

Behavioural Interview

Participant: James Lew
Client Organisation: AWE Limited

Prepared by: Dr. David Stritch
Director & Registered Psychologist

Date: July 3rd, 2017

Confidentiality Statement: This report is confidential. The content of this report should only be read by individuals who have approved access.

Question 1

Could you please provide an example where you made a substantial contribution in securing difficult approvals for a project or activity?

Situation

Task / Thinking

Actions

Result

Question 2

Could you please discuss a time at work where you secured a successful outcome with community, or other stakeholders, who were initially quite hostile?

Situation

Task / Thinking

Actions

Result

Question 3

Please provide an example from your work history where you were able to successfully balance competing political, or other agendas, amongst community, regulatory and client stakeholder groups, to ensure mutually beneficial outcomes?

Situation

Task / Thinking

Actions

Result

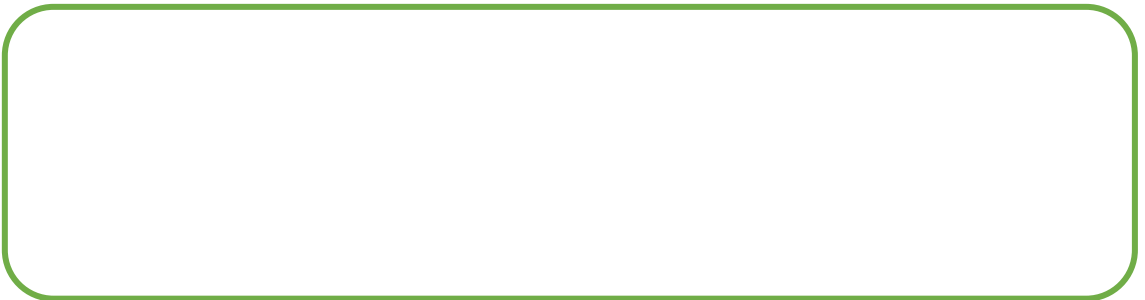

Question 4

Using an example from your work, please give a detailed outline of your approach and implementation of a project plan (including feasibility studies)?

Situation

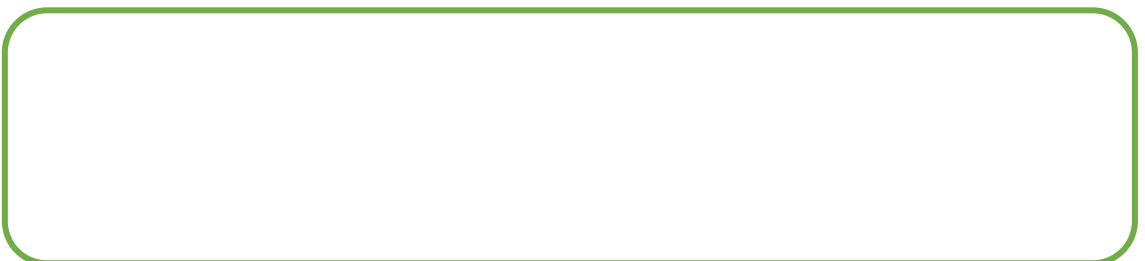

Task / Thinking

Actions

Result

Question 5

Talk me through a time at work where you needed to demonstrate resilience and a strong ability to manage your emotions?

