Dr. Preset

01: BLIND SPOT (1987) Luc van de Steeg

There is a blind spot in my eye,
So I can't see why!?
Why there is so much killing,
Manslaughter and nature spilling

Tell me Why!?
Is there a blind spot in my eye, so
I can't see Why!?
My eye does have to cry

Why in men going about,
Like earth is a tilting ground,
Life is such a beautiful mystery,
Don't let it become history.

Tell me Why!?
Is there a blind spot in my eye, so
I can't see Why!?
My eye does have to cry

Families with no place to settle,
Where the machine-guns rattle
Political interests cost too many lives, as the world spins twice

Buried in lies is the truth of war
Before the world spins twice

Tell me Why!?
Is there a blind spot in my eye, so
I can't see Why!?
My eye does have to cry

Why don't we come to our senses?
Let's have wild-romances
Will the rat-race manifest make us do the streets tremble
By a thunder of protest

Tell me Why!?
a blind spot in my eye, so
My eye doesn't have to cry, ...anymore.

02: Time will tell the way it goes (2025) Dr. Preset

Time will tell the way it goes
Another hour, the river flows
Splitting time in seconds bright
Forever lost in endless night
How to build time feels so slow

Love is late at midnight blue
Cold shower can't escape the view

The bed still smells like you, my dear
Too big without you, filled with fear
Sleeping with the light so strong
Broken mirror shows me wrong
Empty heart sings this sad song

Without your touch, I feel the pain
Loneliness wakes me up again
Like a zombie lost and weak
Screaming words I cannot speak
Crossing town with no relief

Echoes from my heart so sore
Can't take this pain no more

The bed still smells like you, my dear
Too big without you, filled with fear
Sleeping with the light so strong
Broken mirror shows me wrong
Empty heart sings this sad song

Let it go with passing hours
No more giving you sweet flowers
Time keeps ticking on the wall
Waiting for your lonely call

Run back in time or future bright
Will I find you in the light

Call you mine, hold you tight
Broken mirror shows me right
Empty heart sings all the night

03: I am a traveler, not lost at all (2025) Dr. Preset

I am a traveler, not lost at all
Arrived to rise after every fall
Journey through my thoughts so deep
Compass of my view, I keep

I am here, and you are there
We can walk, but never share
Though my steps will never tire
Footprints fade like burnt desire

Blown away by storm and flood
Where we stood in love's warm blood
No harm meant my ring still gleams
Passport for our shared dreams

What's beyond the horizon line
Paradise, I won't decline
No more running from your grace
Finding you in freedom's space

That first word our hearts entwined
Covenant in silence signed
Faith in joy and sorrow true
Sharing all the days with you

Your voice whispers soft and near
Your eyes melt away my fear
No more roads walked all alone
Through the world, your light has shown

What's beyond the horizon line
Paradise, I won't decline
No more running from your grace
Finding you in freedom's space

What's beyond the horizon line
Paradise, I won't decline
No more running from your grace
Finding you in freedom's space

Your voice whispers soft and near
Your eyes melt away my fear
No more roads walked all alone
Through the world, your light has shown.

04: Postman Blues (1989) Luc van de Steeg

Have to get up, mornings at five,
Daybreak and struggle for life.
Everyday makes me join a workers force,
Everyday feels like a lost cause.

I'm just a Postman, just a postman
Commanding is all they can.
Getting blue by the day and night,
And that ain't right, oh no

Every season got it's own treat,
No matter cold, na matter heat
Icy roads and days of rain,
This is no job, it's insane!

I'm just a Postman, just a postman
Pushing is all they can,
Getting blue by the day and night,
And that ain't right, oh no

Sometimes I wish, was just like you fools;
Spend all my loving, free days at schools.
But letterboxes got to be filled,
In this way time and me, get me killed.

All I wanna do is stay close to you

I'm just a Postman, just a postman
Show some mercy if you can,
Getting blue by the day and night,
And that ain't right, oh no

Cruising town, up and down-hill
Looking for a place to chill,
But a Postman always rings twice,
And tosh the dice, twice...right

Am just a postman, a just postman,
Walking is all I can do,
and pay a visit to you.
But I can't stay for long

05: Barking to the day (2025) Dr. Preset

I like to bark all day long
Cause my bossy left me on my own
Just being locked up in a room, is a recipe for doom

I like to walk and talk and take a dump if I like
If I dont like you then I usually bark
But I also know how to bite like a shark

Nobody told me bout the thirst I feel
When I bark and no one hears me squeal
It gives me a dry mouth
I cant even cry out loud

I like to bark all day long
Cause my bossy left me on my own
Just being locked up in a room
Is a recipe for doom

Then I jump onto the sofa and the bed
Shove a table aside without regret
It will stop the moment you are around
And you will hear my sweet sound

I like to bark all day long
Cause my bossy left me on my own
Just being locked up in a room
Is a recipe for doom

Keeps me tight on a leash too
No running for free from and to you
My life is no ball game to win
My barking is the way I sing the blues

I like to bark all day long
Cause my bossy left me on my own
Just being locked up in a room
Is a recipe for doom

Sometimes I hang out of the window
Feel how the wind blows
Downstairs on the pavement I greet
With a bark all that my eyes meet
I like to bark all day long
Cause my bossy left me on my own
Just being locked up in a room, is a recipe for doom.

