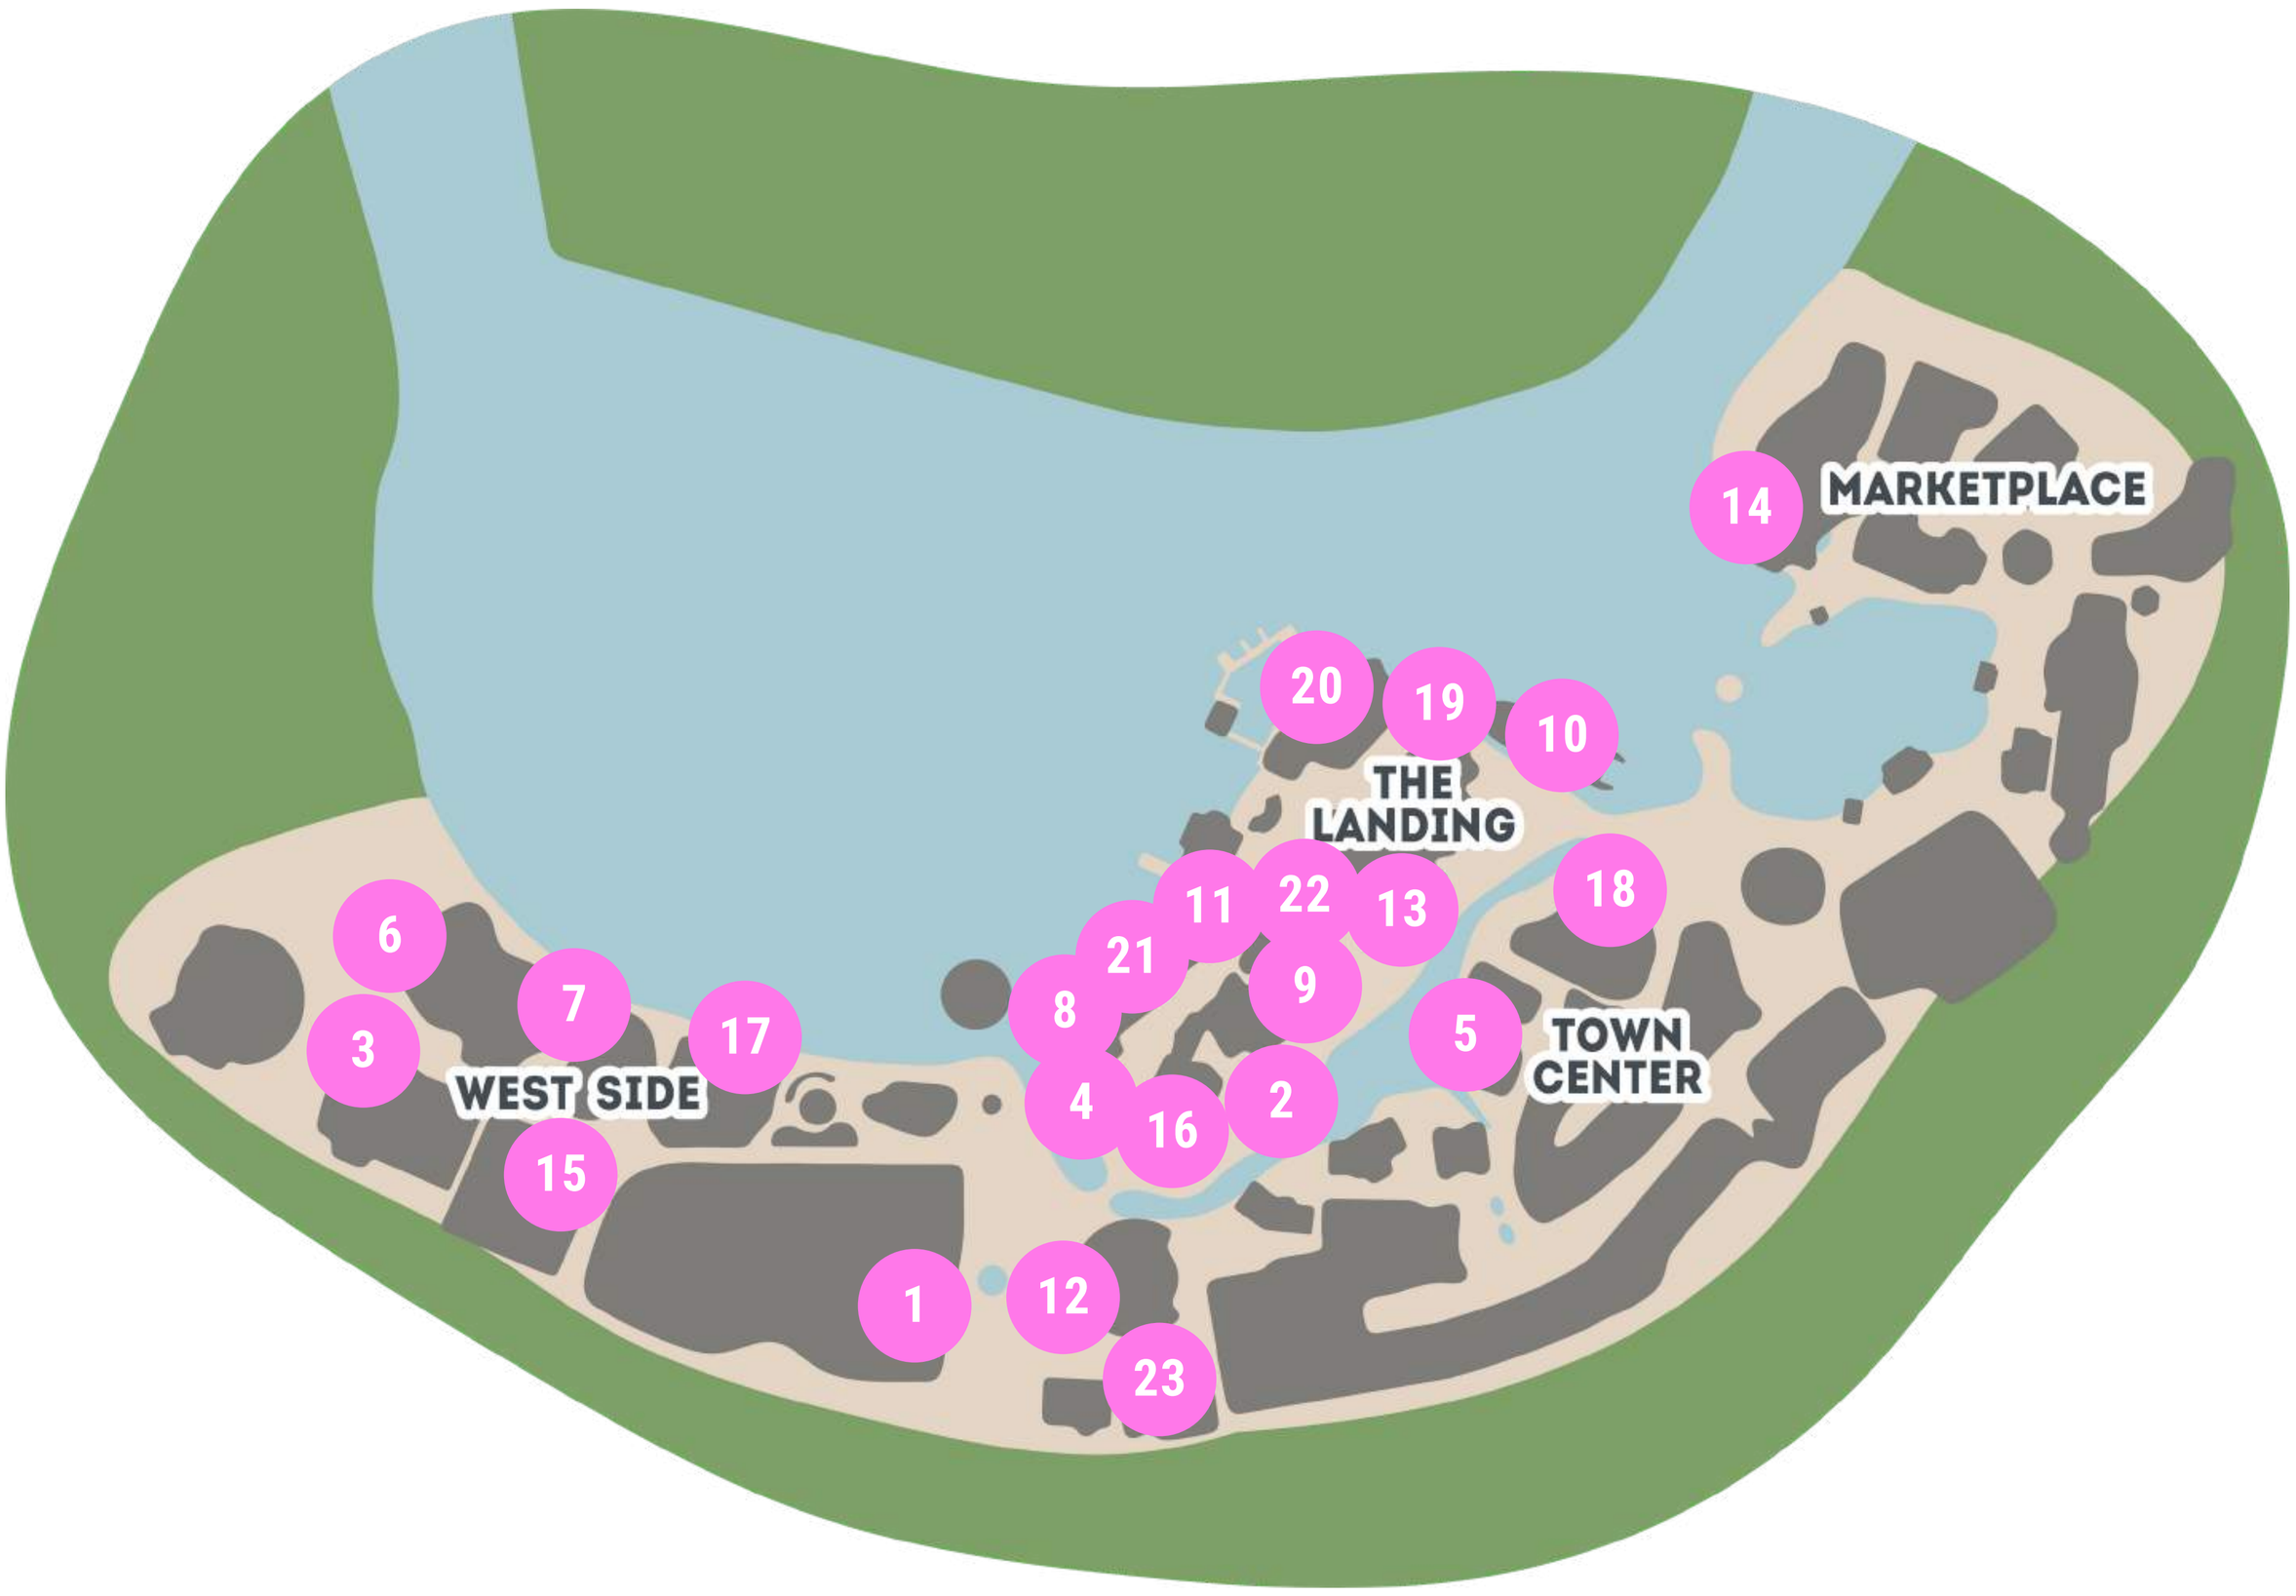

The nice thing about Disney Springs is that there's no admission fee. There isn't even a parking fee! But that can also be the downside of it, as it often becomes a popular hangout spot for locals on the weekends. So if you have plans to dine in Disney Springs over a weekend, make sure you give yourself PLENTY of time to get there and to navigate the crowds.

Disney Springs has something for just about everyone and every budget. There are some fancy restaurants from celebrity chefs. You'll also find fun and interactive spots with comfortable and approachable food. Plus, there are plenty of high-quality Quick Service options for a speedy meal. And there are SO MANY snack locations with unique and delicious treats. You'll even find bars and lounges for romantic date nights.

Whether you're looking for a quick treat or a decadent brunch, you'll find it here at Disney Springs!

HOW TO USE OUR GUIDE

There is a LOT of information about Disney food and dining options out there, but we've broken down some of the key details you need to know to make the best dining choices for your group. So, let's dive in!

First, you'll notice that we have a smattering of symbols at the top of the restaurant and other dining location pages. These are quick indicators of what you need to know. Most of them are self-explanatory, but we'll give you a rapid rundown of them.

DISNEY DINING PLAN ACCEPTED

