

1. Standard / Personal License

- Use:
 - Personal, non-commercial projects only.
- Examples:
 - Personal social media, personal blogs, non-monetized YouTube videos, hobby projects.
- Modifications:
 - You can slightly modify, resize, or adjust the design, file, etc. for personal use.
- Credit:
 - Crediting me as the original designer/creator is required!
- Restrictions:
 - You cannot use it in any commercial, business, or monetized project.
 - You cannot resell, redistribute, or claim ownership of the original or modified design, file, etc.

Think of this like assets from the Unity store marked for personal projects — for your eyes and hobby use only.

2. Commercial License

- Use:
 - Commercial, business, or monetized projects.
- Examples:
 - Business branding, websites, online shops, monetized videos, products, advertising.
- Modifications:
 - You can freely modify, edit, and adapt the design, file, etc. for your project's needs.
- Credit:
 - Crediting me as the original designer/creator is required!
- Restrictions:
 - You cannot resell or redistribute the original or altered version.
 - You cannot resell, redistribute, or claim ownership of the original or modified version.

Use this when you need something you can legally monetize, use in business, or show publicly as part of your commercial work.

3. Exclusive License

- Use:
 - Complete, unrestricted rights - you fully own the design, file, etc.
- Examples:
 - Anything you want - personal, commercial resale, redistribution, brand ownership.
- Modifications:
 - You can freely do whatever edits or changes you want.
- Credit:
 - Crediting me as the original designer/creator is appreciated, but not required. You can even claim full authorship.
- Ownership:
 - Once purchased, the design, file, etc. is removed from my shop permanently. Upon request I will remove it from my portfolio showcasing that I made it, if you wish to claim full authorship and ownership rights.
 - You receive full, exclusive rights and I no longer claim any ownership or credit.

This is perfect for premade designs I make or unique concepts others passed on. Giving you 100% control, like you created it yourself.
