Naveen Kumar D is a seasoned professional with a strong emphasis on client counselling, relationship management, and strategic portfolio development, particularly in the fields of industrial designs and trademarks. A graduate of PSG College of Arts & Science, Coimbatore, he has established long-standing relationships with a diverse clientele—including corporate organizations, global IP law firms, multinational enterprises, MSMEs, startups, and academic institutions.

With deep expertise in the process and strategic oversight of trademark and design matters, Naveen ensures that every client's intellectual and creative assets are secure, compliant, and aligned with broader business objectives. He serves as a crucial interface between clients and legal teams, offering tailored solutions and responsive guidance throughout the IP lifecycle.

Beyond his advisory role, Naveen is also an active contributor to IP education, frequently delivering lectures, training sessions, and workshops on design law, brand protection etc. His client-first mindset, legal acumen, and ability to navigate complex IP challenges make him a trusted advisor and strategic partner in safeguarding and elevating brand value.