- This indicates that the restaurant accepts credits from the Disney Dining Plan. IMPORTANT: The location might accept Snack Credits, Table Service credits, Quick Service credits, or a mix. This symbol only indicates that the location accepts some form of Disney Dining Plan credits, but you'll want to verify what type of credits are accepted, how many might be needed, and if there are any specific restrictions as to what dishes qualify.
- PRO TIP: For locations accepting Mobile Order via the My Disney Experience app, use the app to create a sample mobile order. That can let you see what might qualify as a snack credit.
- For an in-depth look at the Disney Dining Plan, check out our entire guide dedicated solely to the Dining Plan and how to make the best use of it.

- $$$ – $35-$59.99 per adult
- $$$$ – over $60 per adult

DFB FAVORITE

We've eaten it ALL, and there are some spots we keep coming back to because they are just THAT GOOD! If you want to know our favorites, be on the lookout for this symbol. Keep in mind that while restaurants marked with this symbol might be our favorites, that doesn't mean that the other restaurants are bad. Other spots might have some seriously delicious eats too! Or those other spots might have more standard eats that are just what your group needs. It's all about finding what suits you best. We've got our favorites, but we can't wait to hear all about yours.

CHARACTER MEAL

Dining with the characters is a unique and quintessential Disney World vacation experience.

