B-17 Islamabad

B-17 is a sector of Islamabad, Pakistan, developed by Multi-Professional Cooperative Housing Society. The sector is bounded on the east by N-5 National Highway and with the M-1 motorway to the west. It is focal point for Islamabad, Rawalpindi, Taxila, Wah cant and Hassan Abdal

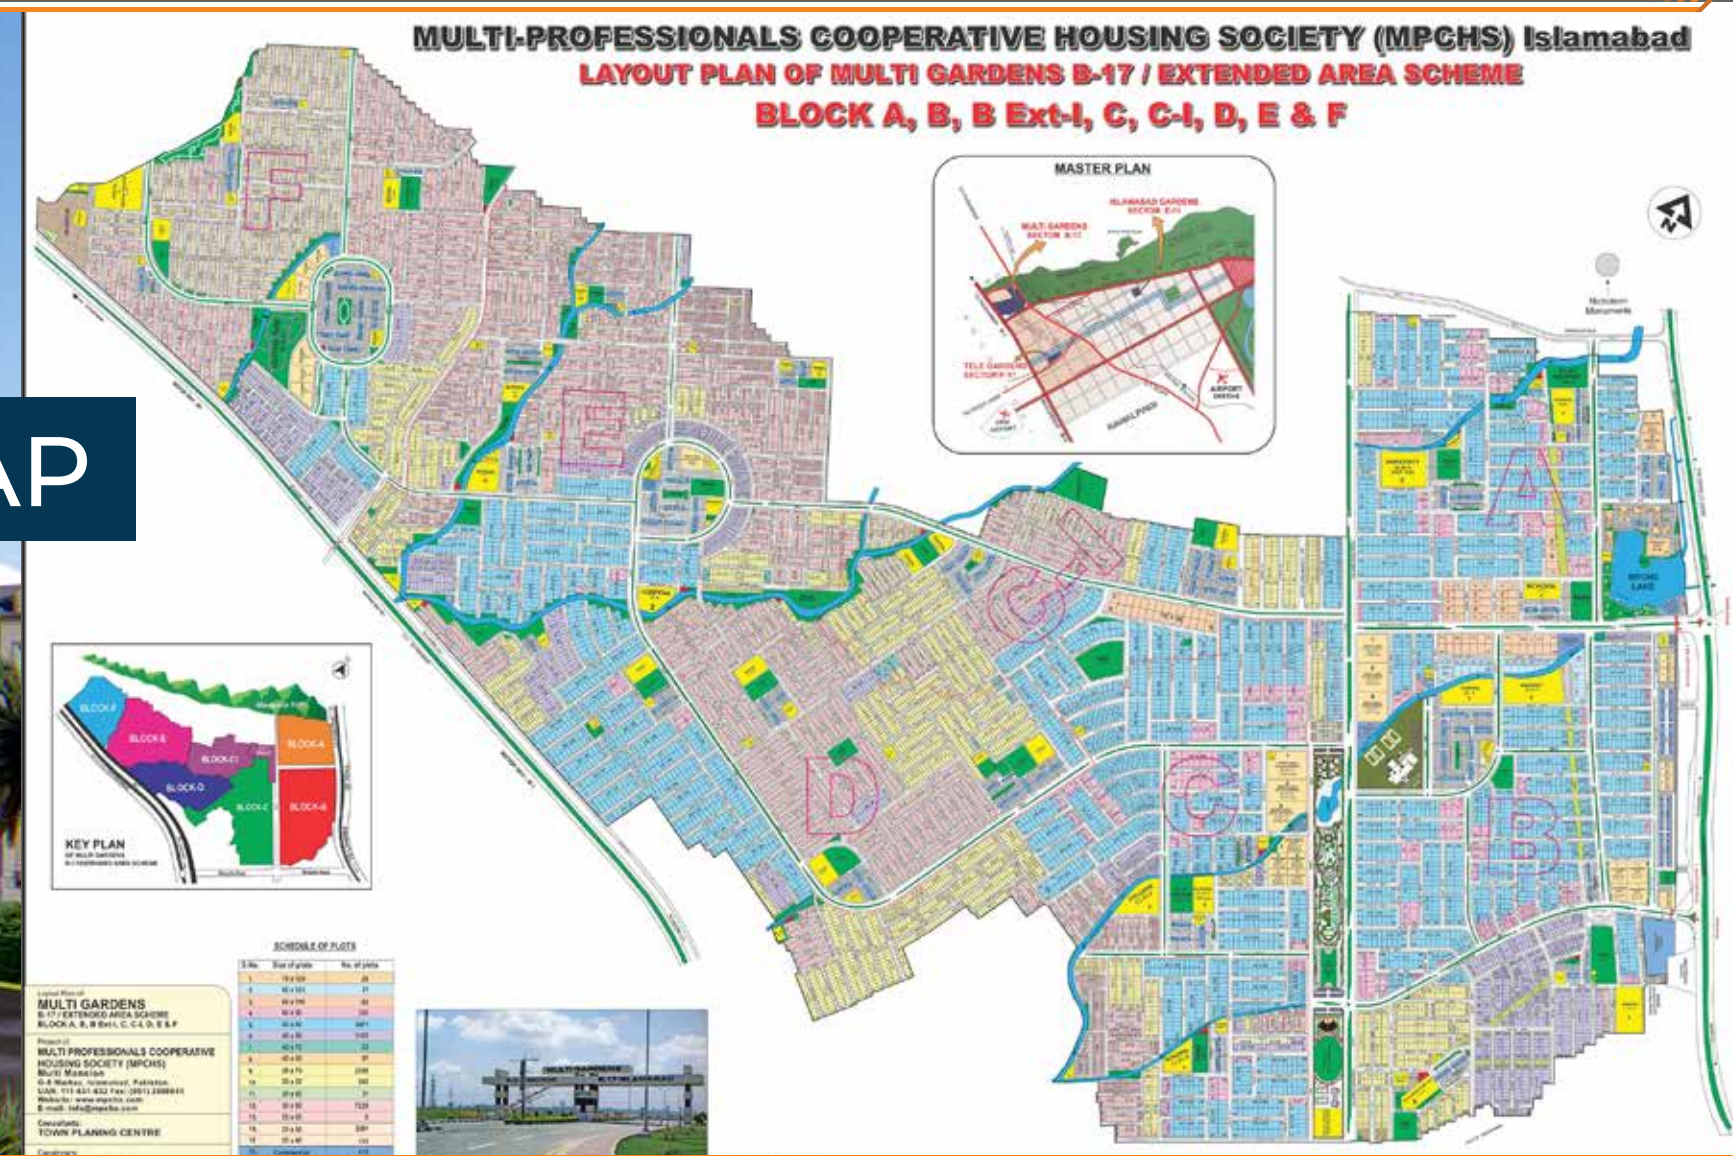

Multi Gardens was launched in 2004 in CDA sector of Islamabad spreading over an area of more than 16000 Kanal of Margalla Hills. The B-17 Islamabad society consists of areas earmarked for the sectors, namely A-17, B-17, and B-18.

This sector would be the gateway to central Asian states, Gilgit Baltistan, Khyber Pakhtoon Khawa (KPK) and china. The alternate incoming route to Islamabad known as Margalla Avenue joins G.T Road almost in front of Gate 1 of the sector.

It is a pleasing society that provides its citizens with breathtaking view of Margalla Hills and peaceful environment. B-17 Islamabad is an ideal investment opportunity in the current scenario of real estate business in Islamabad due to its location and world-class development. The prices of society have increased to a significant amount, giving the people who had previously invested in the community an advantage.
