EPCOT – RESTAURANT OVERVIEW

If you're looking to have the ULTIMATE Disney World food experience, EPCOT is one park you do NOT want to miss. Though you'll find good food at the other parks, EPCOT is often regarded as THE park for those who love to eat and drink. World Showcase is home to a diverse array of options that allow you to enjoy cuisines from all around the globe. World Celebration, World Discovery, and World Nature offer unique dining experiences, including restaurants with views into an aquarium and even outer space!

You'll find plenty of Table Service restaurants, Quick Service spots, kiosks, lounges, and more to choose from. There is likely something for just about everyone, but knowing where to go will make ALL the difference.

We're giving you the full rundown of every single dining spot in EPCOT so you can make the best decision for your trip.

HOW TO USE OUR GUIDE

There is a LOT of information about Disney food and dining options out there, but we've broken down some of the key details you need to know to make the best dining choices for your group. So, let's dive in!

First, you'll notice that we have a smattering of symbols at the top of the restaurant and other dining location pages. These are quick indicators of what you need to know. Most of them are self-explanatory, but we'll give you a rapid rundown of them.

DISNEY DINING PLAN ACCEPTED

- This indicates that the restaurant accepts credits from the Disney Dining Plan. IMPORTANT: The location might accept Snack Credits, Table Service credits, Quick Service credits, or a mix. This symbol only indicates that the location accepts some form of Disney Dining Plan credits, but you'll want to verify what type of credits are accepted, how many might be needed, and if there are any specific restrictions as to what dishes qualify.
- PRO TIP: For locations accepting Mobile Order via the My Disney Experience app, use the app to create a sample mobile order. That can let you see what might qualify as a snack credit.
- For an in-depth look at the Disney Dining Plan, check out our entire guide dedicated solely to the Dining Plan and how to make the best use of it.

HOW TO USE OUR GUIDE

PRICING SCALE

If you're paying out of pocket, this will help you know approximately how much to budget if you plan to dine at this location.

- $ – $14.99 and under per adult
- $$ – $15-$34.99 per adult
- $$$ – $35-$59.99 per adult
- $$$$ – over $60 per adult

DFB FAVORITE

We've eaten it ALL, and there are some spots we keep coming back to because they are just THAT GOOD! If you want to know our favorites, be on the lookout for this symbol. Keep in mind that while restaurants marked with this symbol might be our favorites, that doesn't mean that the other restaurants are bad. Other spots might have some seriously delicious eats too! Or those other spots might have more standard eats that are just what your group needs. It's all about finding what suits you best. We've got our favorites, but we can't wait to hear all about yours.

CHARACTER MEAL

Dining with the characters is a unique and quintessential Disney World vacation experience.

MOBILE ORDER

Mobile Order allows you to pre-order and pre-pay for your food via the My Disney Experience app (which you'll use on your mobile device) for participating Quick Service restaurants around Disney World.

HOW TO USE OUR GUIDE

SERVICE TYPE

Disney offers three primary dining service types: Snack, Quick Service, and Table Service.

Snack: This is typically the category for those little carts or kiosks you'll find around the parks. Think popcorn or ice cream carts. Expect little to no dedicated seating near these. Plan to eat on a nearby bench or walk as you snack!

Quick Service: For these spots, you'll typically order at a counter (or on your mobile device), collect your food, and seat yourself. Think fast food, but Disney-fied. Seating can vary - sometimes there's ample seating (indoors and/or outdoors). Other times, seating is more limited. Look for our indications throughout this guide of what seating is like at each Quick Service spot

Table Service: At these restaurants, you'll be seated for your meal and waited on by servers. This service type includes buffets, character meals, and fancy signature dining spots. Seating for these is typically indoors, though some spots may also offer outdoor seating.

DISCOUNTS

Some restaurants offer discounts if you are a member of a certain group. Those discounts tend to range from 10%-20%. There may be restrictions on the discounts in terms of what is included, whether it applies to only one meal time or another, and whether there are blackout dates. You can check on the Disney World, Annual Passholder, Disney Vacation Club, and Disney Visa websites for details. The red tags indicate which groups get discounts at these locations:

DVC: Disney Vacation Club members

AP: Annual Passholders

DV: Disney Visa Cardholders

HOW TO USE OUR GUIDE

MEAL TIMES AVAILABLE

Not every location is open for every meal. We'll indicate which meal each location serves with these letters:

- B Breakfast (we'll typically use this for any spot that is open any time before 11 AM)
- L Lunch (we'll typically use this for any spot that is open between 11 AM and 4 PM)
- D Dinner (we'll typically use this for any spot that is open 4 PM and on)

Some restaurants may serve brunch (every day or only on select days) in addition to other meals (particularly a few restaurants in Disney Springs). We have not specifically noted brunch in these icons, but it's something to keep in mind. You'll typically find notes about brunch in our pro tips or menu highlights sections! You'll want to check the Disney World website or the My Disney Experience app for updates.

- 1 Advance Dining Reservation (ADR) Rating
- Dining reservations are strongly recommended for all Table Service locations at Disney World, and some are more
- challenging to secure than others. We've ranked each Table Service location from 1-5 with color coding, with 1 being the hardest to get and 5 being the easiest to get.

Now, you're a master at using this book to its fullest potential! Let's get planning!

A close-up, slightly low-angle shot of Pluto the dog from Disney's '101 Dalmatians'. He is holding a large black knife in his right paw, raised towards his face. His mouth is open, showing a red tongue. He has a black nose and whiskers. A small tag with the name 'PLUTO' is visible on his collar. The background is a blurred indoor setting with a staircase.

TABLE SERVICE

TABLE SERVICE RESTAURANTS

Table Service refers to a restaurant where you are seated by a host and served by waitstaff.

Table Service restaurants encompass a variety of dining options, including:

- Signature Dining (Fine Dining)
- Character Dining (Meet Disney Characters)
- Buffets/Family-Style Meals (All you care to enjoy)
- More Standard, Plated Options

Reservations are highly recommended for these spots and can fill up FAST for popular locations. Book reservations up to 60 days in advance via the My Disney Experience app or website. You can also call (407) 939-3463.

Be mindful of the cancellation policies. Most will charge a $10 per person fee if you cancel less than 2 hours in advance. However, some restaurants may have different cancellation policies. Look at those carefully when booking.

Table Service meals all feature indoor seating, though select spots may offer limited patio dining as well.

Since you'll have a server, it is customary to leave a gratuity, so factor that into your budget.

AKERSHUS ROYAL BANQUET HALL

Akershus Royal Banquet Hall is one of the best-kept secrets in EPCOT! The big draw is that this is a character meal for breakfast, lunch, and dinner featuring several Disney Princesses. Characters can rotate, but we've seen Snow White, Jasmine, Belle, Tiana, Aurora, and Ariel. Food is served in all-you-care-to-enjoy family-style platters featuring traditional Norwegian fare with a few more standard eats mixed in. The meal can be pricey, but if you want a princess character meal, this is something worth considering!

MENU HIGHLIGHTS

- The food here is decent, but the princesses are the real draw.
- Breakfast typically includes pastries, eggs, Norwegian waffles, and more
- Lunch/dinner typically includes Norwegian meatballs, mashed potatoes, mac and cheese, and more
- Things we've enjoyed: Norwegian Waffles, Potato Casserole, Lefse with Cardamom-Cinnamon Butter, Norwegian Meatballs, Chicken and Dumplings, Chocolate Roulade with Lingonberry Cream

PRO TIPS

- Breakfast is cheaper ($$$) and only 1 Table Service credit on the Dining Plan, while lunch/dinner are pricier ($$$$) and cost 2 Table Service credits per person. Breakfast might be safer for picky eaters.

BIERGARTEN

Celebrate Oktoberfest all year long at Biergarten in EPCOT’s Germany Pavilion! This lively and entertaining spot serves up traditional German cuisine in buffet form, accompanied by live music. Dine in an indoor “biergarten” as German drinking songs play while you eat. Long, wooden tables are arranged with a view of the stage, and you can even get down and boogie on the dance floor! If you’ve got SUPER picky eaters or want a quiet meal, this might not be a good choice. But if you’re looking for a restaurant that offers dinner and a show, and you want a buffet with plenty of delicious eats, this is a good spot to visit!

MENU HIGHLIGHTS

- Menu features traditional German Cuisine served buffet-style
- Expect a hearty meal of sausages, spätzle, schnitzel, sauerkraut, assorted desserts, and more. Oh, and liters of beer. Yes, actual LITERS
- See if Nudel Gratin is available!
- Things we’ve enjoyed: Pretzel Roll, Roasted Chicken, Meatballs, Brownie, Apple Strudel, Cobbler

PRO TIPS

- Seating is family-style. Expect to sit with another party at the tables unless you’ve got a big group.
- The entertainment here can get quite loud – it’s a fun and lively.
- Want a fun non-alcoholic drink? Try the German Spezi – a mix of Coca-Cola and Fanta Orange!

LE CELLIER STEAKHOUSE

Le Cellier Steakhouse is a popular spot. It has a cozy atmosphere that makes you feel like you're in a wine cellar, and it is often a welcome respite from the chaos of the parks. Lunch reservations may be easier to snag, so consider that option. Le Cellier is a signature restaurant, however, which means it is EXPENSIVE, and we've found the portions don't always reflect the high cost. But if you're after a good steak, an amazing cheddar cheese soup, and a relaxing atmosphere, you'll find that all right here!

MENU HIGHLIGHTS

- The steaks here are great, and the appetizers are innovative and hearty.
- You'll find chicken, seafood, and plant-based options here too, but the steak is the bigger draw.
- Things we've enjoyed: Canadian Cheddar Cheese Soup, Poutine, Filet Mignon, the complimentary pretzel breadsticks are also delicious

PRO TIPS

- Reservations here can be difficult to get - book as early as possible. Check if there's availability via Walk-Up Waitlist.
- Both lunch and dinner require 2 Table Service credits on the Disney Dining Plan.

CHEFS DE FRANCE

Chefs de France is modeled after an authentic Parisian bistro and features traditional fare like French onion soup, escargot, and more – plus some dishes for the less adventurous, too, like baked macaroni and cheese. This spot is less formal and expensive than its neighbor, Monsieur Paul, but it's still delicious and remains a top choice for us! Not only is the food here excellent, but the service is as well. If you're a fan of French food and want a relaxing meal, this can be a great choice!

MENU HIGHLIGHTS

- Authentic French Bistro featuring everything from French onion soup and seared salmon to ratatouille and crème brûlée
- Order a la carte OR opt for a prix fixe option (includes appetizer, entree, dessert, and drink).
- Large wine menu, plus cocktails & beer
- Things we've enjoyed: Gratin de Macaroni, French Onion Soup, Boeuf Bourguignon, Escargot, Crème Brûlée, Poulet Cordon Bleu

PRO TIPS

- Request a table by the windows for some excellent World Showcase people-watching, or ask to sit in the back room with soaring ceilings.

CORAL REEF RESTAURANT

JUMP TO THE MAP ↗

CORAL REEF RESTAURANT

You don't get the chance to dine next to a giant aquarium every day – and that's definitely the main draw here! The food can be expensive for what it is, and it isn't the highlight of the experience. If you want food that'll WOW you, you'll want to look elsewhere. But the atmosphere is incredibly unique and can be a big hit with kiddos. Massive picture windows will let you peek into the giant Living Seas aquarium, and you might even see a sea turtle or shark swim by!

MENU HIGHLIGHTS

- Menu can change based on what is seasonally available
- Menu mainly features seafood with a few other options like chicken and steak
- Look for unique-to-this-spot-themed cocktails
- Things we've enjoyed: Coconut Fried Shrimp, Surf and Turf, Lobster Bisque (when available), Bread Pudding

PRO TIPS

- You can ask for a table by the aquarium when you check in, but the seating is tiered, so there are decent views from all around.
- This can be a long meal, so work that extra time into your plans.

Read Our Reviews ↗

La Crêperie de Paris

JUMP TO THE MAP ↗

LA CRÊPERIE DE PARIS

La Crêperie de Paris serves, well, crêpes! You'll find both savory crêpes (galettes) and sweet crêpes. The buckwheat flour for the galettes is flown in from France, giving an authentic feel. You can order a la carte or opt for the daily prix fixe menu. In our experience, both the food and service are great, but the prices can be a little high for what you get (though the prix fixe menu can be a good deal). It doesn't stand out as much as other restaurants in EPCOT, but if you love crêpes and want a relaxing meal, this can be a good fit!

MENU HIGHLIGHTS

- French Casual Dining – typically includes items such as soups, salads, savory crêpes, and sweet crêpes
- There's a selection of French wines, ciders, and beer available, along with a French Martini.
- Things we've enjoyed: Melba Crêpe, Gourmande Crêpe, Banane Crêpe, Saumon Galette
- Stop by the Crêpes À Emporter walk-up window attached to this restaurant for crepes on the go.

PRO TIPS

- You can add a shot of Grand Marnier, Rhum, or Calvados to any sweet crêpe.
- The prix fixe menu comes with a soup or salad; one galette; one glass of hard cider, soda, or juice; and one dessert crêpe. It can be a good deal if you're really hungry, LOVE crêpes, and have a decent appetite, but it might be too much food for light eaters.

JUMP TO THE MAP ↗

GARDEN GRILL RESTAURANT

Garden Grill Restaurant is a DFB favorite spot and one of our top character meals in ALL of Disney World! The all-you-can-eat feast is served family-style in skillets during breakfast, lunch, and dinner. The food is consistently well-prepared, and some dishes are especially delicious. What makes Garden Grill really special is that it slowly ROTATES while you're eating, giving you a view of scenes from the Living with the Land ride! Expect to see Chip 'n' Dale, plus Farmer Mickey and Pluto during your time here. This is a great choice if you want a slower, more relaxed meal with characters + fresh items that aren't super heavy. consider stopping by!

MENU HIGHLIGHTS

- Expect eggs, Mickey waffles, fruit, grilled steak, and more at breakfast
- Expect bread (often cornbread), salad, steak, turkey, various sides, and dessert at lunch and dinner
- Things we've enjoyed: Backyard grilled steak with Chimichurri sauce, Macaroni and Cheese, Mashed potatoes

PRO TIPS

- Breakfast ($$$) is cheaper than lunch/dinner ($$$$). All are 1 Table Service credit on the Dining Plan.
- Request a booth on the lower level for the best view.
- Character experience is more relaxed than in other places.
- Ask for POG (passion-fruit, orange, guava) juice at breakfast.
- Plant-based menu available

Read Our Reviews ↗

LA HACIENDA DE SAN ANGEL

La Hacienda de San Angel serves authentic, upscale Mexican cuisine. The restaurant offers incredible views of the World Showcase Lagoon from large, floor-to-ceiling windows, making it a popular dinner spot during fireworks. Appetizers and margaritas are the stars of the show here, but you'll find heartier dishes typically featuring chicken, poblano peppers, shrimp, carne asada, and more. If you want high-quality Mexican food and something a little off the beaten path, this is a good place to visit.

MENU HIGHLIGHTS

- Authentic Mexican Cuisine, typically featuring a variety of dishes – from guacamole and queso fundido to tacos and more
- You can get some margaritas (including the Avocado Margarita!) from La Cava del Tequila here.
- Things we've enjoyed: Queso Fundido, Alambre de Res, Tacos de Camarones

PRO TIPS

- If you want to score a table by a window for fireworks views, check in for your reservation EARLY and be prepared to wait.
- Reservations fill up QUICKLY for dinner times during fireworks.
- During lunch, the dining room may be used as seating for the Quick Service location next door.