MOBILE ORDER

Mobile Order allows you to pre-order and pre-pay for your food via the My Disney Experience app (which you'll use on your mobile device) for participating Quick Service restaurants around Disney World.

HOW TO USE OUR GUIDE

SERVICE TYPE

Disney offers three primary dining service types: Snack, Quick Service, and Table Service.

Snack: This is typically the category for those little carts or kiosks you'll find around the parks. Think popcorn or ice cream carts. Expect little to no dedicated seating near these. Plan to eat on a nearby bench or walk as you snack!

Quick Service: For these spots, you'll typically order at a counter (or on your mobile device), collect your food, and seat yourself. Think fast food, but Disney-fied. Seating can vary - sometimes there's ample seating (indoors and/or outdoors). Other times, seating is more limited. Look for our indications throughout this guide of what seating is like at each Quick Service spot

Table Service: At these restaurants, you'll be seated for your meal and waited on by servers. This service type includes buffets, character meals, and fancy signature dining spots. Seating for these is typically indoors, though some spots may also offer outdoor seating.

DISCOUNTS

Some restaurants offer discounts if you are a member of a certain group. Those discounts tend to range from 10%-20%. There may be restrictions on the discounts in terms of what is included, whether it applies to only one meal time or another, and whether there are blockout dates. You can check on the Disney World, Annual Passholder, Disney Vacation Club, and Disney Visa websites for details. The red tags indicate which groups get discounts at these locations:

DVC: Disney Vacation Club members

AP: Annual Passholders

DV: Disney Visa Cardholders

HOW TO USE OUR GUIDE

MEAL TIMES AVAILABLE

Not every location is open for every meal. We'll indicate which meal each location serves with these letters:

B Breakfast (we'll typically use this for any spot that is open any time before 11 AM)

L Lunch (we'll typically use this for any spot that is open between 11 AM and 4 PM)

D Dinner (we'll typically use this for any spot that is open 4 PM and on)

Some restaurants may serve brunch (every day or only on select days) in addition to other meals (particularly a few restaurants in Disney Springs). We have not specifically noted brunch in these icons, but it's something to keep in mind. You'll typically find notes about brunch in our pro tips or menu highlights sections! You'll want to check the Disney World website or the My Disney Experience app for updates.

1 Advance Dining Reservation (ADR) Rating

2 Dining reservations are strongly recommended for all Table Service locations at Disney World, and some are more challenging to secure than others. We've ranked each Table Service location from 1-5 with color coding, with 1 being the hardest to get and 5 being the easiest to get.

TABLE SERVICE

TABLE SERVICE RESTAURANTS

Table Service refers to a restaurant where you are seated by a host and served by waitstaff.

Table Service restaurants encompass a variety of dining options, including:

- Signature Dining (Fine Dining)
- Character Dining (Meet Disney Characters) – None available in Disney Springs
- Buffets/Family-Style Meals (All you care to enjoy) – None available in Disney Springs
- More Standard, Plated Options

Reservations are highly recommended for these spots and can fill up FAST for popular locations. Book reservations up to 60 days in advance via the My Disney Experience app or website. You can also call (407) 939-3463. Reservations for several restaurants here are also available via OpenTable, so be sure to look there even if the Disney World website doesn't show availability.

Be mindful of the cancelation policies. Many may charge a $10 per person fee if you cancel less than 2 hours in advance. However, some restaurants may have different cancelation policies, especially at Disney Springs, where many spots are not owned by Disney and many reservations can be booked through OpenTable. Look at each spot's policies carefully.

Table Service meals all feature indoor seating, though select spots may offer limited patio dining as well.

Since you'll have a server, it is customary to leave a gratuity, so factor that into your budget.

AMC DINE-IN THEATRES

$ | LD | 5

AMC Dine-In Theatres is the ONLY place in Disney Springs where you can get a full meal while watching a feature-length film. The menu features hearty pub food. If you've been to an AMC Theatre before with the same sort of "fork-and-screen" dining concept, then the one at Disney Springs is going to have a very similar (if not the same) menu that you'll find at any of the other ones you visit outside of Disney. The food's not super unique, and it can get pricey, but sometimes a movie and a meal just hits the spot!

MENU HIGHLIGHTS

- Casual, Classic American Eats
- Only select films/theaters are available for the Fork & Screen experience.
- If you want the experience where food is brought to your seats, carefully select the dine-in theater option.
- Things we've enjoyed: Chicken Tenders – they're a little greasy, but sometimes that's just what you want when watching a movie

PRO TIPS

- Arrive at least 30 minutes early to give yourself time to order the food.
- You'll order at a kiosk and then select whether you're in a theater where the food will be delivered to you, or if you'll be picking it up at the window.
- You can generally get the same food from the dine-in experience in another (non-dine-in) theater, but you'll need to pick up your food at a designated window.

THE BOATHOUSE

$$$ DVC LD 4

The BOATHOUSE is a high-end yet casual restaurant known for its focus on seafood and steaks. There's plenty of seating both indoors and out, with beautiful views of the water. While there are a few non-seafood options beyond steak, they aren't the highlight – so if that's what you're after, you might want to explore other spots. It's not the most budget-friendly option, but for seafood lovers, it's one of the best places to dine in Disney World. Add in the relaxed atmosphere and waterfront setting, and you've got a standout dining experience.

MENU HIGHLIGHTS

- Seafood can include a raw bar, seafood tacos, and more
- Things we've enjoyed: Maine Style Lobster Roll, Gulf of Mexico Red Grouper, Shrimp and Andouille Mac and Cheese, Dockside Shrimp Boil, Jumbo Lump Crab Cake, Duck Duck Razz, Firecracker Shrimp, Filet Mignon Sliders, Caramel Apple Bread Pudding – there's a LOT to love here

PRO TIPS

- Lunch and dinner are 2 Table Service credits per person on the Disney Dining Plan.
- Live music is typically available Fridays and Saturdays.
- Captain's Sing-Along Brunch available on the weekends
- Check out the Amphicars that launch into the water next to the restaurant. You can pay for a tour!

CHEF ART SMITH'S HOMECOMIN'

$$ AP DVC LD 2

Homecomin' is one of our absolute FAVORITE restaurants in all of Disney World and is a HUGELY popular spot with many folks. It is a farm-to-fork restaurant created by celebrity Chef Art Smith meant to reflect his own Floridian roots. The food here consists of Southern & Florida-inspired classics. It may not be the most adventurous, BUT it's high quality, consistently tasty, and rarely disappoints. It's a spot we go back to over and over again, and we think it is WELL worth a visit!

MENU HIGHLIGHTS

- Southern & Florida-inspired classic dishes
- Plenty of drink options, with a strong focus on moonshine
- Things we've enjoyed: Thigh-High Chicken Biscuits, Fried Pickles, Fried Chicken, Church Lady Deviled Eggs, Shrimp & Grits, Hummingbird Cake, Shine Cake – you can rarely go wrong here

PRO TIPS

- Order the Shine Flight to sample all five on tap! If you know you'll be coming back time and time again, grab a refillable drink sipper.
- The Rise 'n Shine Brunch is available on weekends.
- For a quick option, grab some moonshine cocktails and more at the attached Southern Shine Bar.