Situation

Task / Thinking

Actions

Result

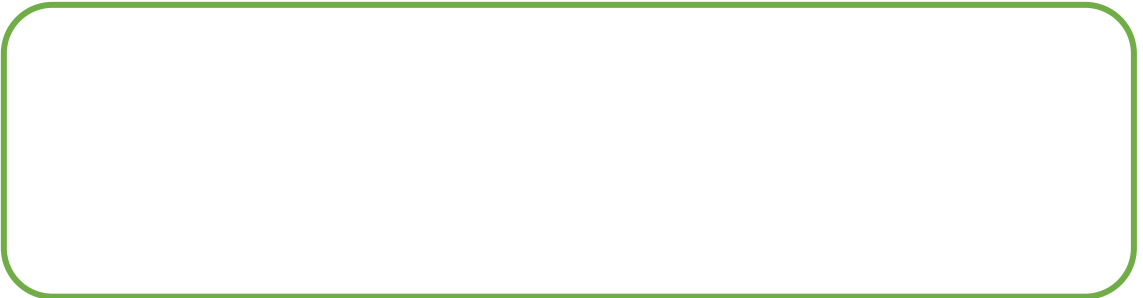

Question 6

Tell me about a time at work where you needed to synthesise information from a number of different sources in order to make a difficult decision?

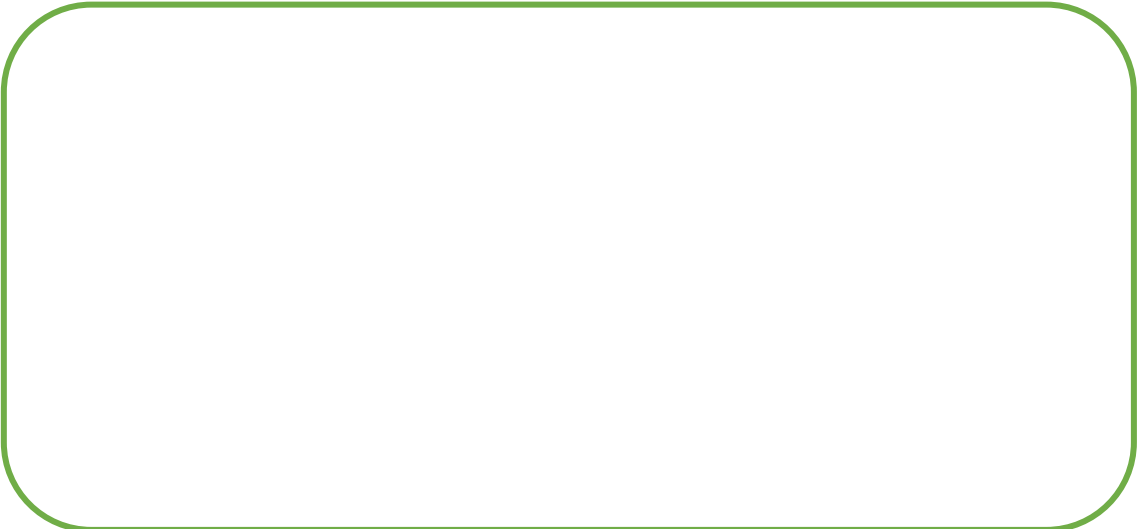

Situation

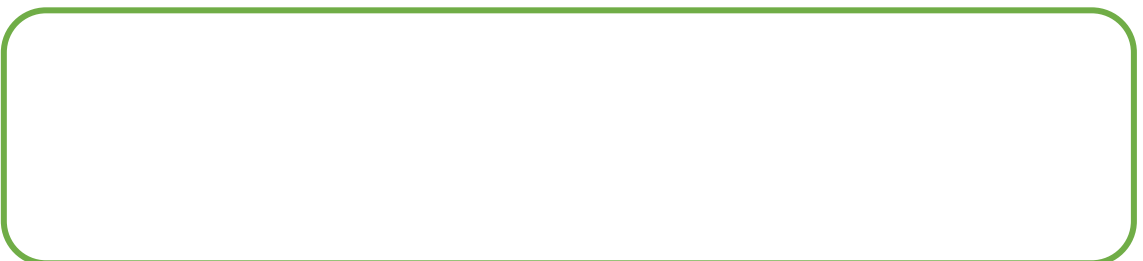

Task / Thinking

Actions

Result

Question 7

Describe a situation from your work where you successfully persuaded an individual or individuals to adopt a position or plan to which they had initially been opposed?

Situation

Task / Thinking

Actions

Result

Comments

Presentation

Communication

Motivation

Recommendation