My hair wants Ruchi and her team. And nothing has changed since 22 odd years. Pre Covid and now, relentless focus on quality, hygiene and client satisfaction. A hair friend for life. Bhawna Gupta

Over the years Ruchi has trimmed, dyed, and changed the style of my hair many times. It's come to the point now where I don't even say what I want. "I trust you.", I say to Ruchi, sitting down in the chair knowing I will be happy with the result, and I always am.

I study in the Netherlands and only get to visit Delhi twice a year, but even then no one has touched my hair except her. I've been getting my hair done only twice a year willingly because I know that those trips are worth it. Eagerly waiting to return to India so I can get my hair redone from a woman I saved as "Hair Goddess" in my phone as a teenager!