CITY WORKS EATERY & POUR HOUSE

$$ AP DVC LD 4

City Works serves craft beer and sports bar eats while offering LOTS of high-def TVs for viewing live sporting events. There are also 90+ local and global beer options on tap. If you're looking for something more Disney-fied or sophisticated, you'll want to eat elsewhere. But if you love a sports bar atmosphere, want to watch a game on a big screen, and are looking for a place with some good eats, fairly big portions, and decent prices, City Works can be a good option!

MENU HIGHLIGHTS

- American sports bar eats (burgers, sandwiches, etc.) with some more unique flavors mixed in + LOTS of drink options!
- Brunch offered on the weekends
- Food is solid, but sometimes can have a mass chain-style feel
- Things we've enjoyed: Duck Nachos, Pretzel Bites, Cheese Curds, Spicy Shrimp Tacos, Smoked Cheddar Mac N' Cheese, Peanut Butter Snickers Pie

PRO TIPS

- The atmosphere can get lively when games are on.
- Lots of seating indoors and on a big outdoor patio
- Hidden menu items (and other perks) may be available to those who sign up for the restaurant's free rewards club.

THE EDISON

This “Industrial Gothic” spot, inspired by 1920s-era power plants, offers a unique Steampunk-style atmosphere. The menu features classic American fare, a wide variety of craft cocktails, and nightly live entertainment. Think flapper dancers, jazz bands, and a vibrant, adult-centric vibe. While it’s not the most budget-friendly option, it’s a great pick if you’re looking for live entertainment, a swanky night out, and an unforgettable setting.

MENU HIGHLIGHTS

- American eats with a decent variety
- They are BIG on their cocktails. If you love a good drink, this might be a good place to visit. Ask about the Mixologist Featured Cocktail.
- Things we’ve enjoyed: Strawberry Fields Forever drink, Cast Iron Apple Pie, DB “Clothesline Candied Bacon,” The Edison Burger, Tomato Soup + Gooey Grilled Cheese (SPECTACULAR!)
- The PB, B&B Electric Co. might be a bit too sweet for some as an entree, but it is a blast from the past!

PRO TIPS

- Live entertainment is typically offered nightly.
- If you prefer a quieter meal, consider coming at lunch.
- They host several ticketed events, like cocktail classes. They can be pricey, but worth it. Check The Edison’s website calendar.
- High Roller Cocktails are pricey but come with a special coin. Collect 4 coins and you get your next High Roller drink for FREE!

ENZO'S HIDEAWAY

$$ AP DVC LD 4

Hidden away down a set of stairs and behind a nondescript door is where you'll find Enzo's Hideaway. This highly themed restaurant is meant to make you feel like you've entered a speakeasy made out of rumored rum-running tunnels. It serves Roman cuisine and craft cocktails. While it might not be the most extravagantly flavorful Italian-inspired food you're ever going to have, the immersiveness of this one-of-a-kind place might make it worth the visit.

MENU HIGHLIGHTS

- Menu features Italian eats like cured meats and cheeses, calamari, salads, pasta, and more
- The lunch and dinner menus do differ in some aspects – look carefully before visiting.
- Things we've enjoyed: Cured Meat and Artisan Cheeses, Focaccia Della Casa, Limoncello Gimlet

PRO TIPS

- Be sure to look for all kinds of details inside like graffiti and empty liquor bottles.
- Make sure to get a table inside (rather than out on the patio) to soak in the theming.

FRONTERA COCINA

$$ AP DVC LD 5

Frontera Cocina is a Mexican restaurant from celebrity Chef Rick Bayless. You'll find authentic Mexican cuisine here – from tacos and fresh guacamole to enchiladas, carne asada, and more. The menu offers some familiar classics as well as some more unique picks. The dishes can be a bit pricey, but Frontera Cocina offers some seriously delicious and flavorful Mexican eats, and it tends to be less crowded than the other Disney Springs restaurants.

MENU HIGHLIGHTS

- Mexican eats packed with flavor
- Brunch is typically available 11 AM to 3 PM on Saturdays and Sundays
- Things we've enjoyed: Carnitas Tacos, Queso Fundido, Cuatro Leches, Toasted Pumpkin Seed "Hummus", Creamy Chicken Enchiladas Suiza (if you like spicy things), Play with Fire Margarita, Frida drink, Chipotle Chicken Flautas, Chocolate Sugar Skull, Margarita Tree

- Check out the drink specials.
- Some of the drinks here are the same as the ones served at the popular La Cava del Tequila in EPCOT's Mexico Pavilion, including the La Cava Avocado margarita! It's a great way to try those drinks without entering a park.

HOUSE OF BLUES RESTAURANT & BAR

DDP $$ AP DV DVC LD 5

House of Blues is ALL about the live music and Southern food. This is a nice spot to enjoy a meal and entertainment at the same time. If you're from a place that already specializes in Creole classics, then House of Blues may not excite you all that much. It is a chain restaurant, so you'll find it in other places in the United States, but we were BLOWN AWAY by some of the eats during a previous visit. If you're looking to try something new to you in Disney Springs and love southern comfort food, it might be a good fit.

MENU HIGHLIGHTS

- American Southern eats mixed with some international flavors – like salads, fried chicken, smoked brisket, burgers, po'boys, gumbo, and more
- Brunch served on weekends with things like Bottomless Mimosas, Chicken & donuts, and more
- Things we've enjoyed: Mac & Cheese Skillet, Cajun Chicken Pasta, Loaded Fries, BBQ Brisket Nachos, Jambalaya, Bread Pudding (A MUST!)

PRO TIPS

- Keep an eye on who's performing while you're in town. Big names can draw big crowds. For the scheduled concerts, you'll typically need to buy a ticket for the music hall (which is not the same as the restaurant).
- The Front Porch Bar outside also boasts live music!

JALEO BY JOSÉ ANDRÉS

$$ AP DV DVC LD 4

Jaleo is a signature restaurant that serves up traditional and contemporary Spanish cuisine from celebrity Chef José Andrés. The atmosphere is nice, featuring eccentric decor (look for the bull with a luchador mask!), and everyone shouting “PAELLA.” If you are with SUPER pickier eaters or don’t like tapas-style eating, consider heading elsewhere. But if you want a relaxing atmosphere, a signature dining experience with hearty portions, and a food adventure, stop here! You can spend a nice night at Jaleo drinking, nibbling, and talking away.

MENU HIGHLIGHTS

- Tapas-style menu with Spanish cuisine
- Paellas are a big deal, massive, priced at $130+, and take up to 45 minutes to prepare. A cowbell is rung when one is ready.
- Things we’ve enjoyed: Paella, Paletilla ibérica, Chorizo ibérico, Croquetas de Pollo, Endivias con queso de cabra y naranjas, Patatas Bravas (a big favorite!)

PRO TIPS

- Vino Wednesdays can get you a bottle of wine for HALF the price with your dinner!
- Lunch and dinner are both 2 Table Service credits on the Dining Plan, which might not be a great value compared to other places.
- Stop by during the week for lunch & see if the prix fixe “Almuerzo Rápido” menu is available. You can enjoy several dishes for a single set price.

