Church Profile

Cannon Baptist Church of Van Alstyne, Texas, is a church family committed to biblical preaching, heartfelt worship, and meaningful fellowship. Through congregational input and ongoing conversations, it is clear that the church values the authority of the Scripture, relational warmth, and the intentional engagement of the rapidly growing community around it.

In recent years, Cannon Baptist has experienced a season of declining attendance. Average Sunday worship attendance has been approximately 32, with higher attendance Sundays reaching around 50. The current membership includes many faithful empty nesters and senior adults who form the core of the congregation, while new families have joined even in recent months. The church currently hosts one adult Sunday School class and a Wednesday evening prayer meeting. While attendance numbers reflect a season of rebuilding, there is unity within the congregation and a sincere desire to grow both spiritually and numerically.

The church campus is well positioned for strategic growth. Cannon Baptist sits on a spacious property that includes a Family Life Center, a nursery, multiple classrooms, and acreage suitable for future ministry expansion. The available facilities provide a significant opportunity for community engagement and future development.

Financially, the church is debt free and practices responsible stewardship of its resources. The absence of debt, combined with spacious and versatile facilities, positions the church for stability and long-term growth.

Cannon Baptist Church is a close-knit congregation with a heart for faithfulness and renewal. Members express a desire to reach families in the growing Van Alstyne community and to see the church strengthened for the next generation. With a strong foundation, available space for expansion, and a community experiencing rapid growth, Cannon Baptist looks forward with anticipation to what God will do through the leadership of its next pastor.