Read Our Reviews ↗

MONSIEUR PAUL

Monsieur Paul offers one of the most upscale dining experiences in Disney World, tucked above Chefs de France. With a prix fixe menu around $195 per adult, it's a splurge, but it could be good for special occasions. The multi-course meal includes a welcome drink, appetizer, fish, meat, cheese, dessert, and more, all served in a quiet, elegant setting. Add in excellent service and a lovely view of World Showcase, and you've got a truly memorable night out. The menu items may push you outside your comfort zone, so it may not be a good spot for picky eaters. But if you want a fancy meal with French cuisine and more adventurous eats, it's a place to consider.

MENU HIGHLIGHTS

- Upscale French cuisine that typically features soups, salads, escargot, meats, seafood, cheese, and desserts.
- A caviar pairing is sometimes available.
- Things we've enjoyed: Cassolette d'escargot, Coquilles Saint Jacques (seared scallops)

PRO TIPS

- Request a seat by a window for fireworks views.
- There is a dress code.
- You must be 10 or older to dine here.
- Typically closed Sunday & Monday.
- Cancel at least 72 hours in advance to avoid fees.

NINE DRAGONS

Nine Dragons is a step above your local Chinese restaurant, but maybe not too far. The atmosphere here is lovely, with dark wood accents and rich, warm colors. You'll find specialties from multiple regions, including Cantonese, Mongolian, Szechuan, Hunan, and Kiangche-style dishes. We've had mixed experiences here. We've had some really good dishes, but compared to other spots in World Showcase, it isn't nearly as unique. But if you're a BIG fan of Chinese food, want big portions, or want a quiet restaurant to take a break from the crowds, this could be one to consider.

MENU HIGHLIGHTS

- Chinese cuisine with some dishes that are likely familiar to you (like pot stickers or vegetable spring rolls)
- There are also some more adventurous things like Glazed Prawns with Pistachios.
- Picky eaters and kids may enjoy dishes like Honey Sesame Chicken or Fried Rice.
- Things we've enjoyed: Kowloon Spare Ribs, Sichuan Shui Zhu Beef

PRO TIPS

- Ask for a table by the bigger windows if you want a nice view into World Showcase.
- Check out the gorgeous glass dragon figures in the main dining room (there are 9 of them, of course!).

RESTAURANT MARRAKESH

IMPORTANT: In recent years, Restaurant Marrakesh has not operated as a restaurant, but instead has often been used as a lounge space during EPCOT festivals or for select guests during other times. Stay tuned for updates!

Restaurant Marrakesh (when open as a true restaurant) can be one of EPCOT's most interesting restaurants, serving authentic Moroccan food in a lively setting. Unique dishes and entertainment in the form of belly dancers and live musicians, all presented in a truly beautiful setting, make this place stand out.

MENU HIGHLIGHTS

- When operating as a restaurant, it typically features Moroccan dishes
- Typically, picky eaters can look at the menu out front (featuring pictures of the dishes) to get an idea of what's served here and whether anything will fit their needs.
- Things we've enjoyed: Seafood and Chicken Bastilla, Beef Brewat Rolls, Harira Soup, Shish Kebab, Couscous dishes, Baklava, Warm Beignets and Sweet Cream, Mint Tea

PRO TIPS

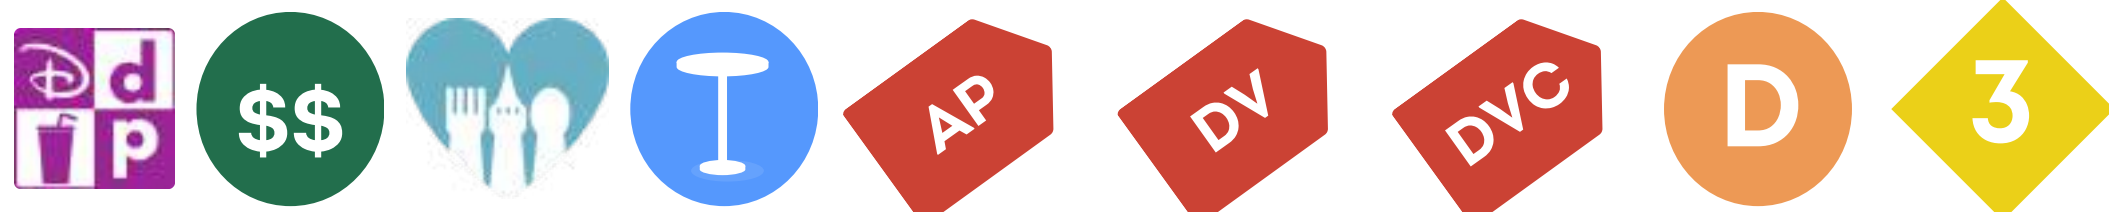

- As of press time, Restaurant Marrakesh is not serving food but is often used as a lounge area to relax and take a seat in some cold air-conditioning! You may even find some complimentary beverages or crafts too.

ROSE & CROWN DINING ROOM

Rose & Crown Dining Room is a favorite for both fans and the DFB team – and for good reason. With its cozy, pub-like atmosphere, it offers a relaxed taste of Britain right in the heart of EPCOT. The food menu is small but mighty, featuring classics like shepherd's pie and fish and chips, while the drink list is impressively long, with plenty of beer and signature sips like Pimm's Cups. One of the biggest draws is the waterside patio, which offers a fantastic view of the fireworks. The restaurant can be a bit noisy, but if you want a hearty meal with generous portion sizes and an authentic English pub experience, stop on by!

MENU HIGHLIGHTS

- Traditional British dishes that are hearty and filling.
- The food menu here is EXTREMELY small due to changes made in recent years. Read through the menu carefully to make sure they've got something you'll like.
- Things we've enjoyed: Scotch Egg, Fish and Chips, Bangers and Mash, Savory Impossible Hot Pot (when available), Shepherd's Pie, Mushy Peas, Sticky Toffee Pudding

PRO TIPS

- There is a Mobile Walk Up Waitlist you may be able to join on less busy park days.
- The Rose & Crown Pub is next door if you just want a drink.
- Book the Rose & Crown Fireworks Dining Package for guaranteed fireworks views.
- The nearby Yorkshire County Fish Shop to get fish & chips quickly (and at a cheaper price).

Read Our Reviews ↗

SAN ANGEL INN RESTAURANTE

San Angel Inn Restaurante is tucked away in the back of the Mexico Pavilion pyramid! The big draw here is the restaurant's riverside location, with views into the Gran Fiesta Tour ride, which makes for a unique experience. You'll feel like you're dining outside in a vibrant, Mexican village. You'll find elevated, authentic Mexican dining here. The food isn't particularly revolutionary or as unique as some other spots in World Showcase. But if you want a spot with beautiful views and solid Mexican eats, it's one to consider. The atmosphere alone can make this experience worth trying.

MENU HIGHLIGHTS

- Authentic Mexican cuisine. You'll typically find a variety of dishes – from guacamole and quesadillas to tacos, enchiladas, and more.
- You can order some of La Cava del Tequila's famous margaritas here, including the Avocado Margarita.
- Things we've enjoyed: Tostadas de Pollo, Pollo a Las Rajas, Ribeye Tacos, Brownie Sundae, Pan de Elote Tres Leches, Margaritas

PRO TIPS

- Request a table by the water for the best view.

SHIKI-SAI: SUSHI IZAKAYA

Shiki-Sai: Sushi Izakaya is all about shareable small plates – but don't let that fool you into thinking it's a light meal. Come hungry! There's plenty to enjoy! Perched on the second floor above the Mitsukoshi Department Store, this spot boasts gorgeous views, especially magical if you time your reservation with the fireworks. While sushi takes center stage, the menu has a wide variety of Japanese favorites, including gyoza, udon, kara-age chicken, shrimp tempura, and more. But if you want a unique dining experience with high-quality dishes or you really love sushi, consider stopping by!

MENU HIGHLIGHTS

- The menu is LARGE and typically features nigiri, sashimi, rolls, starters like miso soup, izakaya classics like tempura and wagyu, items from the grill, rice and noodles, and desserts
- The menu and decor change with the seasons to represent different Japanese festivals.
- Things we've enjoyed: Grilled Waygu Gyoza, Ishiyaki Sukiyaki Rice, Vegetable Nabeyaki Udon
- The sushi boat is incredibly expensive ($300!) but also had some of the best sushi we've had in Disney World.

PRO TIPS

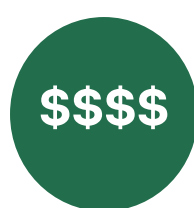

- You'll also find sake, shochu, specialty cocktails, and nonalcoholic drinks.
- Prix fixe menu utilized when you're using the Disney Dining Plan.

SPACE 220

Space 220 is a futuristic restaurant that simulates a meal in a space station 220 miles above EPCOT! Board the “Stellavator” (elevator) that simulates a real-time launch and “travel” to the Centauri Space Station. Diners can take in both daytime and nighttime views of Earth thanks to a panoramic view of space. This immersive restaurant is incredibly popular. Some food is great, but sometimes it feels like it doesn’t live up to the prix fixe cost, and the dishes capture familiar flavors. You’ll find more exotic eats elsewhere in EPCOT. But the themed experience alone might make it a must-do for you!

MENU HIGHLIGHTS

- Prix fixe menu - appetizer & entree at lunch ($$$); appetizer, entree & dessert at dinner ($$$$) serving upscale global cuisine with things like fried cauliflower, fried calamari, salmon, chicken, steak, and more
- Things we’ve enjoyed: Blue Moon Cauliflower, Seared Tuna, Filet Mignon, Steak & Frites, Roasted Carrots, Lobster Stuffed with Jumbo Crab, Carrot Cake

PRO TIPS

- Ask about the trading cards.
- Some items are exclusive to one meal time.
- Lounge option available with a limited a la carte menu of its own that ALSO requires reservations. Or you can stop by the bar - first-come, first-served.

SPICE ROAD TABLE

Spice Road Table serves up shareable Mediterranean-inspired small plates in a beautiful waterfront setting. Inside, floor-to-ceiling windows frame views of World Showcase Lagoon, while the outdoor patio offers some of the best seats for fireworks. The menu is flavorful and a bit more adventurous than typical theme park fare, which may not suit every palate. The menu is fairly small and made up entirely of small plates, so if you sample a variety of dishes to build a full meal, the bill can add up quickly. But if you want lighter dishes with Mediterranean flavors, and you want a relaxing meal, consider visiting!

MENU HIGHLIGHTS

- Moroccan and Mediterranean-inspired small plates like hummus and olives, fried calamari, grilled meats, and more.
- Wine from the Mediterranean region, signature cocktails, and nonalcoholic drinks
- Things we've enjoyed: House-made Hummus Fries, Naan Spreads, Spice Road Sampler, Dessert Platter

PRO TIPS

- There's a walk-up to-go bar just inside the entrance if you want to stop in and grab a quick drink.
- Book the Spice Road Table Fireworks Dining Package if you want to guarantee a good view.

TAKUMI-TEI

TAKUMI-TEI

Takumi-Tei is one of the most extravagant and EXPENSIVE dining experiences (we're talking $250 per person!) in Disney World. This is largely due to its omakase ("leave it up to the chef") multi-course meals. Some items are totally left up to the chef and are dependent on the season. If you've got picky eaters in the group, this is not the best match. Plus, the meal is made of many courses and can take at least a few hours. But if you love Japanese food, are willing to spend the money, and are an adventurous eater, this can be worth it since this is some of the best sushi and service you'll have anywhere on Disney property!

MENU HIGHLIGHTS

- There is an omnivorous option and a vegetarian option.
- Menu includes wagyu, tofu, sea urchin, noodles, and more
- This is likely NOT the best spot for picky eaters and kids
- Sake, specialty cocktails, nonalcoholic drinks, and Japanese beer and wine are available
- Things we've enjoyed: Sushi Plate, Lobster Tempura, Sashimi with seasonal fish, Japanese A5 Wagyu steak, Vegetable Tempura

PRO TIPS

- There is a dress code. Must be 8 years old and above to dine here.
- Reserve the Water Room for private dining for a small group.
- A semi-course experience may be available for less money.

TEPPAN EDO

JUMP TO THE MAP ↗

TEPPAN EDO

If you enjoy a hibachi experience, Teppan Edo is the place for you! Expect a fun show where your food is cooked right in front of you. While the food is good and the experience is fun, you won't find a whole lot of difference from your local hibachi spot. If it's something unique you're after, you may want to try something else in EPCOT. But our meals here have been good, and it's a great place for larger families, though smaller parties may be seated with others!

MENU HIGHLIGHTS

- Entree options typically include steak, chicken, seafood, and veggies. Entrees come with a salad, noodles, vegetables, and white rice. Appetizers, sushi, and dessert are also available. And don't forget your sake or sake cocktail!
- Use the sauces on the table to add more flavor to your meal!
- Things we've enjoyed: Teppanyaki Steak and Chicken, Violet Sake

PRO TIPS

- Unless you have a huge party, you'll be seated with other people at your table.
- Things can get loud in here!
- Chefs put on a wonderful show.
- This isn't a meal you can rush through, so make sure you have plenty of time to sit and enjoy.

TUTTO ITALIA

TUTTO ITALIA RISTORANTE

Tutto Italia is a sophisticated restaurant tucked away in the Italy Pavilion, and it's home to some delicious eats. You will generally be able to find some of your favorite pasta dishes here, along with seafood, meats, vegetables, and of course, cannoli! If you're looking for an Italian dining experience with a fancier atmosphere in EPCOT, consider booking a table here. Prices can be high, but the eats are hearty, portions are typically on the larger side, the atmosphere is warm and cozy, and it's some of the better Italian food in Disney World.

MENU HIGHLIGHTS

- Upscale Italian cuisine including things like Caprese salad, pasta e fagioli, steak, short rib, salmon, swordfish, and pasta like fettuccine alfredo, spaghetti, and lasagna bolognese.
- Picky eaters and kids can likely find “safer” dishes to eat here like spaghetti and chicken tenders.
- Things we've enjoyed: Calamari Fritti, Tortino Di Melanze, Italicus Spritz, Bellini

PRO TIPS

- Book a table in the cozy dining room or opt for some al fresco dining and people-watching on the patio! The atmosphere makes this a great spot for a date night.
- Check to see if a Prix Fixe option is available. It can be a fantastic deal for a solid, filling meal.
- Tutto Gusto, the small wine cellar next door, typically features the menu items from Tutto Italia and is first-come, first-served.

VIA NAPOLI RISTORANTE E PIZZERIA

If you're after some authentic Neapolitan, wood-fired pizzas, Via Napoli is where you want to be. It's a delicious escape from the World Showcase crowds, tucked away in the back of the Italy Pavilion. You can also find pasta and meat dishes on the menu that would likely make any fan of Italian food happy. The pizza here is the big draw though, and it is seriously fantastic. While it can be pricey, you can order a LARGE pizza here that can be a great value for families or groups.