LEVEL99

COMING SOON

$$ LD

Level99 is a BRAND NEW experience coming soon to the West Side of Disney Springs (at the former home of the NBA Experience). Think of it like an escape room, an obstacle course, and an arcade all wrapped into one. This spot will have over 60 challenge rooms and duels. Some offer mental challenges, while others are physical challenges. The 2-story space will also have a chef-crafted menu, including their award-winning Detroit-style pizza. While the menu at Disney Springs may differ, we anticipate that the menu will have many similarities to other locations.

MENU HIGHLIGHTS

- The menu at Disney Springs may differ, but we visited the location at Natick, MA, which features snacks, bites, Detroit-style pizza, fresh wagyu burgers, handhelds, salads, and more. There is also a selection of craft beer, wine, cocktails, and other beverages.
- Things we've enjoyed: Chartreuse or Dare cocktail, The Godfather Detroit-style pizza, Hand-breaded Crispy Chicken Dunks, Truffle Parm, and Fresh Herb fries

PRO TIPS

- The current LEVEL99 locations are recommended for ages 10 and up, with those younger needing to be accompanied by an adult. Kids ages 11 to 15 typically need to have an adult present in the venue and reachable by cell phone, but they don't need to stay with them at all times. Stay tuned to see what changes/updates, if any, are made for the Disney Springs location.

MARIA & ENZO'S RISTORANTE

Maria and Enzo's offers a menu inspired by traditional Sicilian cuisine, served in a unique setting designed to resemble a 1930s abandoned airline terminal– complete with vintage travel touches like a door marked "All Gates" and a "Passenger Check-In" area. The dining room is spacious, boasting 50-foot-high ceilings and offering views of Lake Buena Vista. While prices can be a bit high for the value, it's usually easy to get a table without a reservation. If you're in the mood for Italian food and a laid-back atmosphere, this could be a good choice.

MENU HIGHLIGHTS

- Italian eats – expect things like calamari fritti, salads, and pasta
- Lunch and dinner menus are NOT exactly the same. Some dishes are exclusive to one meal, and some items are more expensive at dinner than at lunch. Visit for lunch if you want to pay less.
- Things we've enjoyed: Torchio Alla Verdure, Pollo alla Parmigiana, Torta della Nonna, Lasagna for two

PRO TIPS

It can be quite pricey, but the quality of the food makes it a worthwhile splurge for fans of upscale dining and bold, adventurous flavors.

MENU HIGHLIGHTS

- Asian eats with lots of options – from sushi rolls to dim sum, noodles, Peking duck, and more

If you're looking for a restaurant with a BEAUTIFUL view in Disney Springs, Paddlefish has it! The restaurant is located in a docked steamboat with gorgeous 360-degree waterfront views. We've had some mixed experiences here, so you may be drawn to other spots that are more consistently stellar in Disney Springs. Paddlefish is pricey, and non-seafood options are somewhat limited. Oh...and there's a tequila tower with 37 varieties! Sometimes, the entrees feel overpriced for what you get and just haven't wowed us, but we've had tastier entrees on more recent visits. Overall, this is a solid choice if you're looking for a fun environment, good cocktails, and appetizers and desserts with flavors that are a little more unique.

MENU HIGHLIGHTS

PLANET HOLLYWOOD

DDP $$ AP DV DVC LD 5

Planet Hollywood is your spot for a high-energy vibe – from movie memorabilia to giant projections of music videos and sing-along videos for popular tunes – it has a fun, karaoke/dance party atmosphere. There are multiple levels of dining rooms and plenty of options on the menu (American eats mostly). Most of the dishes here haven't really knocked our socks off. They can be pricey, and the restaurant can be LOUD and overwhelming for some. But, this can still be a fun option if you've got karaoke, music, or movie fans in the group, and are looking for classic American eats that'll please plenty of picky eaters.

MENU HIGHLIGHTS

- American eats – salads, pasta, burgers, sandwiches, steak, chicken, and more
- Look for drinks in souvenir glasses and over-the-top milkshakes
- Celebrity Chef Guy Fieri created the burger & sandwich menu here.
- Things we've enjoyed: World Famous Chicken Crunch, High Roller Sampler, White Chocolate Bread Pudding, Bird is the Word Sandwich - though we've had mixed experiences with this one

PRO TIPS

- Check out the attached, outdoor Stargazers Bar for quick bites and drinks. There's live music at night on Fridays/Saturdays, and karaoke on Wednesdays!

RAGLAN ROAD IRISH PUB AND RESTAURANT

$$ AP DV DVC BLD 4

Raglan Road serves up seriously tasty Irish dishes. While the food is generally fantastic, the entertainment is also a big draw, with live music and a team of Irish dancers putting on a great show, typically in the evenings. The entertainment can get very loud, your meal can be pricey, and the food is a bit more unique (potentially tougher for super picky eaters), but if you're looking for a really exciting atmosphere, great Irish-inspired eats, and a large drink menu, this is an awesome spot.

MENU HIGHLIGHTS

- Contemporary Irish eats
- Rollicking Raglan Brunch served on Saturdays and Sundays from 10 AM to 3 PM.
- Check out Happy Hour specials.
- The drink menu is extensive, with plenty of beers, whiskey, wines, and more.
- Things we've enjoyed: Bangers + Mash = Yum, Ger's Bread and Butter Pudding, Fish & Chips, Garlic & Parmesan Chips

PRO TIPS

- Typically entertainment is offered on the main stage from 5-10 PM.
- Not EVERY table will give you a good view of the stage inside. Ask the host for prime show seating if possible.
- This is a hugely popular spot for St. Patrick's Day. Look for other special events throughout the year.

RAINFOREST CAFE

DDP $$ AP DVC LD 5

Rainforest Cafe features an extensive menu of eats within a VERY interactive rainforest-themed dining room. The theming is the big draw – there are animatronic animals, intermittent thunderstorms, a starlit sky, and much more. The restaurant is NOT unique to Disney. The atmosphere can be loud and overwhelming for some, and the food quality is on par with other chain restaurants. But the plentiful food options are good for picky eaters, and the entertaining environment makes it incredibly fun - especially for kids!

MENU HIGHLIGHTS

- LARGE menu with plenty of options – everything from soups and salads to seafood, sandwiches, burgers, ribs, pasta, and more.
- Things we've enjoyed: Sparkling Volcano dessert (fun presentation), Mojo Bones Ribs, Caribbean Coconut Fried Shrimp

PRO TIPS

- Loud "thunderstorms" happen about every 20 minutes. It is fun for many, but can be tough on really little ears or those with sensory issues.
- Join Landy's Select Club for perks here.
- There is ANOTHER Rainforest Cafe restaurant at the entrance to Animal Kingdom. The Animal Kingdom location serves breakfast, but the Disney Springs location does not.

