

Thank you for attending, Synthetic Eros or love in the times of AI at the Astrological Association Conference 2025. I hope you find the talk interesting and that it has ignited questions, reflections and thoughts. I'll be happy to hear your ideas if you want to share them: info@alejolopezastrology.com

I also invite you to join my mailing list if you want to know more about future events, courses or conferences I'll be attending. You can do so here. I usually send a monthly newsletter at the time of the crescent moon with some reflections on the astrology of the moment.

Thanks for being part of my astrological journey. I hope you will find these resources useful.
