Mathar A. S. is a legal professional specializing in trademark and copyright law, with a deep focus on delivering tailored, end-to-end solutions for brand protection, IP portfolio management, and enforcement strategies. His practice supports a wide range of clients — from startups to multinational enterprises — in navigating both national and international intellectual property landscapes.

Mathar brings a strong academic foundation to his legal practice. He is skilled in conducting trademark clearance searches, managing filing and prosecution processes, and handling opposition, rectification, and copyright-related matters. His approach is client-centric, ensuring that each IP strategy is aligned with the client's brand vision and commercial goals.

He was also actively involved in IP due diligence, trademark monitoring, and strategic counsel. This experience enriched him understanding of how legal frameworks intersect with business objectives.

Recognized for his precision, commitment, and proactive guidance, Mathar continues to empower businesses to secure, manage, and maximize the value of their intangible assets, contributing meaningfully to innovation and long-term brand success.