SPLITSVILLE LUXURY LANES

Bowling AND sushi? Yes, please! Splitsville is a bowling alley that also serves a full menu of items like sushi, artisan pizzas, and other upscale pub food. The eats here are NOT your typical alley fare. There's also an extensive drink menu, including a boozy DOLE Whip-based Pina Colada! You don't have to bowl to dine here – you can choose either activity or both. If you are looking for really unique or adventurous eats, you may want to look elsewhere. But if you want amplified chain-style food and a fun atmosphere, consider stopping here!

MENU HIGHLIGHTS

- Large menu – everything from nachos and sliders to sushi, salads, tacos, burgers, and bowls – a little something for everyone.
- Extensive drink menu too
- Things we've enjoyed: Macho Nachos (see if you can substitute the chips for fries – it's GLORIOUS), Frozen Pina Colada with DOLE Whip or Frozen Flight, Sushi, Big Wave Dave drink, Maui Chicken Sandwich
- The Super Sundae is a classic dessert and a big portion size

PRO TIPS

- Consider purchasing your drink in a refillable squeeze bottle at The Bamboo Bar – it's an attached bar on the lower level with plenty of drinks to try if that's all you're after.
- There are 5 bars inside Splitsville, too. PLUS you'll find music and pool tables – it's a fun environment.

STK ORLANDO

$$$ · AP · DVC · LD · 5

STK Orlando is a modern take on a classic steakhouse with sleek lounges and a high-energy atmosphere. Some of the prices here can be shockingly high for dishes that aren't necessarily better quality than what you'll find elsewhere (except the steak). And the atmosphere at dinner can be overwhelming and LOUD – it feels like you're in a Vegas nightclub. But if you are okay with the higher prices (or stick with some of the more affordable options) and like a nightclub atmosphere (or come at lunch for a quieter meal), and you're craving a steakhouse-style menu, this might be a place to look into.

MENU HIGHLIGHTS

- Steakhouse-style menu with salads, seafood, various steak cuts, sauces, sides, and more. Plenty of cocktails and other drinks, too.
- Brunch is available on Saturdays and Sundays, 11:30 AM-3:30 PM.
- Things we've enjoyed: steak, Lil' BRGs, Steak - order a specialty sauce to go with it, Miso Glazed Chilean Sea Bass, Mac and Cheese, Warm Chocolate Chip Cookie, Bag o' Donuts, STK & Frites (Happy Hour)
- The Wagyu Burger entree at lunch is a solid deal

PRO TIPS

- Prix fixe dinner menu option available Sun-Thurs. It may not be advertised, so ask for it. It's a good deal!
- GREAT happy hour deals - you can try awesome items for WAY less!
- Sit on the rooftop patio for beautiful views. Call STK at 407-917-7440 to make a seating request.
- The setting is more like an industrial club than a fine steakhouse.
- Lunch and dinner menus are NOT exactly the same, so look carefully.

SUMMER HOUSE ON THE LAKE

$$ AP LD 3

Summer House serves up California-inspired cuisine – including pizzas, sandwiches, salads, and more. The menu is pretty large, and some items are a little more unique – like the potato salad deviled eggs or ahi tuna tostadas. The expansive patios offer beautiful waterfront views. The food isn't exactly cheap, and the servings aren't as large as you might get at other places. But we've had great service here, the food is innovative, the atmosphere is relaxed, and all the natural sunlight makes it really inviting.

MENU HIGHLIGHTS

- California-style cuisine – guacamole, raw options, pizza, and MUCH more.
- Brunch Saturdays & Sundays (9 AM-2 PM) – brunch here has been a big hit for us!
- A grab-and-go breakfast is sometimes available starting at 9 AM,
- Sit at the bar for Martini Hour: Monday-Friday, 3-6 PM. There's a special menu, and the deals are pretty great!

Sometimes we haven't been super impressed; other times we've REALLY enjoyed certain items. This spot might be a consideration if you like Italian food and want a casual & relaxing setting that's got plenty of options for the whole group.