MENU HIGHLIGHTS

- Italian eats – pizza is the star, but you'll also find small plates like fried calamari, salads, pasta, classics like chicken parmesan, and more
- Pizzas are available in individual, large, and mezzo metro (1/2 meter in length!) sizes
- Things we've enjoyed: Calamari Fritti, Quattro Formaggi Pizza, Margherita Pizza, Prosciutto e Melone Pizza, Carciofi Pizza, Chicken Parmesan

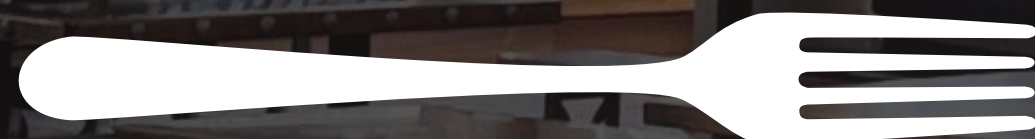

PRO TIPS

- The water used to make the pizza dough is sourced from a spring similar to Italy's Campania region.
- The pizza ovens are named after 3 volcanoes in Italy – Vesuvius, Etna, and Stromboli.
- Use multiple credits on the Dining Plan to get a larger pizza to share.

QUICK
SERVICE

QUICK SERVICE RESTAURANTS

Disney World Quick Service restaurants (also called Counter Service) offer fast, convenient, and less expensive meals without requiring reservations.

You can generally order in person at a counter or via Mobile Order through the My Disney Experience app (where available). Then, you'll receive your meal on a tray and take it to your seat.

Options can range from traditional fast food to more unique, high-quality dishes. Sometimes these locations are fairly small and serve a limited menu. Other times they're much larger with more seating and menu options – it just depends!

Seating is typically first-come, first-served. On hot and tiring Disney days, when folks can linger at indoor tables in AC for quite a while, you may have to wait a little bit for a seat in your desired area.

Some spots have ample indoor seating, like Sunshine Seasons and Connections Eatery. Others have limited indoor seating or only offer outdoor seating. In those cases, you may need to wait a bit longer for a table or plan to eat your food in another spot nearby with more seating.

LA CANTINA

JUMP TO THE MAP ↗

LA CANTINA DE SAN ANGEL

AMPLE
OUTDOOR
SEATING

If you're after some quick Mexican food in EPCOT, La Cantina de San Angel might be just the thing! This outdoor restaurant serves familiar Mexican dishes like tacos, nachos, guacamole, queso, and margaritas. And, if you time things right, you might even get a pretty good view of the EPCOT fireworks! It's not the most exotic menu, but still might be a tougher option for really picky eaters or those looking for a really HEFTY meal. But if you love tacos and want a little bit of an adventure, this can be a good fit!

MENU HIGHLIGHTS

- Grab a side of “Nacho Cheese” (a.k.a. QUESO!!) for under $1.
- You can get margaritas here, but they're not nearly the quality you'll get at La Cava del Tequila or Choza de Margarita.
- Things we've enjoyed: Guacamole with Totopos, Taco Trio, Tacos de Barbacoa, Nachos, Tequila Sundae – basically a lime DOLE Whip reimagined as a margarita!

PRO TIPS

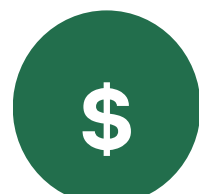

- Sometimes, indoor seating within the attached Hacienda de San Angel restaurant is available to those eating at La Cantina during lunch.

CONNECTIONS CAFE

BLD

AMPLE
INDOOR
SEATING

Connections Café is located in EPCOT's World Celebration neighborhood and is the Starbucks location in this park. Expect to find your favorite Starbucks drinks from home here, including frappuccinos, specialty drinks, tea, seasonal offerings, and more. You'll also typically find a few breakfast sandwiches and pastries you'll recognize from your local Starbucks. What makes this spot unique is its liege waffle treat, made with brioche dough and pearl & powdered sugar! Or try other unique-to-this-spot treats you may find in the bakery case (like the Baumkuchen)!

MENU HIGHLIGHTS

- Starbucks drinks and eats, as well as some unique-to-Disney items like the Liege Waffle. The Baumkuchen Cake (cake with lots of small layers) and Caramel Macchiato Blondie (great for fans of caramel!) are some other unique items to check out.
- Be on the lookout for seasonal versions of the Liege Waffle
- Connections Cafe can get BUSY and does not offer mobile order

PRO TIPS

- There is LOTS of air-conditioned seating in here, and some seats even have outlets handy so you can charge your devices.
- Look for nods to EPCOT around the restaurant – including the floor!

CONNECTIONS EATERY

AMPLE
INDOOR
SEATING

Connections Eatery features familiar dishes inspired by global flavors. While it might get overlooked in favor of the more unique spots in World Showcase, Connections Eatery offers a wide variety of items (some of which are really tasty!) that could please your whole group. You can typically expect burgers, pizza, and salad, plus chicken strips for the kids. The options are, at their core, “safe” items, but they’ve got unique twists to keep them interesting and flavorful.

MENU HIGHLIGHTS

- You’ll also typically find shakes, a Liege Waffle, Baumkuchen (a special cake with MANY layers), and a few alcoholic drinks
- Look for seasonal options!
- Things we’ve enjoyed: French Bistro Burger, Hand-breaded Chicken Sandwich, Margherita Pizza, Liege Waffle, Baumkuchen, Watermelon-Mint Agua Fresca, Belgian Chocolate Gelato Shake, Peruvian Salad

PRO TIPS

- LOTS of indoor air-conditioned seating. Look for tables and booths with outlets or wireless charging.
- Look out for the Zesty Signature Sauce – it’s WELL worth getting!

CRÊPES À EMPORTER BY LA CRÊPERIE DE PARIS

NO
SEATING

Crêpes À Emporter is the Quick Service window attached to La Crêperie de Paris in the France Pavilion, giving you a tasty option for crêpes on the go! This walk-up window serves a few of the same sweet crêpe and savory galette options you'll find at La Crêperie, plus several unique-to-this-spot options. You'll also find ice cream, hard cider, wine, champagne, mimosas, and beer. The menu is limited, and most items are sweet. But if you're looking for a quick meal or snack that can be shared with a friend and you love crepes, consider stopping by.

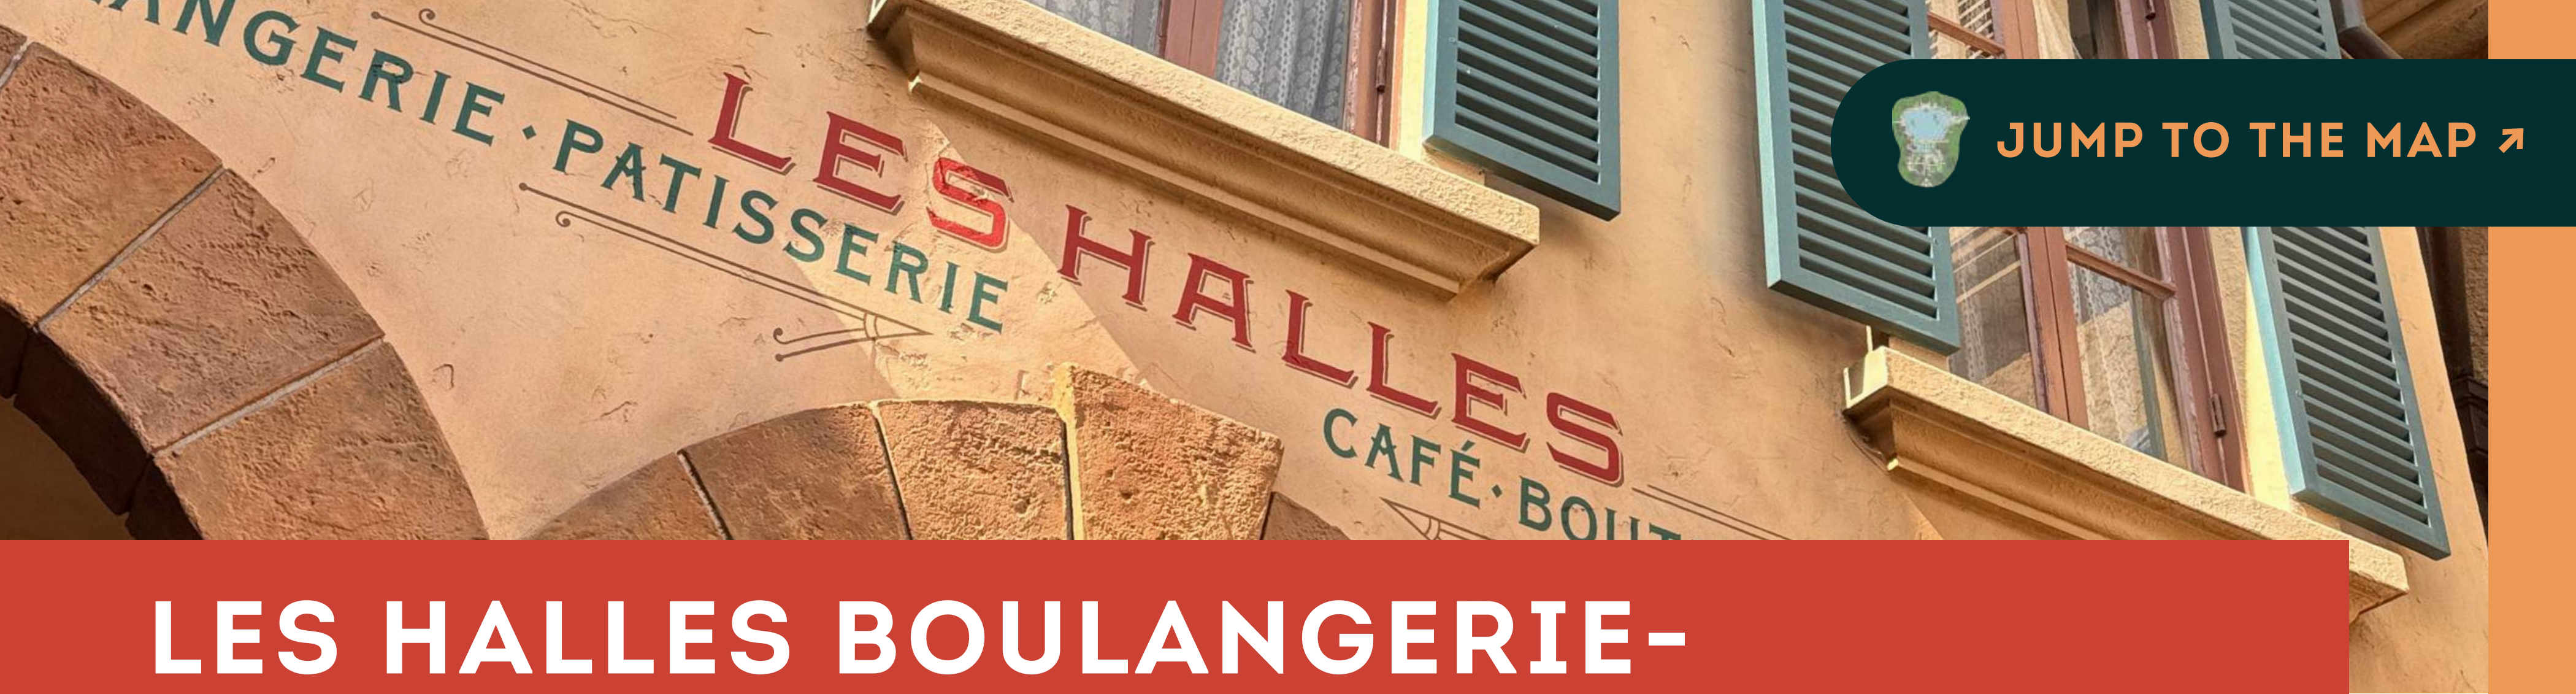

MENU HIGHLIGHTS

- Combination of sweet crêpes and savory galettes.
- You can find a limited menu of L'Artisan des Glaces ice cream at Crêpes À Emporter – often with fewer people in line!
- Things we've enjoyed: Cream of Brie Cheese Galette, Red Berries Crêpe, Vanilla Ice Cream Crêpe, Cidre Brut Cider, Chocolate Milkshake

PRO TIPS

- Several of the options on the menu here are different than what you'll find in the Table Service restaurant.
- Several of the sweet crepes, milkshakes, and ice cream treats qualify as a snack credit on the Dining Plan, and the more expensive ones can be a good value.
- The closest tables are typically by the water or by the entrance to the Ratatouille expansion area. Be prepared to walk to find a table!

LES HALLES BOULANGERIE-PÂTISSERIE

LIMITED
INDOOR & OUTDOOR
SEATING

Les Halles is one of our FAVORITE places to grab a bite to eat in EPCOT. Located in the back of the France Pavilion, this bakery is home to some seriously stellar French baked goods, sandwiches, soups, and more. This is also one of the few Quick Service options in World Showcase where you can get breakfast. Don't let the long line intimidate you – it moves pretty quickly! Tables are VERY limited and items may not be incredibly unique. But if you want delicious eats, stop by! We think this spot is well worth the visit.

MENU HIGHLIGHTS

- Traditional French bakery and cafe
- You can typically expect soups, sandwiches, quiche, croissants, pastries, and more, plus coffee, beer, wine, and frosé.
- Things we've enjoyed: Jambon Beurre, Brie aux Pommes, Croque Monsieur, Baguette, Pain Lard Fromage, Bisque de Homard, Viennoiserie Pomme, Frosé, Creme Brulee (truthfully, it's hard to go wrong here with almost any choice!)

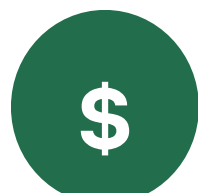

PRO TIPS

- Popular items can sell out later in the day so stop by early if you want something specific!
- Pick up a MASSIVE baguette for under $5!
- Several tasty items qualify as a snack credit on the Dining Plan!

KATSURA GRILL

LIMITED
INDOOR & OUTDOOR
SEATING

Tucked away up on a hill in the Japan Pavilion, you'll find Katsura Grill. This is a good option if you're looking for basic Japanese eats. The setting is beautiful, with many of the outdoor tables surrounded by massive bamboo and babbling streams. This spot serves up fairly recognizable and somewhat Americanized Japanese eats. It's not necessarily too different from the kind of eats you might find at home. Nothing on the menu is too surprising, but some of the things we've had are really tasty! If you want fast Japanese cuisine, check this out!

MENU HIGHLIGHTS

- Basic Japanese eats like sushi rolls, ramen, and teriyaki.
- Some dishes are more hearty and filling, like the Tonkotsu (Pork) Ramen, while others are lighter and have slightly smaller portions than you might expect for the price.
- Look for specialty items that may only be listed on placards at the ordering stations
- Things we've enjoyed: Beef Udon, Beef Teriyaki

PRO TIPS

- The seating inside Katsura Grill isn't very large, but there's also outdoor seating with beautiful trees all around.
- You have to climb some stairs to get to Katsura. It's a tucked-away retreat.

KRINGLA BAKERI OG KAFE

LIMITED
OUTDOOR
SEATING

Kringla Bakeri og Kafe is a tiny little treasure trove of Norwegian goodies. Plenty of delicious sweet treats line the display cases. The School Bread is an iconic and hugely popular snack here. It is a sweet roll filled with custard and dipped in coconut. And you can wash it down with Nordic Draft Beer or Viking Coffee. This little spot is a must-visit with some unique sweets you may have never tried before. And may want to come back to over and over again!

MENU HIGHLIGHTS

- Norwegian sweets typically include things like School Bread, Norwegian Kringla (pretzel-shaped pastry with toppings), Rice Cream, Lefse (flatbread rolled with cinnamon, sugar, and butter), & more
- Look for seasonal treats
- Things we've enjoyed: School Bread, Frozen Viking Coffee (or go non-alcoholic with the Kristoff Kaffe), Kringla Sweet Pretzel, Cinnamon Roll with Orange Icing

PRO TIPS

- Seating is open-air but under the protection of a roofed patio.
- Some spots in World Showcase don't open until a little later in the morning, BUT the Norway Pavilion opens with the park so guests can get on the Frozen Ever After ride. So, Kringla Bakeri is one of the few World Showcase stops that is open for breakfast!

