Meghana K V is a Trademark Attorney and IP Associate with a concentrated practice in trademark and copyright law, offering end-to-end legal support in brand protection, portfolio management, and enforcement of IP rights. She advises a broad spectrum of clients—including startups, established enterprises, and multinational corporations—on strategies that protect and enhance their brand identity in domestic and global markets.

A postgraduate in Intellectual Property Law from Christ University, Bangalore, Meghana combines academic depth with hands-on experience in handling trademark clearance searches, filing and prosecution, opposition and rectification matters, as well as copyright registration and advisory. She works closely with clients to devise customized IP strategies aligned with their commercial goals and branding vision.

Before her current role, Meghana served as an IP Associate at a leading IP advisory firm in Bangalore, where she gained valuable experience in IP due diligence, trademark watch services, and strategic client counselling. This exposure strengthened her understanding of both the legal and commercial dimensions of IP protection.

Known for her client-first mindset, precision, and ability to navigate the evolving IP ecosystem, Meghana continues to support innovation and creativity by helping businesses secure and maximize the value of their intangible assets.