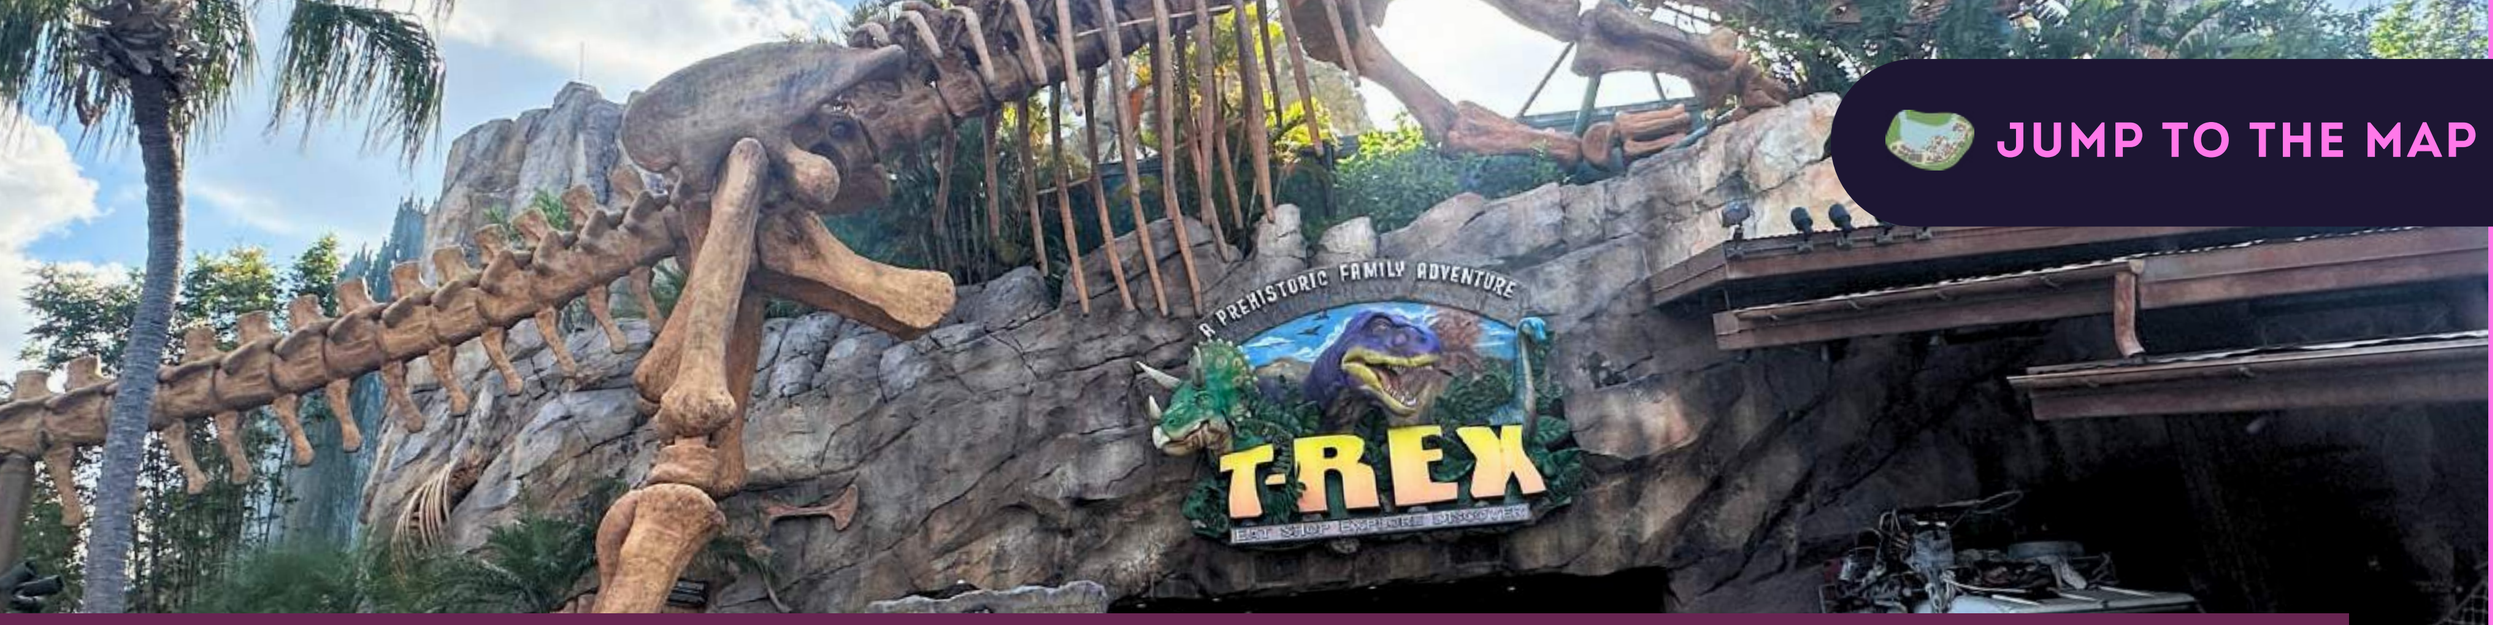

MENU HIGHLIGHTS

- Hearty Italian eats ranging from bruschetta to risotto. The menu is large and has plenty of options.

T-REX CAFE

Ever wanted to eat while surrounded by GIANT animatronic dinosaurs?! Well then, T-Rex is THE place for you! The restaurant is DECKED out with woolly mammoths, a giant octopus, life-sized dinos, and more. It's the sister restaurant to Rainforest Cafe and is very similar, except with a Jurassic twist. Expect chain restaurant-level food. The prices are pretty high for what you get. But if you or someone in your group loves dinosaurs, the theming here will definitely impress.

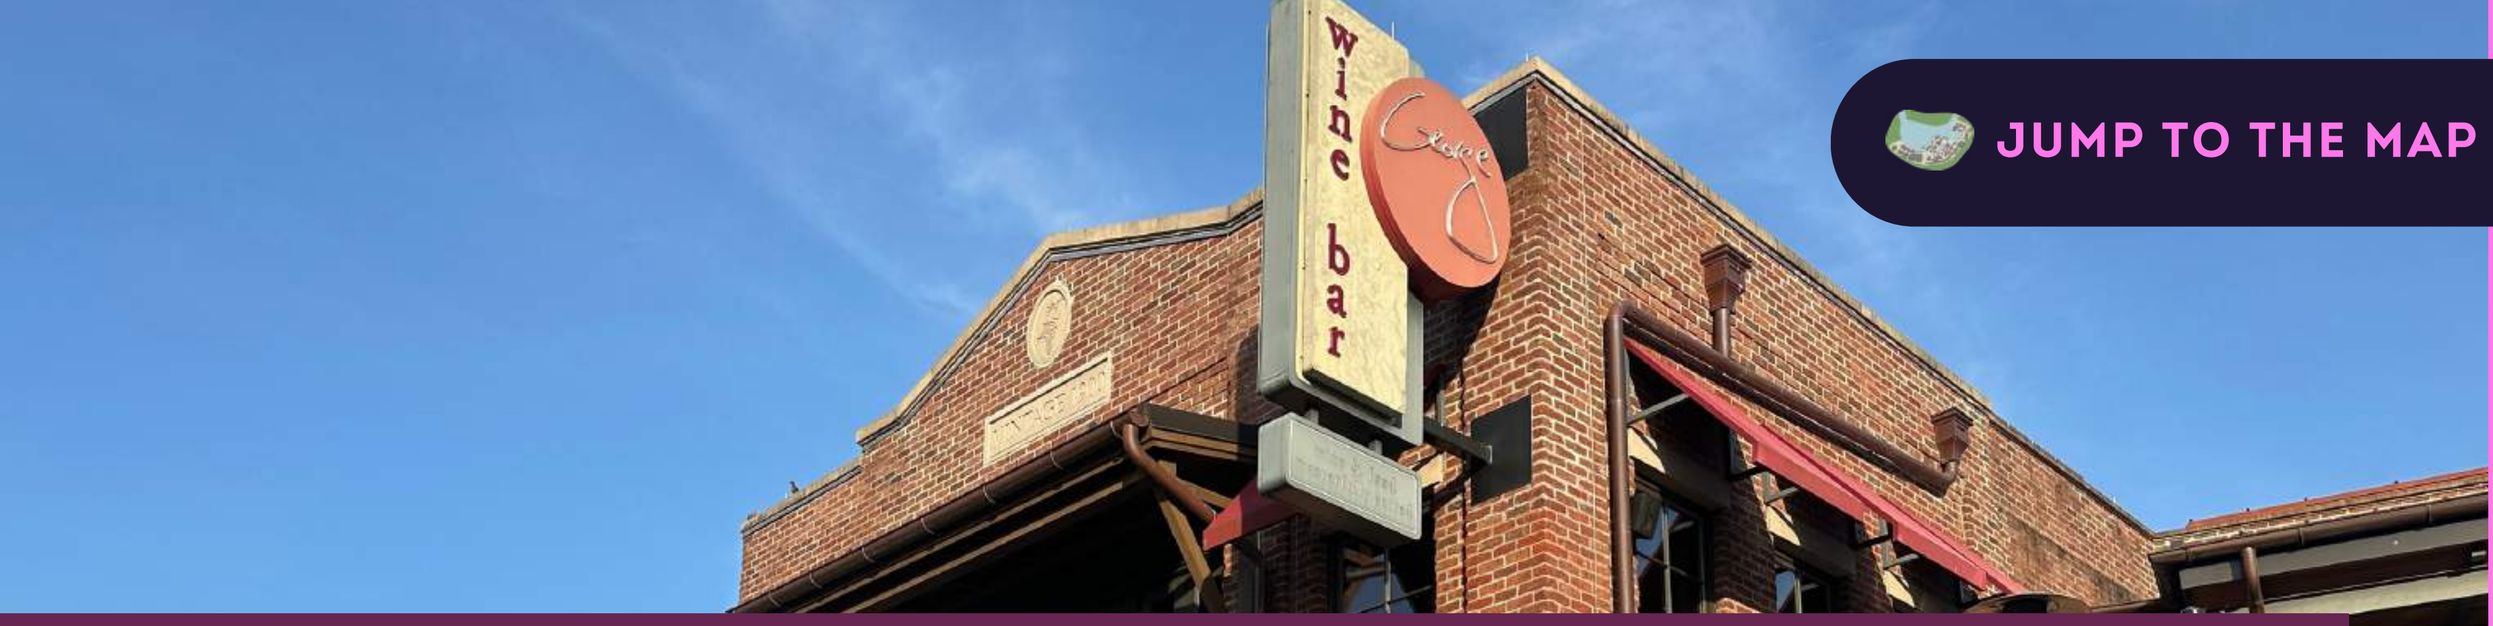

MENU HIGHLIGHTS

- It's a fun spot to share drinks and appetizers, and the menu is full of easy options for picky eaters. But the big draw here is the theming.
- In terms of food quality, we've called it the Chili's of Disney World – so go in expecting that type of quality.
- Things we've enjoyed: Buffalo Chicken Dip, Paleozoic Chicken Sandwich, Abrictosaurus Apple Crisp, The Chocolate Extinction (it's not just dessert – it's an EXPERIENCE)