LOTUS BLOSSOM CAFE

LIMITED
OUTDOOR
SEATING

If you’ve got a craving for some local takeout-style Chinese dishes, this might be the place for you. You’ll find basic eats here – pork egg rolls, orange chicken, fried rice, and more. And you can stop in for Chinese beers and plum wine. The restaurant doesn’t have the best reputation, the food doesn’t have an exotic feel or taste to it, and it may not feel worth the cost. But if you’re looking for Chinese take-out familiarity, an open-air seating area, or are traveling with a picky eater who loves this type of food, this could be worth a try.

MENU HIGHLIGHTS

- Expect Chinese takeout-style dishes in a covered, outdoor seating area
- The Hot Oolong Tea is nice on a cool day!
- Things we’ve enjoyed: Orange Chicken, Mongolian Beef Noodle Combo, Caramel-Ginger Ice Cream

PRO TIPS

- While the restaurant is open to the outside, there is covered seating, but no air conditioning.
- Grab some sauce packets to enhance the flavor of the dishes.
- Nine Dragons Restaurant is a better pick if you’re craving Chinese in EPCOT but want something a little more unique.

PIZZA al Taglio

NO
SEATING

Pizza al Taglio means “pizza by the slice” in Italian. This spot serves up...pizza by the slice! This to-go window is located at the back of the Italy Pavilion. But be warned: it is only open seasonally, so it may NOT be available during your visit. The pizza here is a square, thick-crust Sicilian-style slice (not the same as what you’ll find in the nearby Via Napoli Table Service restaurant). You can typically find cheese or pepperoni options, and they are GOOOOOOOD – consistently tasty and cheesy with an awesome crust. This is a great spot to grab pizza on the go!

MENU HIGHLIGHTS

- Sicilian-style pizza by the slice, along with beer, wine, and cocktails like a Limoncello Mule or Frozen Sangria
- You may also find additional treats here, like a Tiramisu
- Things we’ve enjoyed: Pizza Pepperoni, Pizza Margherita

PRO TIPS

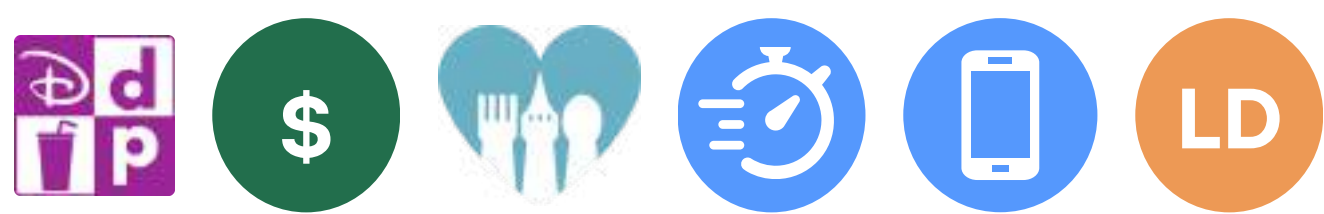

- Only open seasonally – typically during busier times of the year.
- Disney Dining Plan: 1 Quick Service credit here can usually get you a slice of cheese or pepperoni pizza + a drink.
- Typically, there is no seating directly by Pizza al Taglio, so you may have to peek around the Pavilion for a seat to sit and enjoy your slice.

REGAL EAGLE SMOKEHOUSE: CRAFT DRAFTS & BARBECUE

MODERATE
INDOOR & OUTDOOR
SEATING

Regal Eagle offers up American barbecue and craft brews on tap. To make things even better, it's themed around The Muppets' Sam Eagle! There's a good amount of seating indoors and outside, AND even an outdoor walk-up bar. If you're looking for international fare that's more adventurous or are very particular about your barbecue, this might not be the best fit. But this spot is great for picky eaters. Plus, the prices are reasonable, the portion sizes are good, and some of the food is really tasty!

MENU HIGHLIGHTS

- American BBQ in regional styles – expect things like ribs, smoked sausage, smoked pork butt, and more
- BBQ Jackfruit Sandwich is a good plant-based option!
- Things we've enjoyed: BBQ Burger, Sliced Texas Beef Brisket Sandwich, North Carolina Chopped Smoked Pork Butt, Baked Beans with Burnt Ends, Macaroni & Cheese, S'Mores Brownie, Banana Pudding, Brewmaster Fries (ask for extra beer cheese!)

PRO TIPS

- Check out the outdoor bar for unique drinks you won't find in the restaurant like a Frozen Mint Julep and Frozen Iced Tea Lemonade.
- Try the house-recipe sauces.
- The Loaded Burnt Ends Fries used to be a BIG favorite, but have disappeared. Check to see if they return!

SOMMERFEST

LIMITED OUTDOOR
SEATING

If you're in the mood for a brat and a beer, look no further than Sommerfest! Hidden in the back of the Germany Pavilion, this Quick Service spot doesn't offer a wide variety of options, but it doesn't need them. You'll generally find bratwurst and jumbo pretzels on the menu along with German wine and beer. And you CANNOT forget dessert – the Pretzel Bread Pudding is a MUST-GET, top-tier EPCOT dessert! The menu is very limited, but if you want to try some German classics, this is a GREAT spot.

MENU HIGHLIGHTS

- Casual German cuisine
- Find the iconic and fan-favorite drink – Grapefruit beer (Schöffelhofer Pink Grapefruit Hefeweizen) – here.
- House-made paprika chips come as a side for the bratwurst but are a DELICIOUS snack on their own – ask a Cast Member if you can order them!
- Things we've enjoyed: Bratwurst with Sauerkraut, Jumbo Pretzel, Pretzel Bread Pudding, Grapefruit Beer, Obatzda Cheese Dip (get this as a dip for your pretzel!)

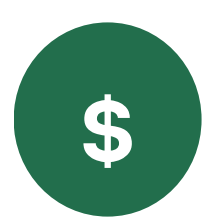

PRO TIPS

- The Jumbo Pretzel is definitely large enough to share as a snack and a good quality!
- Check out their drinks served in a vintage souvenir stein.
- There are a few cafe tables outside, but seating is limited.
- Plant-based eaters: Ask if a secret menu Plant-Based Brat is available – it's really tasty!

SUNSHINE SEASONS

AMPLE
INDOOR
SEATING

Sunshine Seasons offers a wide variety of options for adventurous and picky eaters alike. This fast-casual spot serves up things like grilled chicken, salmon, stir-fried options, sandwiches, and even delicious vegetarian options! Plus, there's a decent selection of grab-and-go items like salads and wraps. And you DO NOT want to miss out on the dessert here! The food is not really unique or as adventurous as other places in EPCOT, but there is a lot to choose from, and the options feel more unique than just chicken tenders and fries.

MENU HIGHLIGHTS

- Options change frequently
- American eats with some unique options
- Breakfast has a limited selection, including sandwiches and pastries
- Lunch/dinner feature things like rotisserie chicken, stir-fried shrimp, flatbread, sandwiches, and more
- Things we've enjoyed: Rotisserie Chicken, Plant-based Cookies 'n "Cream" Chocolate Mousse Cup, Cherry Pie Cookie (VERY sweet - share it!), Mickey-shaped Pistachio Macaron, Peanut Butter Whoopie Pie (this is a HUGE favorite of ours but it disappeared in the summer of 2025 - check to see if that changes)

PRO TIPS

- Can be a popular spot due to the variety, but there's LOTS of seating.
- Ask about their seasonal milkshake!

TANGIERINE CAFE

LIMITED
INDOOR & OUTDOOR
SEATING

When it was open in its full form, this was one of the best-reviewed spots in EPCOT for unique and flavorful eats. However, now, instead of being open as a traditional Quick Service spot, it typically serves as a food booth for EPCOT’s many festivals, and the menu changes accordingly. As a festival booth, you can typically find some savory and sweet options, as well as alcoholic beverages. We’ve had some truly great items here, so be sure to check out what festival offerings they have and stop by!

MENU HIGHLIGHTS

- Moroccan eats – things can vary, but you’ll typically find some classics like grilled kebabs.
- Look for unique desserts & some hard cider options
- Things we’ve enjoyed: Stone-Baked Moroccan Bread, Grilled Chicken Kebabs, Pistachio Cake, Mediterranean Flatbread, Orange Blossom-Saffron Cake

PRO TIPS

- Tangierine Cafe has sometimes remained open in between EPCOT’s festivals, offering a limited menu of kebabs and other snacks – check to see what’s available during your visit.

YORKSHIRE COUNTY FISH SHOP

LIMITED
OUTDOOR
SEATING

If you're looking for some quick British fare – specifically, beer-battered fish & chips and beer – Yorkshire County Fish Shop is the place to be. You'll find just 1 main entree on the menu here – but boy, do those fish & chips deliver. The fish is BIG, crispy, and delicious, and the chips (fries) are thick enough to soak up any sauces you'd like to add. This spot also serves beer. If you don't like fish, fried foods, or fast eats, skip this spot. But this is a MUST for fish & chips fans looking for something on the go

MENU HIGHLIGHTS

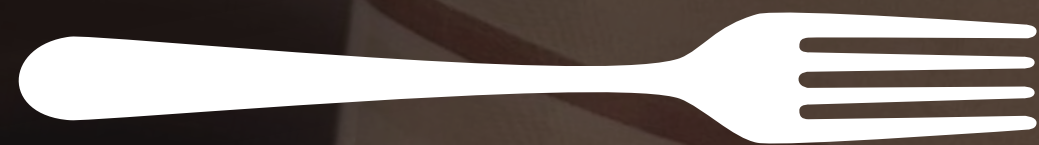

- Simple and delicious – they've all but perfected the art of fish & chips here – pair them with tartar sauce, malt vinegar, or ketchup.
- In the past, additional items have popped up here sometimes – like a Chicken and Mushroom Pasty or sweet trifle – see what's available
- Things we've enjoyed: Beer battered fish and chips, Harp Lager

PRO TIPS

- Seating is outdoors, with several umbrella-topped tables just steps away, with a great view of World Showcase Lagoon. This spot is popular, though, so you might have to wait a bit for a table on a popular day.

KIOSKS & SNACKS

KIOSKS & SNACKS

You're usually not far from a snack at Disney World, and you don't need to look too hard to find one (or seven!).

Disney World's snack kiosks are a key part of the park experience, offering iconic treats, seasonal specials, and unique flavors.

These kiosks are typically small stands or carts, providing quick & delicious items on the go. Some are famous for must-try Disney snacks, others may serve up basics, and some serve as hidden gems with unique offerings.

In terms of seating, you may find a nearby bench or ledge to sit on as you savor your snack. But you may find that many folks simply enjoy their snack as they stroll to the next attraction.

If you need a seat, consider grabbing your snack and hopping into a Quick Service restaurant that has ample seating. You can generally take your popcorn or pretzel into a Quick Service spot to enjoy some AC while you nibble – just be conscientious of the diners around you who also need a table for their meal.

CLUB COOL

Get ready to taste Coca-Cola drinks from around the world...for FREE! That’s right! At Club Cool, you can pick up a little cup and head to the soda dispensers to try different Coca-Cola drinks from places like the Philippines, China, and more. Oh, and you simply must get a taste of the Beverly drink from Italy – it’s a rite of passage. While the soda samples are free, you can also pay for full-sized fountain beverages, floats, or frozen beverages here, so be sure to check those out too. This is a must-visit spot for the free soda sample experience!

MENU HIGHLIGHTS

- Availability of the flavors can vary, so check to see what’s offered during your trip.
- The little soda samples are free, but if you head to the counter for a full-sized or specialty drink, those will cost you money.
- Things we’ve enjoyed: Cucumber Sprite (Russia), Country Club Merengue (Dominican Republic), Bon Bon Anglais (Madagascar)

PRO TIPS

- You can find Coca-Cola merchandise inside here too.
- Beverly is an incredibly bitter drink from Italy and many like to “trick” their friends into tasting it to capture their often disgusted reactions. It really is one of those you’ve-gotta-try-it-once things. Just have your camera ready and set to record!

COMMUNICORE HALL KIOSK

This little kiosk attached to CommuniCore Hall is ever-changing. The kiosk’s name and menu typically transform with each EPCOT festival. PLUS, it may serve up unique eats during non-Festival times, including old festival favorites or snacks themed to other seasonal events Disney is hosting.

MENU HIGHLIGHTS & TOP TIPS

- The menu here rotates – depending on when you visit there may be something new to try!
- During the summer of 2025, it was renamed “Grab-n-Goof” and served up specialty items to go along with Cool Kid Summer. So you never know what you’ll find!
- Festival Favorites does not have dedicated seating, but there is plenty in the connected CommuniCore Hall (inside) and neighboring CommuniCore Plaza (outside).

FUNNEL CAKE STAND

At this snack spot, you’ll find classic funnel cakes with ice cream or other toppings. You can typically get funnel cakes with specialty flavors and toppings during EPCOT’s festivals, so you’ll want to stop by to see what’s available! The menu is small, but it’s a great place to get a shareable, sweet treat.

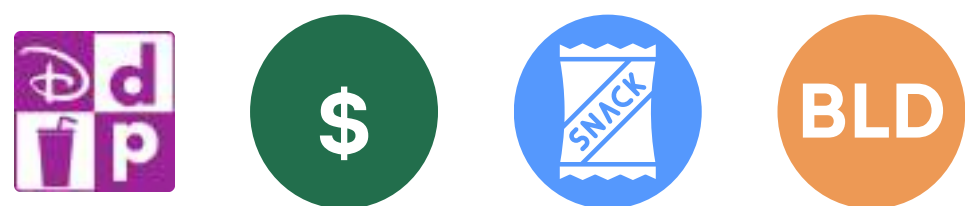

MENU HIGHLIGHTS & TOP TIPS

- “Standard” funnel cake options typically include ones with sugar, whipped cream, chocolate sauce, vanilla ice cream, or a “cookies ‘n cream” version.
- Look for seasonal ones during EPCOT’s festivals. These specialty versions can get pricey!
- Things we’ve enjoyed: Cookies ‘n Cream Funnel Cake, seasonal specialties
- They get tough when they cool, so eat them quickly! You may need to grab a knife from another spot to cut them.

FIFE AND DRUM TAVERN

This unassuming kiosk at the entrance of the American Adventure Pavilion is where you'll find plenty of classic theme park snacks and treats like Mickey Pretzels, popcorn, hot dogs, turkey legs, ice cream, and more. You can also find a few different beers and other drinks (both alcoholic and nonalcoholic.) The menu is fairly basic but sometimes a classic snack is all you need!

MENU HIGHLIGHTS

- Classic snacks fill this menu, including popcorn, Mickey pretzels, soft-serve ice cream, turkey legs, frozen slushy drinks, hot dogs, and a selection of alcoholic beverages.
- The root beer floats are fun.
- This was once the home of the really FUN American Dream drink – a slushy made with Frozen Fanta Wild Cherry, Vanilla Ice Cream, and Frozen Fanta Blue Raspberry. It has disappeared from the menu. Check to see what's available when you visit.

PRO TIPS

- This is THE ONLY place to get a Turkey Leg in EPCOT.
- You can fill your Refillable Popcorn Bucket here (souvenir popcorn buckets come with discounted refills of popcorn for the length of your stay).

