ALUMNI TESTIMONIALS

Mengikuti berbagai kegiatan internasional, salah satunya kompetisi moot court hukum internasional terbesar di dunia, Philip C. Jessup, yang diadakan ILSA, menjadi awal mula kami (tim founder) mendirikan ILSA Chapter UNHAS. Berada di lingkungan ini memberikan kesempatan untuk dapat mengenal orang-orang yang hebat dan tempat yang sangat baik untuk mengembangkan potensi diri yang bahkan kita tidak pernah sadari sebelumnya untuk masuk ke dunia kerja menjadi setara dengan yang lain, bahkan melampaui pencapaian yang dapat kita pikirkan. It's been nothing short of inspiring to be a part of birth of ILSA Chapter UNHAS and a witness which ILSA become today.

A Place to grow is one thing that described ILSA. I have to admit how this platform contributed to my critical thinking, problem solving, public speaking, and social networking abilities flourished towards its activities such as moot court class and share & discuss current international law issues. In short, my experience at ILSA has prepared me to take on the challenge of establishing a career in prestigious institution.

Learning about international law is encouraging us to see what is happening around the world in the perspective of law. Instead of learning what actually exist in the now world, it is important to broad up your horizon of law by learning about the law internationally. ILSA is a platform to facilitate those who are interested in gaining more broader perspective about the law aside from the status quo.

- Muhammad Alwin Hajaning, S.H.

HEAD OF TRANSACTION - ASSOCIATE DIRECTOR AT CFLD INTERNATIONAL

ALUMNI TESTIMONIALS

International law allows students to learn insights into

International law allows students to learn insights into legal system of the world and how it influences not only international policies but also national policies. There are treaties for nearly all human activities making international law a legal system that's like no other. It doesn't have a real entity to enforce it, and some schools of thought question whether it's a law to begin with. All of this means there is a lot of uncertainty in international law, whether something is binding to a specific party for example. One thing however is certain, international law really interesting to study and ILSA is one of the best place to do so.

2. We have access to Indonesia's embassy in Thailand and Malaysia and we actively send students for a one month internship there.

You won't regret joining us!

Being part of ILSA is the best decision i made during Uni time. ILSA definitely contributes to my personal development particularly in expanding my horizon on the issue of international law but most importantly it taught me to be more critical in decision making process which substantially relevant with my job right now where policies constructed based on data and with careful approach that required a set of skill called critical thinking.