PRO TIPS

- This spot can be overwhelming for some, especially because every few minutes, there's a meteor shower in the meteor room.
- Take some time to wander around to see all the decor. Walk around before you eat so you can request a certain room.
- If you want to just stop by for drinks and vibes, check out the Octopus bar. The octopus even MOVES. You can also typically order food at the bar.

This is a tried-and-true favorite of ours. Led by Master Sommelier George Miliotes, this spot features hundreds of wines, cocktails, and some DELICIOUS eats. From the fried mac and cheese bites to the cheese on fire(!) and the great drinks, Wine Bar George consistently impresses. The atmosphere feels more adult-oriented, so kids may not enjoy it, and it's not the cheapest meal. But if you want unique, top-notch, and creative eats, plenty of drink options, and a laid-back, adult vibe – THIS is the place to visit!

The scratch kitchen makes EVERYTHING fresh, beef is all prime, seafood is wild-caught, and pizza is freshly tossed – a.k.a. it's FRESH and it's good. It can get noisy, and it may not be the most enticing for kids. But if you want high-quality eats and love fresh, California and Mediterranean-inspired food, this is a good spot to consider visiting.

QUICK

QUICK SERVICE RESTAURANTS

Disney World Quick Service restaurants (also called Counter Service) offer fast, convenient, and less expensive meals without requiring reservations.

You can generally order in person at a counter or via Mobile Order through the My Disney Experience app (where available). Select Disney Springs restaurants may also have online ordering available through their own third-party apps or websites. After you order, you'll receive your meal on a tray and take it to your seat.

Options can range from traditional fast food to more unique, high-quality dishes. Sometimes these locations are fairly small and serve a limited menu. Other times they're much larger with more seating and menu options – it just depends!

Seating is typically first-come, first-served. On hot and tiring Disney days, when folks can linger at indoor tables in AC for quite a while, you may have to wait a little bit for a seat in your desired area.

The Disney Springs Quick Service spots tend to have moderate or limited seating (as compared to some Disney theme park locations that have more ample seating). Some spots may also only offer outdoor seating. These are things to keep in mind, especially if you'll be traveling with a larger group or visiting during the hottest parts of the summer.

DISNEY DINING PLAN TIPS & TRICKS

DINING PLAN TIPS & TRICKS

The Disney Dining Plan is a way to pre-pay for the majority of your Disney World meals before you go on vacation.

But when it comes to Disney Springs, spending your dining and snack credits can be more challenging than it is inside the parks. Since many of the Disney Springs restaurants are owned by third-party companies and not by Disney directly, your dining credits might not be eligible at select locations. This includes popular restaurants such as STK Steakhouse, Summer House on the Lake, Wine Bar George, Wolfgang Puck Bar and Grill, and a variety of others.

Before you make reservations or dining plans around the Disney Springs area, check to see if your DDP credits can be used at the locations where you want to eat or snack.

With that being said, the list of participating DDP restaurants is always subject to change. Many restaurants – especially those owned by third parties – could become Dining Plan-eligible in the future. So, if there are any Disney Springs restaurants and snack stands that you don't see listed on the DDP currently, check on their status again in the future to see if they get added at a later date.

MAXIMIZE YOUR CREDITS

When on the Disney Dining Plan, one thing you'll want to think about is using your credits in places/for items that'll really give you the best value. Here are a few at-a-glance options to maximize your credits in Disney Springs!

BREAKFAST

- Quick Service: Earl of Sandwich
- Table Service: Raglan Road Rollicking Raglan Brunch, Chef Art Smith's Homecomin' (Brunch)

LUNCH

- Quick Service: D-Luxe Burger, The Polite Pig
- Table Service: Morimoto Asia (only 1 Table Service credit at lunch but 2 at dinner!), Chef Art Smith's Homecomin'

DINNER

- Quick Service: D-Luxe Burger, The Polite Pig
- Table Service: Chef Art Smith's Homecomin'

SNACKS

- Bubble Waffle Sundae at Marketplace Snacks
- DOLE Whip treat at Swirls on the Water

TABLE SERVICE

There is a restaurant in Disney Springs for nearly every palate and every occasion! From down-home comfort foods to eats you can enjoy while surrounded by jungles and dinosaurs.

Many restaurants that accept the Dining Plan in Disney Springs only require 1 Table Service Credit per person but some require 2 Table Service credits per person for a single meal.

That includes The BOATHOUSE, Jaleo by Jose Andres, Morimoto Asia (dinner only), and Paddlefish.

Dollar-for-dollar, those 2 Table Service Credits meals don't always offer the best value. That's not to say that the meals there aren't delicious – they definitely can be! – but you'll want to consider whether it's worth the 2 credit per person cost.

QUICK SERVICE

Each Quick Service meal credit on the Dining Plan comes with a drink – those 21+ can choose a single-serving mixed cocktail, beer, or wine. Considering how pricey alcoholic drinks can be, ordering one with your Quick Service meal can help maximize that credit. It's just something to keep in mind when planning out your meals.

There are plenty of Quick Service options in Disney Springs – just be sure to check if the Dining Plan is accepted at the spot you're hoping to visit.

And consider what would be included with your meal there and how much it would cost you to pay out of pocket. Some spots have relatively cheap dishes, potentially not giving you the best value if you're looking to spend that credit on a more pricey meal.

DFB TOP PICKS

DFB TOP PICKS

Disney Springs is a FANTASTIC spot for dining for many reasons. For starters, you don't need a park ticket to enter the dining and shopping district, so that saves you some money (more room in the budget for eating, right?).

Second, there's an interesting mix of offerings here – some more "basic," others more unique.

There are also several restaurants here created by celebrity chefs, including Maneet Chauhan, Art Smith, and Wolfgang Puck.

You want a DOLE Whip? You got it. You want poutine? Fresh seafood? Irish eats and drinks? Fantastic barbecue? GIANT donuts or cookies? There's a little bit of almost everything!

So what are the MUST-GET items? On the following pages, you'll see our top picks at Disney Springs, but keep in mind that what we love might not suit your tastes or needs.