GELATERIA TOSCANA

$

SNACK

BLD

At this snack spot in the Italy Pavilion, you'll find a variety of frozen treats like gelati, sorbetti, floats, and more. The menu usually includes a rotating flavor of the month along with creative gelato options like floats, milkshakes, sundaes, cookie sandwiches, and frozen sangria. You'll also find drinks like Italian margaritas, beer, and wine. Prices can be on the higher side, but some items are truly worth the splurge. If you're a gelato fan looking for a refreshing treat, this is a solid stop.

MENU HIGHLIGHTS

- The menu typically includes gelato, sorbet, floats, desserts such as tiramisu, and even specialty drinks like limoncello floats. Look for new items to pop up here from time to time!
- The Affogato Espresso Gelato is delicious, but tiny for the price.
- Things we've enjoyed: Italian Margarita, Cannoli Al Cioccolato (one of the best cannoli shells we've ever had in Disney), Coppa del Nonno (big enough to share, good enough that you won't want to!)

PRO TIPS

- Stop by for a refreshing treat before the EPCOT fireworks.

GERMANY HOVELS

This kiosk in the Germany Pavilion serves up a variety of beverages including beer, Jägermeister liqueur with Frozen Coca-Cola or Lemonade, and wine. You can also find HUGE hand-twisted soft pretzels here. The menu is small but can give you the salty-and-refreshing mix you need!

MENU HIGHLIGHTS & TOP TIPS

- The Schöffelhofer Grapefruit Hefeweizen is a BIG favorite for many – light and crisp with refreshing hints of grapefruit. You’ll find it here and in other spots in the Germany Pavilion, and sometimes in other places in Disney World, too.
- Dining Plan snack credits are accepted here, but only for non-alcoholic frozen slushies and bottled drinks.

JOFFREY'S COFFEE & TEA COMPANY KIOSKS

Stop by the Joffrey's Coffee & Tea Company kiosks throughout EPCOT for a pick-me-up any time of day. There are 5 locations in this park alone, including one right outside the park entrance. You can typically find brewed coffee, cold brews, iced and hot lattes, specialty teas and drinks, plus pastries like donuts and cookies. It might not be as popular as Starbucks, but it'll certainly fulfill your caffeine needs and some items are especially tasty!

MENU HIGHLIGHTS

- Snacks typically include giant donuts (made by Donut King), cookies, pastries, and more.
- Most locations feature the same menu, but certain specialty drinks may be exclusively available at one specific kiosk or another.
- Things we've enjoyed: Shakin' Jamaican Cold Brew, Seasonal Beverages

PRO TIPS

- There are 5 locations in EPCOT: (1) monorail station, (2) near Guardians of the Galaxy: Cosmic Rewind; (3) near Disney Traders; (4) between Canada and United Kingdom pavilions; and (5) by the American Adventure Pavilion.
- Seriously, look for specialty cookies – these can be REALLY delicious

JOY OF TEA

This small kiosk across from the main part of the China Pavilion has several different tea-based drinks to try...as its name suggests! You'll typically find hot tea, iced tea, bubble tea, and milk tea here. But wait...there's more! You can also usually get a small snack – like egg rolls, beer, and a variety of specialty cocktails, including the popular Tippy Ducks in Love! The menu is limited, but if you love tea and want a tasty drink or snack in a hurry, don't overlook this spot.

MENU HIGHLIGHTS

- Some cocktails are more unique, like the Lychee Cha Cha or the Dragon Butterfly (with Butterfly Pea Flower Gin).
- Things we've enjoyed: Egg rolls, Tippy Ducks in Love - made with bourbon, black tea, coffee, cream, and chocolate, Bubble Milk Tea

PRO TIPS

- The line can get a little long, but it moves fast.
- The egg rolls are typically priced reasonably, making them a budget-friendly snack.
- Look to see if there are any special offerings available.

KABUKI CAFE

This unassuming snack stand in the Japan Pavilion features sweet treats and healthier eats. The BIG draw here is the Kakigōri – a shaved ice dessert flavored with syrups and sweet milk topping. You can also find edamame, some basic sushi rolls, Japanese beer, sake, and plum wine. For more elevated and unique eats, you’re better off at one of the other restaurants in the Japan Pavilion. But if you want a quick & refreshing treat or some low-maintenance Japanese food, this is a place to consider!

MENU HIGHLIGHTS

- This isn’t the best sushi we’ve had in EPCOT, but if you want a basic roll, the options here aren’t bad, and they taste surprisingly fresh.
- Look for special items to pop up, like a Mochi-Gori (kakigori with a mochi-donut on top!) or Violet Sake Slush
- Things we’ve enjoyed: Kakigori with your choice of flavors - the sweet milk topping makes it more decadent, Blood Orange Sake Slushie, Mochi-Gori, Violet Sake Slush

PRO TIPS

- You can typically find a variety of Kakigōri flavors like strawberry, melon, lemon, blue Hawaii, and Kyoho grape.
- Head up to the area surrounding Katsura Grill to enjoy your treat at a table with a relaxing atmosphere.

If you're walking through the Germany Pavilion and are suddenly hit by the delicious smells of caramel, butter, and sugar – that's probably Karamell-Küche! This snack spot is a HUGE favorite of ours. You'll find many tempting sweets here, like their incredibly popular caramel corn, caramel squares, cupcakes topped with caramel, cookie sandwiches, and MUCH more. It's caramel heaven. If you've got a sweet tooth, do NOT miss this spot.

MENU HIGHLIGHTS

- Menu typically includes caramel bars, caramel flights, cookies, Rice Krispie treats, cupcakes, marshmallows, and more – all incorporating caramel.
- The cookie sandwiches can change seasonally & are BIG favorites. We especially like the Gingerbread Cookie Sandwich and Caramel Chocolate Cookie Sandwich.
- Things we've enjoyed: Caramel apple cookie, caramel pecan bar, salted caramel cupcake, sea-salted chocolate-covered caramel, alcohol-infused caramel, caramel corn, caramel butter bar

PRO TIPS

- This is considered a merchandise shop so increased discounts apply for APs and DVC members.
- Use Mobile Order to save time!

L'ARTISAN DES GLACES

If you're looking for a sweet treat with a twist, L'Artisan des Glaces in the France Pavilion is where you want to be! You'll typically find 16 different flavors of house-made ice cream and sorbet served here, along with specialty items like macaron ice cream sandwiches, brioche ice cream sandwiches, ice cream martinis, and cappuccino served with ice cream. You're paying a premium for artisanal ice cream, but if you're craving a sweet and cold treat, this is a good place to go.

MENU HIGHLIGHTS

- Some flavors are more “standard” options (vanilla, chocolate, etc.), but you can also opt for unique options like cinnamon caramel apple or blueberry yogurt (note that flavors can change!)
- Look for seasonal flavors.
- Things we've enjoyed: Ice Cream Martini, Croque Glace

PRO TIPS

- On the Disney Dining Plan, a single or double scoop cup/cone or a Macaron Ice Cream Sandwich can generally be purchased with 1 Snack Credit.

OASIS SIPS & SWEETS

Oasis Sweets & Sips is an often-overlooked walk-up counter in the Morocco Pavilion. It features little pastries like baklava, cookies, and more. Beers, red and white sangria, mimosas, and frozen drinks are available as well. If you want a savory snack, are allergic to nuts (many items here have nuts!), or you want a menu with more variety, head elsewhere. But if you're looking for sweet treats, you like baklava, or you want a refreshing drink, consider checking this place out.

MENU HIGHLIGHTS & TOP TIPS

- During colder months, the Hot Mint Tea can be a warm and cozy option – and it's delicious.
- Things we've enjoyed: Frozen Mint Tea, Frozen Citrus-Pomegranate Slushy with Absolut Mandarin Vodka, Kataifi
- Can't decide what to try? You can typically get a set with a few different pastries – a great way to share with your group.

VIA NAPOLI: DONKEY CART

For a bit of gelato or a simple adult beverage, check out the Via Napoli "Donkey Cart" (sadly, no, it is not a real donkey). The menu can change but it typically features cocktails, limited sorbet options, and a tiramisu popsicle! It's good for a quick, refreshing option.

MENU HIGHLIGHTS & TOP TIPS

- Limited menu – can include Limoncello Cocktail, Orangecello Cocktail, Bellini, Prosecco, and more
- Items are pricey for the smaller portions you get
- Things we've enjoyed: Tiramisu popsicle
- Open seasonally
- Look for it tucked a bit into the Italy Pavilion, on the right-hand side.
- Disney Dining Plan accepted for very limited items

POPCORN CARTS: WORLD CELEBRATION

You'll find plenty of popcorn stands around EPCOT, with two main ones located in World Celebration – one near Creations Shop and the other by Journey Into Imagination with Figment. Both offer classic Disney popcorn and collectible souvenir buckets, along with cold drinks and popular treats like Mickey's Premium Ice Cream Bars. While these snacks may not be the most adventurous options in the park, they're great if you're craving a classic treat or looking to snag a fun popcorn bucket.

MENU HIGHLIGHTS

- Look for those specialty popcorn buckets! These are useful for carrying your popcorn and make for fun souvenirs.
- You can get discounted refills on popcorn if you bring your souvenir bucket back.
- You can typically get a beer at these spots, too.

PRO TIPS

- Near Creations Shop: You may occasionally find a breakfast sandwich.
- Near the Imagination Pavilion: Look for Mickey Pretzels and a few more frozen snacks here too!

POPCORN CART: CANADA

The big specialty here is the MAPLE popcorn. This Maple popcorn is a DFB favorite – the texture is more like kettle corn, it has a light maple flavoring, and it’s a combination of salty and sweet – that all makes this a fantastic snack.

MENU HIGHLIGHTS & TOP TIPS

- Typically, there are unique beers from Canada and a cocktail or two here. Some alcoholic drinks we’ve seen here include Moosehead Lager Draft and Ottawa Apple with Crown Royal Whiskey, Maple, Apple Infusion, and Cranberry Juice.
- You can refill your Refillable Popcorn Bucket here with maple popcorn – a flavorful twist that’s more unique than standard popcorn.

REFRESHMENT OUTPOST

You’ll generally find sodas, bottled water, and frozen slushies here. But there are 2 BIG draws to this spot. 1: You can typically find DOLE Whip here. 2: Seasonal snacks and drinks (particularly alcoholic drinks) pop up here during EPCOT Festivals, so there’s an ever-changing menu of offerings. Stop by to see what’s available during your trip – you might find something surprisingly good.

MENU HIGHLIGHTS & TOP TIPS

- Make sure you check to see what Festival-specific items are available. Some of these have REALLY surprised us with how great they were.
- DOLE Whip flavors can change so it’s worth seeing if there’s something unique to try!
- Look for beer here along with seasonal cocktails and a boozy lemonade.

Read Our Reviews ↗

REFRESHMENT PORT

As you enter the World Showcase Promenade and head toward the Canada Pavilion, you'll pass by Refreshment Port. The menu is small, but during EPCOT Festivals, you can often find specialty items here. This spot is best known for its poutine snacks, typically offering a traditional version and sometimes a festival-exclusive twist. You'll also find sodas, water, and a few alcoholic beverages. The menu may be limited, but the creative and flavorful offerings make it a worthwhile stop, especially if you're craving that classic poutine!

MENU HIGHLIGHTS

- Look for specialty poutine options and potentially specialty drinks and other dishes during EPCOT's festivals.
- The specialty items can be much more unique, but the traditional poutine is good if you're after classic flavors!

PRO TIPS

- There is no formal seating area or coverage from inclement weather, so plan to get your snacks 'on the go' to stroll and eat.

Read Our Reviews ↗

REFRESHMENT STATION

If it’s a cold slushy you’re after, go to this snack spot (near Test Track). What’s unique is that you can usually add fun candy toppings to your slushy, like popping candy, freeze-dried Skittles, gummy fish, rock candy, and more! It’s a fun option for kiddos and great for cooling down on a hot day.

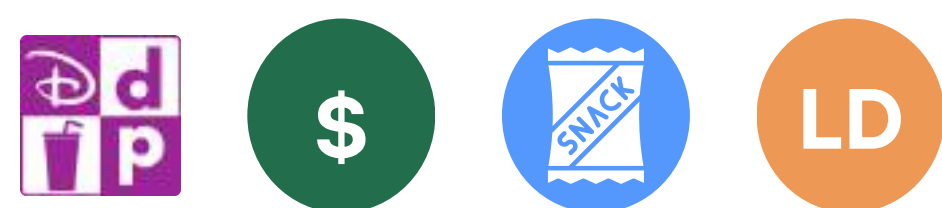

MENU HIGHLIGHTS & TOP TIPS

- Menu typically includes things like Frozen Coca-Cola and other frozen drinks – some flavors we’ve seen include Fanta Pina Colada or Minute Maid Hibiscus Lemonade, but flavors can change.
- You can get the slush plain or pay a few more cents to top it with assorted candies.
- Generally only open seasonally, so check to see if it’s available during your trip.

SWIRLED SHOWCASE

Swirled Showcase primarily serves as a booth during EPCOT’s various festivals, but you may find the booth open and serving a limited menu during non-festival times. Typically, you’ll find ice cream and other treats here – some basic options + some unique Festival-specific options.

MENU HIGHLIGHTS & TOP TIPS

- Basic options, which may be served even during non-festival times, can include soft serve in a waffle cone, ice cream floats, and seasonal draft beer.
- Some Festival-specific options we’ve seen include Strawberry-Basil Sorbet, Liquid Nitro Honey-Marscapone Cheesecake, Liquid Nitrogen Frozen Sweet Potato Mousse, Frozen Apple Pie, and more.
- Check to see if it’s open and what is available!

Read Our Reviews ↗

WORLD DISCOVERY SNACK STAND

Grab your quick and classic Disney snacks here, including popcorn, Mickey pretzels, cotton candy, churros, and drinks. Look for the cart in front of Mission: SPACE.

MENU HIGHLIGHTS & TOP TIPS

- Standard snacks make up the menu here – there’s nothing wrong with that, but there are certainly more unique snacks to be found in World Showcase.
- You can get specially-priced popcorn refills throughout your stay if you buy a souvenir bucket.

THE LAND CART

Just steps outside the Land Pavilion at EPCOT is The Land Cart – a little kiosk that typically serves Mickey-shaped pretzels, pickles, fruit cups, and drinks (including potentially a smoothie with DOLE Whip). During EPCOT festivals, however, this spot may transform into a differently-named Festival booth and serve a Festival-specific menu. So it’s worth checking out to see what’s available when you visit!

MENU HIGHLIGHTS & TOP TIPS

- The “standard” menu isn’t anything revolutionary, but it can be good for those looking for a classic snack option.
- Things we’ve enjoyed: Tropical Smoothie
- The pickle is a popular snack for some – eat it fast because it can soften and lose some of its crunch if you don’t.

OTHER SNACK OPTIONS

World Showcase is a treasure trove of hidden secrets, incredible details, and international experiences! As you explore each international pavilion, keep your eyes open for specialty snacks and treats, sodas and teas, and even wine, champagne, or beer! The shops won’t populate on the My Disney Experience App as “dining locations,” but be sure to check them out, open because you might just find your new favorite bite or sip hiding in a pavilion shop!

And look for other snack carts throughout EPCOT that may sell your “standard” frozen novelty items, as well as potentially some specialty items, like the Kakamora Delight at the snack cart near the Seas Pavilion.

