

Opportunity Knocks: Your Weekly Update

Scholarships, Internships, Volunteer Opportunities, Contests, and Awards

Tip of the Week

There are thousands of easy-to-find scholarships online; as a high school student, I can only supply a small amount to you. If you need more, reach out to me or find them through websites like Fast Web Scholarship Search or College Board's Big Future Scholarship Search

Opportunity of the Week Act Now! Entry Deadline April 1st

LACCW Resilience Program Scholarship

The Resilience Scholarship is a source of financial support and motivational resource for women within Los Angeles County wishing to pursue a college degree or post-secondary certification program. The scholarship seeks to support women and girls whose resilience and determination have overcome considerable hardship. As such, our scholarship funds can subsidize incidentals above and beyond allowable expenses covered by federal and state financial aid.

APPLICANT ELIGIBILITY CRITERIA

1. High school seniors (12th graders) must graduate with their high school diploma or GED by June 2025 and attend a university, community college, or vocational/trade school in Fall 2025.
2. Student applicants must have a minimum cumulative 2.0 GPA.
3. Students must be enrolled in or taking a minimum of 6 units per term.

Deadline: Spring cohort application due March 28th at 5:00 pm.

Learn more and apply at <https://lacew.lacounty.gov/annual-events/scholarship-program/>.

SoCalGas Scholarship Program Act Now! Entry Deadline April 1st

Applicants must meet all of the following criteria:

- Be a high school senior with a cumulative grade point average of 3.0 on a 4.0 scale or equivalent.
- Plan to attend a full-time undergraduate course of study at an accredited four-year college or university in the U.S. for the upcoming academic year.
- Plan to enroll in an eligible major in Science, Technology, Engineering, Math, Finance, Accounting. Medical-related fields are not eligible.
- Demonstrate financial need.

“You have within you, right now, everything you need to deal with whatever the world can throw at you.”– Brian Tracy