MENU HIGHLIGHTS

- You can find prepackaged snacks at a lot of shops around World Showcase, including, but not limited to:
 - Trading Post (Canada)
 - Mitsukoshi Department Store (Japan)
 - House of Good Fortune (China)
 - Tea Caddy (United Kingdom)

PRO TIPS

- Take the time to explore every pavilion, you never know what you may find.
- Ask the international Cast Members for recommendations and their thoughts on tasty snacks or sips.
- Some prepackaged snacks are great to take home to extend the magic of your trip.

BARS &
LOUNGES

BARS & LOUNGES

If you're in need of a mid-park cooldown (and let's be honest, who isn't?), it's time to hunt down a bar or lounge near you—because hydration can be magical too, especially when there's a cocktail involved.

Some of these spots go all out with full menus, small plates, and even dishes from nearby restaurants. Others keep things simple with a tighter menu focused purely on drinks. Whether you're looking to sip slowly at a table with a server or grab something quick and refreshing before your next Lightning Lane tap-in, there's something to match your pace.

You'll find everything from full-service lounges with skilled bartenders ready to whip up custom creations to smaller stands slinging pre-mixed sips. And while many of these locations lean into the boozy side of things, you can usually find a fun non-alcoholic option or two in the mix.

Bottom line? There's no shortage of places to sip, savor, and recharge. So go ahead—explore, sip smartly, and stay cool out there!

BLOCK & HANS

Block & Hans is a small kiosk located just on the outside of the American Adventure Pavilion. Stop by to find a rotating selection of craft beers from around the United States, and a few other items. The stars of the snack show here are the PRETZEL NUGGETS with Garlic Butter, BBQ Rub, and Beer Cheese Sauce!

MENU HIGHLIGHTS & TOP TIPS

- Check for special items that might pop up here during specific seasons or EPCOT festivals.
- If you can't decide or are particularly thirsty, grab the beer flight here to try a few options!
- Look for limited non-alcoholic options.
- Don't miss the pretzel nuggets – YUM!!!

ENOTECA CASTELLO

This is a tucked away spot in the Italy Pavilion that many may walk past, but stop in and you might be surprised to find plenty of glasses of wine, other drinks, and even some pre-packaged snacks.

MENU HIGHLIGHTS & TOP TIPS

- Menu options can include things like red wine, sparkling wines, white wines, liqueur, and beer.
- Options can change, but it's worth a visit to see what's available!
- This isn't a lounge spot with dedicated seating. Instead, it's more of a counter to grab some wine and continue your walk around EPCOT.

LA CAVA DEL TEQUILA

La Cava del Tequila is a fan-favorite tequila bar in EPCOT and practically a rite of passage for guests 21 and up. It offers a cozy, inviting atmosphere with over 200 tequilas, creative margaritas, and a variety of other drinks, along with tapas-style snacks. This spot is small, seating is limited, and it’s wildly popular, so lines can get long. Arriving right at opening gives you the best chance at snagging a seat. If you’re looking for bold drinks, tasty bites, and a break from the park buzz, this is a great hideaway.

MENU HIGHLIGHTS

- The menu usually features a wide selection of tequilas, Mexican craft beers, margaritas – some created by celebrities like Lily Aldridge and Neil Patrick Harris – along with cocktails and non-alcoholic options.
- Some drinks come with special touches, like black ant salt rims, adding a fun twist.
- Look for limited-time offerings
- Things we’ve enjoyed: Creamy and refreshing Avocado Margarita, Malumita Margarita, classic queso with chips

PRO TIPS

- You can get your drinks to go if you can’t get a table.
- This spot can draw a long line, but it usually moves pretty fast!

Read Our Reviews ↗

CHOZA DE MARGARITA

Choza de Margarita is located just outside the Mexico Pavilion pyramid and serves up signature margaritas “on the rocks” and frozen margaritas, in addition to a limited menu of snacks, which can include tacos, empanadas, quesadillas, tostadas, elote, and guacamole. The drinks menu is more limited than that at La Cava del Tequila (inside the pyramid), but you can get some similar flavors with drinks that still pack a punch and taste delicious with LESS of a wait.

MENU HIGHLIGHTS

- You’ll also find beer and a non-alcoholic option.
- Snacks here can be some hidden gems – small portions, full of flavor, nice for a lighter option.
- Cucumber Margarita is good if you want something light and refreshing.
- The Mango Poptail Margarita features an ice pop – it’s not groundbreaking, but it is fun!
- Things we’ve enjoyed: Tostada de Pollo, Empanada de Barbacoa, Guacamole, Elote, Fiesta Margarita

PRO TIPS

- The line can get long here on busy days, and it’s entirely in the sun, so keep that in mind.
- There are no seating options – just some bar tables nearby.

GEO-82

In 2025, this new adults-only lounge opened! The space inside is beautiful with a sleek look inspired by the “stories, shapes, and enduring legacy” of Spaceship Earth. Because it is located INSIDE the structure that’s home to Spaceship Earth, you get some unique views of the park. The menu features some small plates and elegant cocktails. It's a FANCY and pricey spot. If you’re planning to drink around the world, want simpler & fruitier cocktails, or have kids in tow, this may not be a good spot. But if you want an escape from theme park life, are a cocktail enthusiast, and want an upscale experience, do NOT miss this place.

MENU HIGHLIGHTS

- Cocktails here are sophisticated and unique. You’ll find things here that you can’t find anywhere else in Disney World.
- If your preference lands on the sweeter side of the cocktail spectrum, this menu might not be your favorite.
- We’ve enjoyed: Truffled Ahi Tuna, Charcuterie Board, Peach Shrub Whisky Smash, Carmelized Leek Martini, Clarified New York Sour

PRO TIPS

- This spot is exclusively for guests 21 and older, so plan accordingly if you’re visiting with the family.
- It’s super popular, so reservations may be hard to come by! Keep checking for availability.

GARDEN HOUSE

Read Our Reviews ↗

The Garden House kiosk in the Japan Pavilion serves hot and cold sake, cocktails, beer, plum wine, and seasonal specialty drinks.

MENU HIGHLIGHTS & TOP TIPS

- Very little seating, just a few outdoor picnic tables.
- Look for Kirin Frozen Beer with frozen foam on top.
- Things we’ve enjoyed: Violet Sake (kind of a legend in EPCOT), Tokyo Sunset for a fruitier option
- In 2025, Garden House began operating inside the Mitsukoshi store for a limited time. See what things are like when you visit.

NORWAY BEER CART

Read Our Reviews ↗

This kiosk, located in the Norway Pavilion, sells a variety of cold beverages, including a rotating selection of Scandinavian draft beer and wine.

MENU HIGHLIGHTS & TOP TIPS

- Occasionally, you may find a specialty drink here, so keep an eye out!
- The Strawberry Cream Ale is a nice and fun option with slightly different flavors than a “traditional” American beer.

THE SAKE BAR

Upstairs in the Japan Pavilion, between Shiki-Sai Izakaya and Sushi and Teppan Edo, you’ll find a small, hidden sake bar.

MENU HIGHLIGHTS & TOP TIPS

- This is a walk-up bar with no dedicated seating.
- It can be a quieter alternative to the Garden House bar in the Japan Pavilion in the main area outside.

ROSE & CROWN BEER STAND

If you’ve got a hankering for a quick drink in the United Kingdom Pavilion, consider stopping by the Rose & Crown Beer Stand (also called UK Beer Cart). The offerings here can vary a bit with the seasons, but some things we’ve found have included a Harp Lager Draft and BrewDog Punk IPA.

MENU HIGHLIGHTS & TOP TIPS

- You’ll find this stand just outside the Rose & Crown Dining Room.
- Bottled water is generally available here too and the only thing you can use a Disney Dining Plan snack credit for here.
- EPCOT Festival-specific drinks may pop up here from time to time so keep an eye out for that!

ROSE & CROWN PUB

If you’re looking for a brew or want cozy British pub vibes, consider visiting the Rose & Crown Pub. The entrance is to the right of the attached Rose & Crown Dining Room. There aren’t many tables and you might have to get a bartender’s attention on a busy day, but it’s a good spot for a variety of alcoholic options.

MENU HIGHLIGHTS & TOP TIPS

- You’ll find British ales, some great scotch, a wide variety of beer concoctions, other British-inspired cocktails, wine and sangria, flights, and more.
- First come, first served.
- The full menu of beer concoctions is a major draw here.
- Things we’ve enjoyed: Pub blends, ask for a shamrock pour on your Guinness!

SPACE 220 LOUNGE

The Space 220 Lounge is a good option if you want to experience the immersive theming of the Space 220 restaurant without having to pay for the prix fixe meal that is served at the restaurant. You'll still get to board the "Stellavator" (elevator) that simulates a real-time launch, and dine while surrounded by "windows" that look into space. The Lounge has its own a la carte menu. Things can still get pricey and some of the dishes aren't terribly unique, but the theming is the big draw here and this is the way to get it without the full prix fixe cost.

MENU HIGHLIGHTS

- Upscale, global cuisine. The Lounge-specific menu is focused on appetizer-style eats.
- Check out the space-themed alcoholic drinks and zero-proof cocktails, too.
- You may be able to order the full prix fixe menu offered in the restaurant while at the lounge. Ask your server.
- Things we've enjoyed: Blue Moon Cauliflower, Short-Rib Sliders

PRO TIPS

- The Lounge requires reservations & the area is small, so reservations can be even more difficult to score than the main restaurant.
- Can't get a reservation? Consider stopping by the bar at Space 220, which is first-come, first-served.

TUTTO GUSTO WINE CELLAR

Tutto Gusto is a hidden wine cave in EPCOT’s Italy Pavilion and it’s a great place to relax! It’s limited to just 96 seats, themed like an Italian wine cellar, and VERY cozy. You can typically find cocktails, limoncello, beer, and over 200(!) bottles of Italian wines, along with some food options. If you’re looking for a sophisticated spot away from the crowds with an intimate atmosphere, this can be worth checking out!

MENU HIGHLIGHTS

- This spot typically has its own limited menu of items like fried calamari, baked eggplant parmigiana, and more.
- But you can typically order from the full Tutto Italia Ristorante menu too!
- Things we’ve enjoyed: Bellini, Crisp Italian Wine Flight, Tortino di Melanzane, Calamari Fritti, Meat & cheese board options

PRO TIPS

- This spot can be pricey for what you get, but the atmosphere and tasty food make up for it.
- You don’t need a reservation here, but there may be a wait since it’s such a small restaurant.
- On most days, this spot doesn’t open until around 12:30 PM, so just plan accordingly.

LES VINS DES CHEFS DE FRANCE

Les Vins des Chefs de France is located just across from the Chefs de France restaurant in the France Pavilion and is home to 2 of the most delicious and refreshing adult beverages in all of Disney World – the Grand Marnier Orange Slush and the Grey Goose Citron Lemon Slush. The menu is really just focused on alcohol, so you’ll need to look elsewhere for food or non-alcoholic options. But if you want tasty, alcoholic, refreshing drinks that are HUGE fan favorites, stop here!

MENU HIGHLIGHTS

- You can order the Orange and Lemon Slushes as a Le Geant if you want them to be, well, giant!
- The menu also features French wines, beer, and champagne.
- Things we’ve enjoyed: Grand Marnier Orange Slush, Grey Goose Citron Lemon Slush
- Ask if you can get a secret menu LAYERED slush with both Lemon and Orange! It’s a great way to try both if you’re indecisive.

PRO TIPS

- No seating in this area, but there are some cafe tables in the Pavilion.
- There is often a line here, especially on hot days...but it’s worth it!
- Look for a bright GREEN version of the slushes around St. Patrick’s Day.

LES VINS DE FRANCE

Read More Here ↗

Les Vins de France is a HIDDEN champagne bar tucked inside the France Pavilion! The bar looks more like a gift shop but serves a variety of champagne, red wine, white wine, rose wine, beer, and even some flights! Options can change but it's a great way to get some drinks to go.

MENU HIGHLIGHTS & TOP TIPS

- Look for flights that feature deluxe champagne options if you want to experience some of the most prestigious options.
- You'll find this spot tucked in toward the back of the Pavilion.
- You can also usually buy bottles to take home.

WEINKELLER

Read Our Reviews ↗

Located in the Germany Pavilion, Weinkeller is a cozy shop with a wine bar tucked away in the back of the room. Walk through too quickly and you might think this spot only sells bottles of wines, but you can actually buy glasses of beer and liqueurs at the bar in the back too.

MENU HIGHLIGHTS & TOP TIPS

- Some of the options we've seen in the past include the iconic Grapefruit beer (a fan-favorite), Erdinger Dunkles Weissbier (a rich and smooth wheat beer), Williams Pear Brandy, and more.
- The Mozart Chocolate Liqueur Pumpkin Spice is a popular drink that'll give you some serious fall vibes!
- This isn't a lounge spot with dedicated seating, but more of a counter to grab some wine and continue your walk.

UNIQUE FOOD
EXPERIENCES

UNIQUE FOOD EXPERIENCES

Looking for a unique dining experience on your Disney World trip? EPCOT is the place to find it! In addition to all the incredible Table Service and Quick Service restaurants, EPCOT is home to various ways to elevate your dining experiences. Let's dive into the details!

FIREWORKS DINING PACKAGES

If you want to enjoy a meal at a restaurant AND get excellent views of the EPCOT nighttime spectacular (currently Luminous The Symphony of Us), consider booking a Fireworks Dining Package. You can book these via the Disney World website or My Disney Experience app. There are typically 2 options available here.

ROSE & CROWN FIREWORKS DINING PACKAGE

With this, you'll be seated on the outside patio of the Rose & Crown Dining Room in the United Kingdom Pavilion, with an excellent view of World Showcase Lagoon and the nighttime spectacular.

Your meal will typically be from a prix fixe menu of the Rose & Crown's British fare. It includes an appetizer, an entrée, a dessert, and a selection of unlimited beverages, including alcoholic beverages for those 21 years of age or older.

Prices are approximately $92 per adult and $41 per child (ages 3-9), but this can vary.

SPICE ROAD TABLE FIREWORKS DINING PACKAGE

The other option is a fireworks dining package at the Spice Road Table restaurant in the Morocco Pavilion. Seating is also available outside in a covered dining area, offering a great view of the water and fireworks.

You'll get a prix fixe menu here with Mediterranean dishes. Each guest can choose two small plates, plus there's a shared tagine and a dessert platter. Unlimited beverages are also included, including alcoholic beverages for those 21 years of age and older.

Prices here are approximately $81 per adult and $31 per child (ages 3-9), but this can vary.

IS THIS PACKAGE RIGHT FOR YOU?

Whether a fireworks dining package is right for you will depend on several things:

- Were you planning to eat at one of these restaurants already?
- Do the prix fixe menu options and prices work for you?
- Do you like the idea of having a “reserved” table with fireworks viewing, or are you willing to walk around World Showcase, find a good viewing spot, and wait for the fireworks?
- Is your money better spent on a different restaurant, other food, or a different experience?

There’s a lot to consider, and only you know what’s best for you and your group!

Read Our Reviews ↗

FIREWORKS CRUISES

Want a unique view of the fireworks and a little bit of space away from the crowds? While it's more of a snack experience rather than a full dining experience, an EPCOT Fireworks Cruise is certainly a unique way to end your day with a bang.

You'll get the opportunity to watch the nighttime fireworks show at EPCOT from right on the water! For this experience, you'll charter a private watercraft that is led by a captain. The cruise includes assorted snacks and soft drinks. This is a pricey option starting at $449 (plus tax, prices vary by date), but each boat seats up to 10 guests, so it could work out if you've got a larger group. Cruises leave from the Bayside Marina at the nearby Yacht and Beach Club Resorts.

FIREWORKS EXPERIENCE AT GEO-82

- If you want to get a special view of the EPCOT fireworks and you're traveling with adults ages 21+, you may want to check out GEO-82's Fireworks Experience.
- This experience is held in the BRAND NEW adults-only lounge located within the structure that's home to Spaceship Earth.
- You'll get a private table near the window, plus champagne selected by the sommeliers at Disney (or some event-exclusive cocktails if you prefer that), a tasting tower with savory light bites, and a selection of sweet treats.
- The cost is $179 per person, plus tax and gratuity.
- You can make reservations through the Disney World website.
- Is it worth it? That depends on what you're looking for! It's definitely pricey, you don't get the same experience as when you watch the show up close and personal, and it is an adults-only (21+) experience. But if you want a unique and newer way to see the EPCOT fireworks, it might be worth looking into.

LA CAVA EXPERIENCE

- If you love tequila, LISTEN UP! You can immerse yourself in the unique flavors of some agave spirits with a certified Tequila Ambassador as your guide through the “La Cava Experience” from the folks behind La Cava del Tequila in the Mexico Pavilion.
- Through this experience, you’ll get to sip on rare and unique spirits, some of which are exclusive to the experience and not available anywhere else in the world.
- It’s a bit on the pricey side (around $180 per person, plus tax – subject to change, of course), but it might be THE thing for you if you want to try some of the best tequila in the world.
- You can book via the Disney World website or the My Disney Experience app.

DISNEY AFTER HOURS

Disney World After Hours events are separately ticketed experiences (meaning you'll need to buy a specific ticket for the event to attend) that take place on select nights after the parks have closed.

This event has been and will be available in EPCOT on select nights from February through September 2025.

The big draw of these events is their limited capacity, which means you can experience various EPCOT rides with minimal to no wait.

But your ticket ALSO comes with complimentary snacks! Indulge in some classic ice cream novelties (like Mickey's Premium Ice Cream bars), popcorn, and select bottled beverages at snack carts throughout the park.

The event lasts 3 hours, and tickets range from $155 to $175 per person (discounts available for Annual Passholders and Disney Vacation Club Members).

EPCOT FESTIVALS

What really makes EPCOT stand out when it comes to dining is the 4 festivals that take place each year. All of these festivals feature internationally inspired snack-sized dishes and drinks at booths all around World Showcase. Exploring and sampling all the World Showcase treats can be a fun way to experience everything EPCOT has to offer.

FESTIVAL OF THE ARTS

The EPCOT International Festival of the Arts celebrates art in 3 main forms – culinary, visual, and performing arts. You can expect lots of colorful decorations, performances from Broadway stars, and (of course) beautiful (and delicious) FOOD offered at various kiosks throughout the park. This takes place in the early part of the year – dates for 2025 were January 17th-February 24th. 2026 dates pending.

FLOWER & GARDEN

The EPCOT International Flower & Garden Festival celebrates flowers and plants in all kinds of special ways. Expect huge and intricately designed topiaries, concert performances from internationally recognized artists, and FOOD and drinks offered at various kiosks. This festival typically takes place in the springtime – dates for 2025 were March 5th-June 2nd. 2026 dates pending.

FOOD & WINE

The EPCOT International Food & Wine Festival is the one that started them all and is one of the most popular festivals in the park. Expect food and wine (of course!) at various kiosks, concert performances from internationally recognized artists, and much more. This typically takes place in the late summer into early fall – dates for 2025 are August 28th-November 22nd.

FESTIVAL OF THE HOLIDAYS

Finally, the EPCOT International Festival of the Holidays is dedicated to holiday celebrations from around the world. Expect festive decorations, holiday storytellers, a hugely popular concert experience all about Christmas, and (of course) plenty of holiday-themed eats. This typically runs from after Thanksgiving to just before New Year’s Eve – dates for 2025 are November 28th-December 30th, 2025.

FESTIVAL SPECIFIC DINING PACKAGES

EPCOT hosts a variety of concerts and performances for each festival it hosts throughout the year. To ensure you get a good seat for a performance, consider booking a dining package! This includes your meal & guaranteed seat at one of the concerts that day. Prices vary based on meal and restaurant. Here's a brief look at what to expect:

FESTIVAL OF THE ARTS

At the EPCOT International Festival of the Arts, the Disney on Broadway Concert Series Dining Package will help you get a great seat to the performances of some fantastic Broadway stars. Names we've seen in the past have included Ashley Brown ("Mary Poppins") and Mandy Gonzalez ("Aida").

FLOWER & GARDEN

At the EPCOT International Flower & Garden Festival, the Garden Rocks Dining Package gives you reserved seating for some seriously iconic musical acts. Names we've seen in the past have included Simple Plan and Sister Hazel.

FOOD & WINE

You'll find a similar experience with the Eat to the Beat Concert Series Dining Packages during the EPCOT International Food & Wine Festival. Performers we've seen in the past have included Boyz II Men and Smash Mouth.

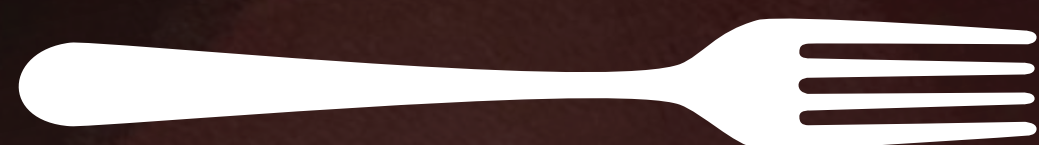

CANDLELIGHT PROCESSIONAL

The Candlelight Processional is a Festival of the Holidays tradition that features a GIANT choir and celebrity narrator who tells the Christmas story. Dining Packages are available for each of these special concerts. Some celebrity narrators we've seen in the past include Jodi Benson and Neil Patrick Harris.

DISNEY
DINING PLAN
TIPS & TRICKS

DINING PLAN TIPS & TRICKS

So you're thinking about using the Disney Dining Plan at EPCOT? Great! There are some things you might want to consider, and we'll break it down for you here.

First, a bit of basic information. The Disney Dining Plan is a way to basically pre-pay for all or most of your meals ahead of your trip. Plans are an optional add-on to your vacation. If you decide to pay for the Dining Plan, you'll receive a certain number of credits that you can then use at certain participating restaurants in Disney World to get your food.

This is such an important topic that we have an entire Guide for it – Disney Dining Plan: The DFB Guide to Maximizing the DDP – if you'd like to explore it in more detail.

For now, let's chat about some important things to know about the Disney Dining Plan, specifically when it comes to dining in EPCOT.

MAXIMIZE YOUR CREDITS

Here are a few at-a-glance options for maximizing your credits in EPCOT! THESE are some of the spots you'll want to consider visiting to get the most bang for your buck when it comes to redeeming those credits for meals.

BREAKFAST

- Quick Service: Les Halles Boulangerie-Pâtisserie (France Pavilion)
- Table Service: Garden Grill (Character meal, Family Style)

LUNCH/DINNER

- Quick Service: Regal Eagle Smokehouse (American Adventure)
- Table Service: Via Napoli (Italy Pavilion), Garden Grill (World Nature), La Hacienda de San Angel (Mexico Pavilion)

SNACK CREDIT

- School Bread or Sweet Pretzels at Kringla Og Bakeri (Norway Pavilion)
- Kakigori at Kabuki Cafe (Japan Pavilion)
- Caramel Popcorn or Cookie Sandwich at Karamell Kuche (Germany Pavilion)
- Single gelato scoop or Macaron Sandwich at L'Artisan de Glaces (France Pavilion)
- Butter & Sugar Crêpe at Crêpes À Emporter (France Pavilion)
- Qualifying item from a festival booth
- Churro Sundae at La Cantina de San Angel (Mexico Pavilion)
- Traditional (or seasonal) Poutine at Refreshment Port
- Quiche Lorraine or a variety of other qualifying snacks at Les Halles Boulangerie-Pâtisserie (France Pavilion)
- Pretzel Nuggets with Beer Cheese at Block & Hans (American Adventure Pavilion)

TABLE SERVICE

Not all EPCOT Table Service restaurants are created equally when it comes to the Disney Dining Plan. Importantly, some Table Service restaurants require 2 credits per person instead of 1. And sometimes that can depend not just on the restaurant you're going to, but what meal you'll be enjoying at that restaurant.

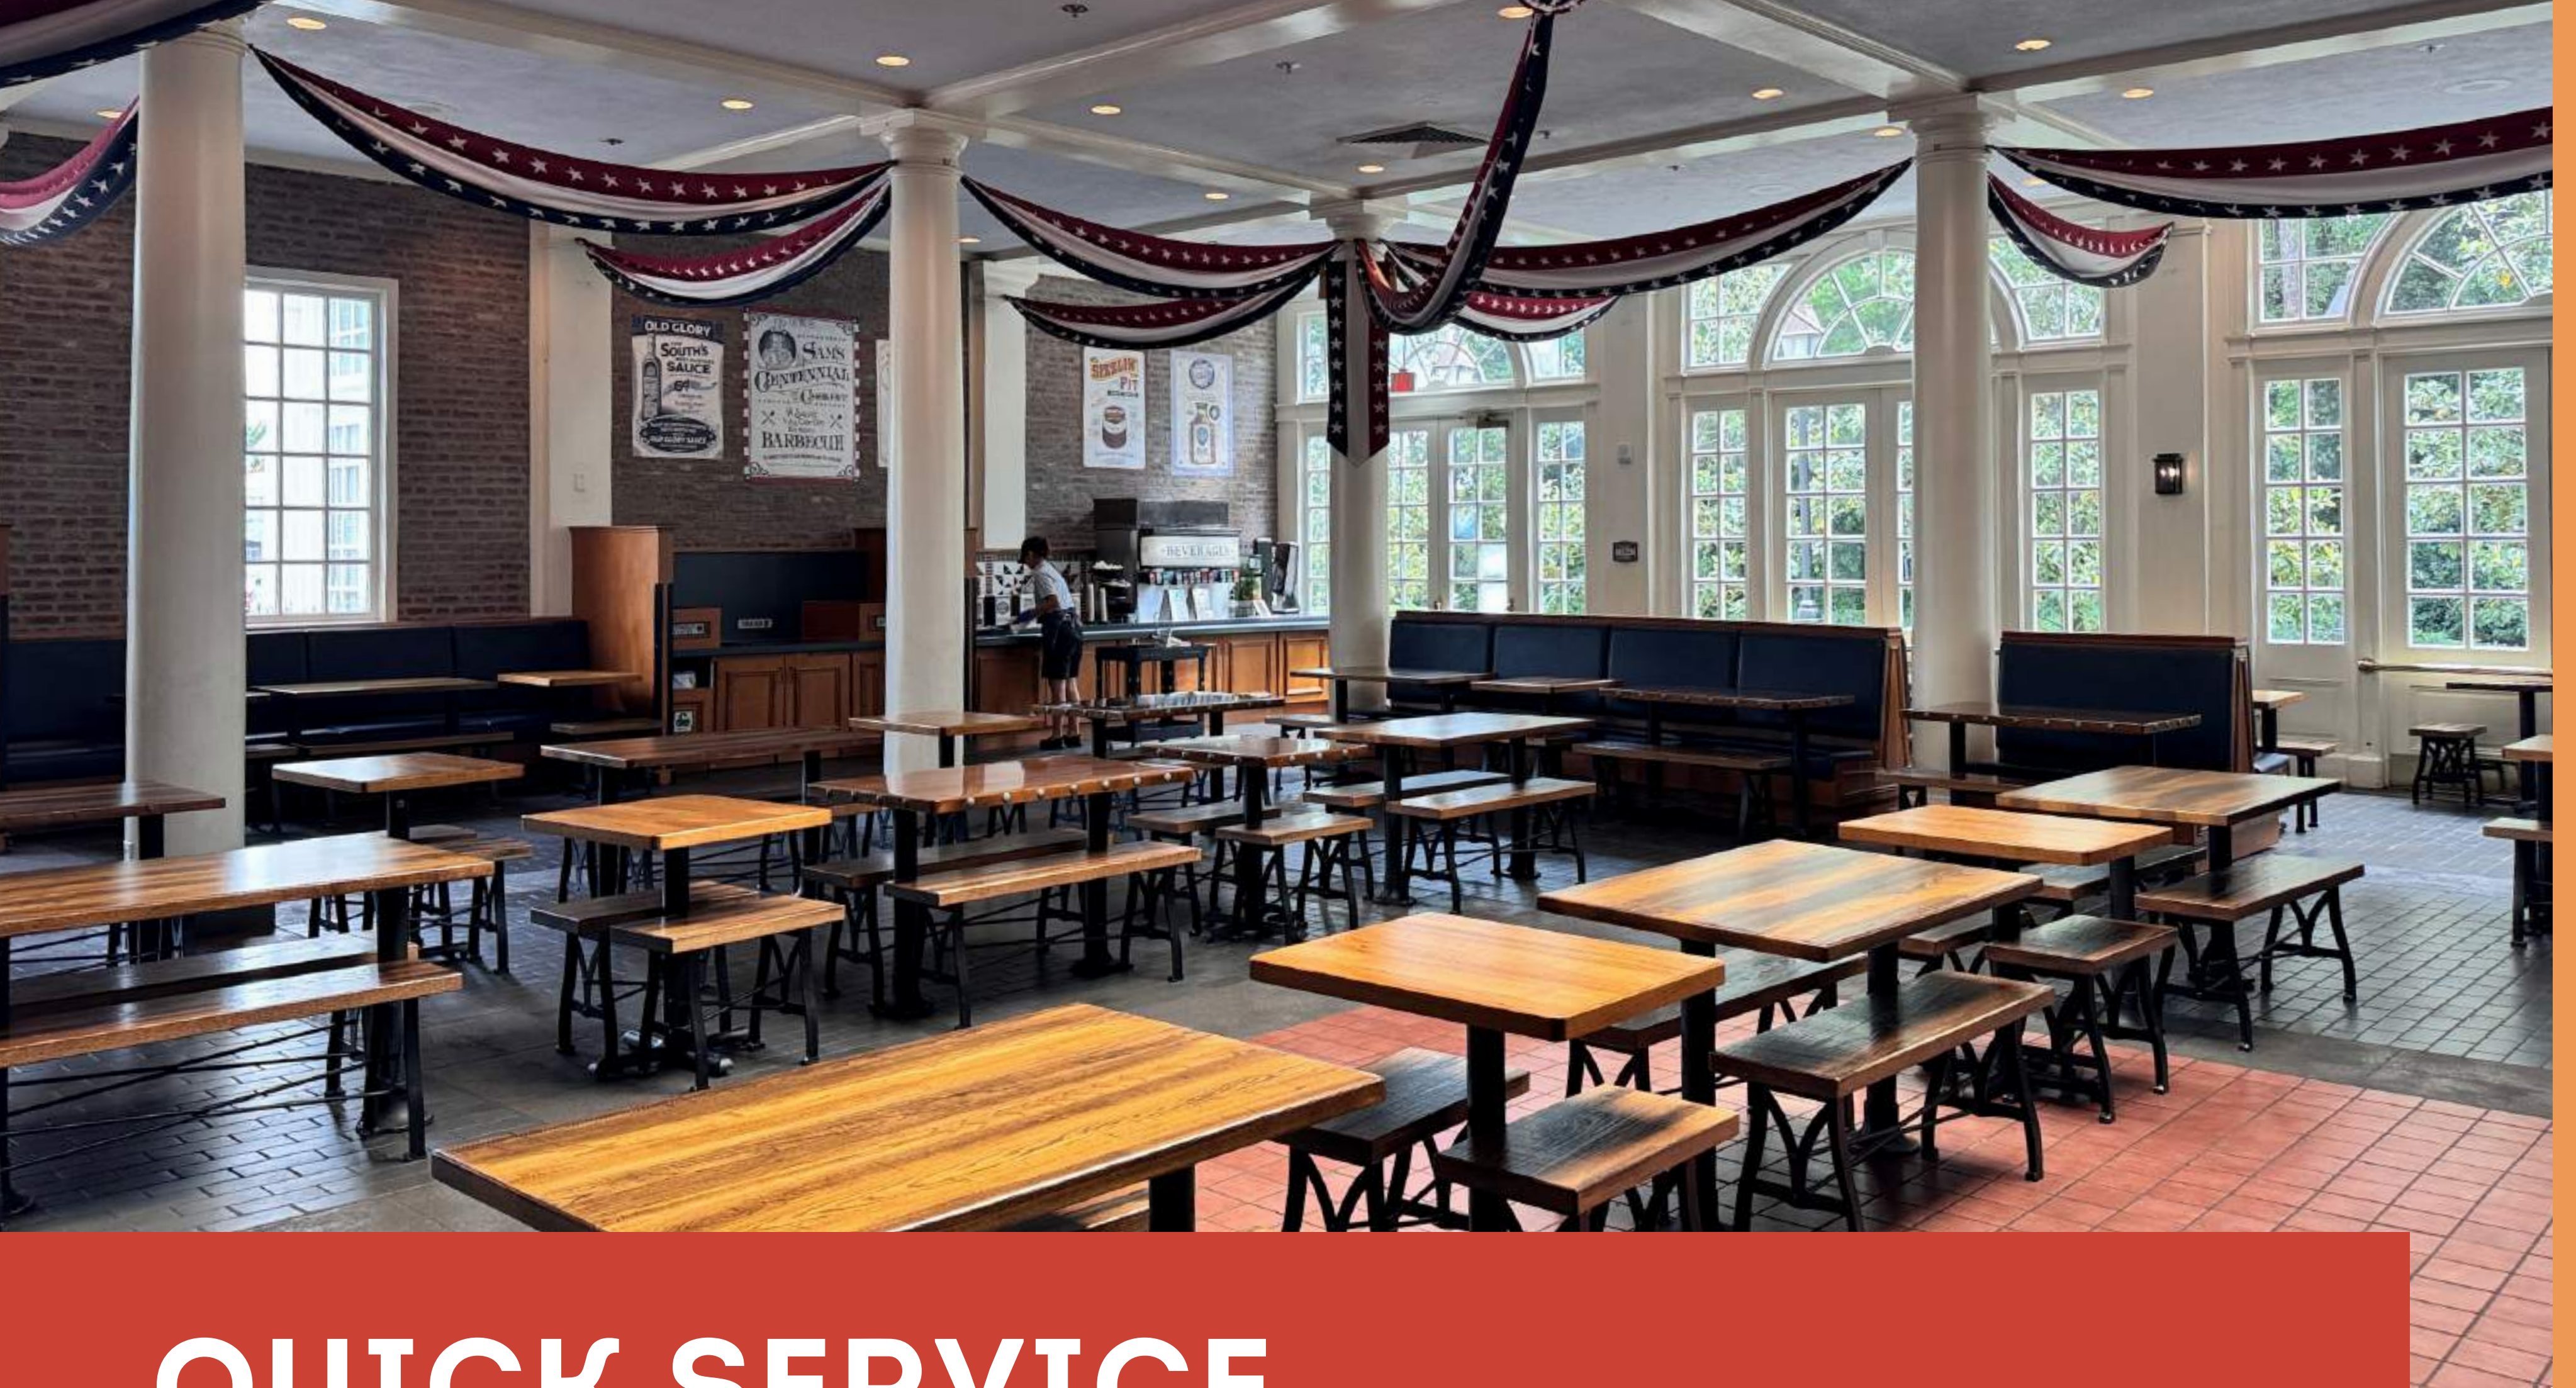

In EPCOT, you'll have to use 2 Table Service credits per person at Akershus Royal Banquet Hall at lunch and dinner.

However, if you opt for breakfast there, you only have to use 1 Table Service credit per person.

You'll also need to use 2 Table Service credits per person to dine at Le Cellier Steakhouse.

Some spots in EPCOT do not accept the Dining Plan at all, such as Monsieur Paul, Space 220, Takumi-Tei, and GEO-82. You'll want to look VERY carefully before deciding on your plans to see if the Dining Plan is accepted at the spot you're hoping to go to.

QUICK SERVICE

The Dining Plan is accepted at many of the Quick Service locations throughout the park. Unlike Magic Kingdom, EPCOT serves alcohol at many of its Quick Service restaurant locations. With the Disney Dining Plan, each Quick Service meal credit comes with a beverage, and those 21 and older can choose a single-serving mixed cocktail, beer, or wine.

Considering how expensive alcoholic drinks can be (especially when compared to something like a soda), that can help you get a TON of value out of 1 Quick Service meal credit. So, if you do drink alcohol, check to see what beverages qualify for the Dining Plan when ordering your meal to get the most out of your credits.

SNACK CREDITS

We have a very important note about snack credits, specifically for EPCOT, which is to check the EPCOT festival menus for items that are eligible for Dining Plan Snack Credits.

Four festivals typically occur in EPCOT each year. The best way to experience the tasty treats each festival has to offer is by eating your way through the various food kiosks set up throughout the park.

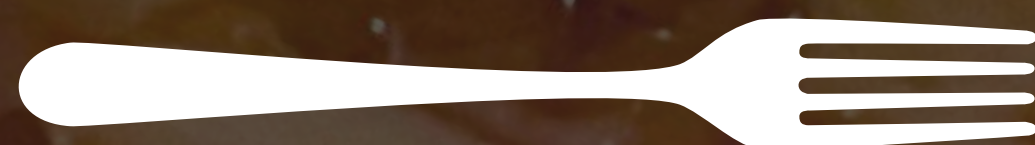

Various items at the kiosks (including some that are quite expensive or especially delicious) may count as a snack credit, giving you a way to use your credits for something unique, fun, and (potentially) of high value.

That's just the TIP of the iceberg! The BEST way to make sure you've got all the most up-to-date information is with our Disney Dining Plan Guide Book – check it out here!

DFB TOP PICKS

DFB TOP PICKS

Let's be real, folks, EPCOT is BIG. EPCOT is often regarded as the park for foodies and those who want to enjoy a few alcoholic beverages alongside their experience. And EPCOT has a wide variety of food and drinks to choose from. So, where do you start? How do you make sure you're getting the BEST of the BEST EPCOT has to offer? Well, everyone's tastes will differ. What we love might not exactly be your cup of tea – and what you love might not be another guest's favorite.

That's the beauty of life and your unique taste buds! And – full disclaimer – just because we don't include a specific treat on this list doesn't mean it isn't worth checking out.

BUT if you want to know what our top picks are here at DFB – some favorites that we've really enjoyed – we've got them all right here!

BEST TABLE SERVICE

1. Garden Grill Restaurant (World Nature): Family-style eats that are straightforward but consistently tasty, character appearances by Mickey and friends, views into the Living with the Land ride (cons: not the most adventurous eats, can be time-consuming)
2. Le Cellier Steakhouse (Canada): Great for date night, good service, top-tier steaks, and solid other eats (Cons: EXPENSIVE, not the best for families with smaller kids, heavy portions)
3. Rose & Crown Dining Room (United Kingdom): British eats, some traditional and some more adventurous options, cozy atmosphere (cons: small menu, can get fish & chips for WAY cheaper at the nearby Quick Service)
4. Takumi-Tei (Japan): incredible Japanese eats, elevated experience, great for adventurous eaters (cons: expensive, takes a lot of time, harder for picky eaters)
5. Via Napoli Ristorante e Pizzeria: Fantastic pizza, including some more unique flavors, some bigger pizza options so you can share with the whole group (cons: pizza can be pricey, not really for those who don't like Italian eats)

BEST QUICK SERVICE

1. Les Halles Boulangerie-Patisserie (France): FANTASTIC food, a good amount to choose from, affordable options (cons: limited seating, gets very crowded, no Mobile Order, lines can be longer)
2. Regal Eagle Smokehouse: Craft Drafts and Barbecue (American Adventure): Plenty of seating, well-priced for the amount and quality, certain barbecue dishes are a real standout (cons: menu items aren't unique, and there aren't a ton of choices for vegetarians)
3. Sunshine Seasons (World Nature): A variety of options to please different folks, lots of indoor seating, some fantastic desserts, affordable options (cons: not for those looking for adventurous eats)

BEST SWEET SNACKS

1. Most things from Karamell Kuche (Germany Pavilion)
2. Gelato, Brioche Ice Cream Sandwich, or Ice Cream Martini: L'Artisan des Glaces (France Pavilion)
3. Pretzel Bread Pudding: Sommerfest (Germany Pavilion)
4. Kakigōri: Kabuki Cafe (Japan Pavilion)
5. Red Berries or Other Sweet Crêpe: Crêpes À Emporter (France Pavilion)

BEST SAVORY SNACKS

1. Poutine: Refreshment Port
2. Cream of Brie Cheese Galette: Crêpes à Emporter (France Pavilion)
3. Guacamole: Choza de Margarita (Mexico Pavilion)
4. Chips and Queso: La Cava del Tequila (Mexico Pavilion)
5. Pretzel Nuggets: Block & Hans (American Adventure)

BEST DRINKS

See our Drinking Around the World Chapter for our FULL list of alcoholic and non-alcoholic drink picks! ↗

BEST FOR BIG GROUPS

Table Service

- Biergarten (Germany Pavilion): buffet with authentic German eats, LOTS of choices, family-style tables with plenty of seating for big groups, lively entertainment (cons: can be a little pricey, is a longer meal, might be a bit tough for super picky eaters, entertainment makes it noisy)

Quick Service

- Connections Eatery (World Celebration) or Sunshine Seasons (World Nature): both have lots of indoor seating and a good variety of menu options to please the whole group (cons: there are more unique eats throughout World Showcase, but the seating for many of those restaurants tends to be smaller or may have more limited menus)

BEST QUICK BREAKFAST

1. Pastries, quiche, and other goodies: Les Halles Boulangerie-Patisserie (France Pavilion)
2. School Bread: Kringla Bakeri Og Kafe (Norway Pavilion)
3. For something heartier: Starbucks breakfast sandwich: Connections Cafe (World Celebration)

BEST QUICK LUNCH/DINNER

1. Hand-breaded Chicken Sandwich or French Bistro Burger: Connections Eatery (World Celebration)
2. Sliced Texas Beef Brisket Sandwich or BBQ Burger: Regal Eagle Smokehouse: Craft Drafts and Barbecue (American Adventure Pavilion)
3. Quiche Lorraine, Jambon Beurre, Soup in a Bread Bowl, or Croque Monsieur: Les Halles Boulangerie-Patisserie (France Pavilion)
4. Fish & Chips: Yorkshire County Fish Shop (UK Pavilion)
5. Oak-Grilled Chicken: Sunshine Seasons (World Nature)

DRINKING
AROUND THE WORLD

DRINKING AROUND THE WORLD

Drinking Around the World at EPCOT is a fan-favorite challenge where guests sip their way through every country in World Showcase. It's part bar crawl, part cultural adventure—and yes, you can totally join in with non-alcoholic drinks, too.

Visiting during a festival? Even better! You can add limited-time sips from the food booths to your route for a truly epic tasting tour.

Just remember: stay hydrated, grab some snacks, pace yourself, and consider sharing drinks to try more without overdoing it. Disney offers free transportation around the resort, and rideshares are always an option if you need a safe ride back.

These are just some of our favorite drinks, but the world is full of tasty surprises. Sip smart, snack often, and have fun!

DRINKING AROUND THE WORLD

DFB FOODIE
CRAWLS

DFB FOODIE CRAWLS!

If you're looking for a fun way to add a bit of a challenge to your vacation, we've put together some crawls that can help you tackle some fun eats throughout EPCOT.

Ice cream and more are on these lists, so check them out and let us know what items you end up trying from these crawls!

DFB FOODIE CRAWLS

ICE CREAM/COLD TREATS

Croque Glace

L'Artisan des Glaces: France

Warm brioche bread STUFFED with the cold gelato of your choice = a flavor, texture, and temperature combination made in heaven! Or, you can try the Ice Cream Martini to spice things up!

Kakigori

Kabuki Cafe: Japan

A refreshing Japanese shaved ice snack that comes in various fruity flavors and can be topped with sweetened condensed milk if you've got a sweet tooth!

Coppa del Nonno

Gelateria Toscana: Italy

Vanilla, Chocolate, Cookies & Cream gelato, Chocolate Sauce, Whipped Cream, and Amaretto Cookies all come together in this rich and decadent ice cream treat.

Belgian Chocolate Gelato Shake

Connections Eatery: World Celebration

This milkshake might very well be one of the BEST ones in Disney World. It's rich, creamy, and smooth. Plus, the chocolate flavor is deep and delicious. It's one chocolate lovers will likely want to get over and over again!

Churro Sundae

La Cantina de San Angel: Mexico

Churros. Caramel. Ice Cream. Whipped Cream. This sundae is cinnamon-y, sugary, and caramely goodness!

DFB FOODIE CRAWLS

SWEET TREATS

Leige Waffle

Connections Eatery: World Celebration

This sweet waffle made with brioche dough is dusted with pearl and powdered sugar. Get it at Connections Eatery to try it topped with Strawberries, Whipped Cream, and Chocolate Sauce!

School Bread

Kringla Bakeri og Kafe: Norway

A sweet roll filled with a thick vanilla custard cream, dipped in toasted coconut – this is a sweet treat, but it can be divisive! You either love it or hate it...only one way to find out!

Anything Caramel

Karamell Kuche: Germany

The Caramel Popcorn here is the stuff of LEGENDS. The Caramel Butter Bar is a gooey caramel and buttery shortbread dessert. The cookie sandwiches here are also a HUGE favorite.

Pretzel Bread Pudding

Sommerfest: Germany

Pretzels + caramel sauce + vanilla sauce = a delicious take on a traditional bread pudding. We can't stay away from this one!

Any Pastry

Les Halles Boulangerie-Patisserie: France

The Les Halles bakery case is FULL of winners. We've enjoyed things like the Viennoiserie Pomme, but pick what looks good to you!

DFB FOODIE CRAWLS

SAVORY SNACKS

Fish & Chips

Yorkshire County Fish Shop: United Kingdom

Craving some piping hot fish and chips? THIS is the place to go. It's the only thing on the menu because it's truly that good – simple, crispy, delicious.

Poutine

Refreshment Port: Near Canada

Crispy French fries, savory and salty beef gravy, and squeaky cheese curds join forces in this tasty snack. (Look for seasonal varieties here too!)

Egg Rolls

Joy of Tea: China

These pork and vegetable egg rolls are a great savory snack if you're looking for something that's reasonably priced and tasty.

Guacamole & Chips

Choza de Margarita: Mexico

This guacamole is different than the rest because it's topped with mango and pumpkin seeds, giving it a fresh and fruity flavor and a nice mix of textures.

Cream of Brie Cheese Galette

Crêpes À Emporter: France

This is one for the cheese lovers! The galette is filled with creamy and tangy cheese fondue and it is delicious.