06: An arousal drop in my brain (2025) for my brother Willem / William

An arousal drop in my brain, the mind is blank
A mental blackout creeps in without a thank
Deactivation starts marching with no rank
In silent sync till dawn calls from the bank

Let's pump it up, join the club, and train my mind
Beat the fatigue, leave the past behind
Today I'm ahead of where I was last time
Tomorrow is where I choose to climb

Sometimes I have a head that's not mine
Thoughts fade away like fog so fine
The further I go, the more I find
It always comes back the long way blind

Walking through shadows that make me shy
Whispers of memories floating by
Today I'm ahead, reaching the sky
Tomorrow is where I choose to fly

Let's pump it up, join the club, and train my mind
Beat the fatigue, leave the past behind
Today I'm ahead of where I was last time
Tomorrow is where I choose to climb

Sometimes I have a head that's not mine
Thoughts fade away like fog so fine
The further I go, the more I find
It always comes back the long way blind

An arousal drop in my brain, the mind is blank
A mental blackout creeps in without a thank
Deactivation starts marching with no rank
In silent sync till dawn calls from the bank

Sometimes I have a head that's not mine
Thoughts fade away like fog so fine
The further I go, the more I find. It always comes back the long way blind

In every turn, a lesson I align, to find my path, through shadows and light.
With each fall, I rise, in every trial, I find my true might.
In every tear, a promise to ignite, with dreams as my guide, I'll soar just right.
In every dream, a beacon so bright, with purpose as my guide, I'll reach the light.
Sometimes I have a head that's not mine
Thoughts fade away like fog so fine
The further I go, the more I find.
It always comes back the long way blind.

07: Hopeless (1990) Translated poem of Thomas Hagen (a.k.a. Luc v.d. Steeg)

Wild hairs and golden pants
Dancing bold to tempt the gods
Freckles glow in the light
Balancing high above the night
On the rope of hopes so tight

Together we color each day
Harvest sun in bright array
Let the lovers shine so true
Every hue is me and you

Is it real or just a game
Fear of chains we can't explain
Tangled roots from down below
What's beyond life's ebb and flow

With my heart in your hands
Moving to the feast's command
All my soul I give to you
Through the storms we'll push on through

Together we color each day
Harvest sun in bright array
Let the lovers shine so true
Every hue is me and you

Why does closeness feel so far?
Courage fades like shooting stars
Time stood still that evening bright
Sailed away into the night

Forgotten fool and his cry
Ocean steamed, and dreams ran high
Rose's shadow on the floor
Gold dust shines forevermore

With my heart in your hands
Moving to the feast's command
All my soul I give to you
Through the storms we'll push on through

Together we color each day
Harvest sun in bright array
Let the lovers shine so true
Every hue is me and you

Wild hairs and golden pants
Dancing bold to tempt the gods
Freckles glow in the light
Balancing high above the night
On the rope of hopes so tight

08: Your smile glows within my mind (2025) Dr. Preset. For Lilia

Your smile glows within my mind
A light that guides me through the tide
Lead me safe to stormy bay
Where winds will whisper us away

The waves they rock my heart so deep
The night has set our souls to meet
Together we will find our way
Through every swell and every spray

Wind in sails and beer so sweet
Your laugh still shines with salty beat
Through every wave and every mile
Your light will guide me with your smile

At anchor now I lay the plank
Will you step in or leave me blank
With steady feet I'll take the chance
And dance with you in this romance

The waves they rock my heart so deep
The night has set our souls to meet
Together we will find our way
Through every swell and every spray
Wind in sails and beer so sweet
Your laugh still shines with salty beat
Through every wave and every mile
Your light will guide me with your smile

In winter's hush we sail afar
From shore to shore beneath the star
My guide in surf my life's true part
Together we bend time's own art

Wind in sails and beer so sweet
Your laugh still shines with salty beat
Through every wave and every mile
Your light will guide me with your smile.

09: Paper (1990) Translated poem of Thomas Hagen (a.k.a. Luc v.d. Steeg)

Greedy as a deer driven by thirst
Joyfully drowning the heart that was cursed

A shiver runs from my heart to my hands
Coagulated ink won't stick to the sands
Warmth that once manned me now fades from my glands
Watertight, yet the heat slips away like strands

Finally, I flow free again in the night
Bubbling channels my master in sight
From inner depths to my head takes its flight
Emptiness fills with a laugh shining bright

Greedy as a deer driven by thirst
Joyfully drowning the heart that was cursed

Cannot say what I feel
And the paper won't heal
Ink and pen both run dry
Am I stubborn or shy?

A shiver runs from my hands to the sheet
Won thoughts can't hold ground, they retreat
My casing an organ sets me complete
From the beast, I stand tall in my seat

And sometimes I tamper with my mind
Words fall short, leaving meaning behind
Before they touch down, they're hard to find
Vapor, they turn like smoke in the wind

Greedy as a deer driven by thirst
Joyfully drowning the heart that was cursed

Cannot say what I feel
And the paper won't heal
Ink and pen both run dry

Am I stubborn or shy?

D.J. de Birk 1990

10: Drumroll (1990) Translated poem of Thomas Hagen (a.k.a. Luc v.d. Steeg)

Run towards the open sky
Let your dreams ignite and fly

Drumroll thunder sparks ignite
Grazing darkness morning light
Today the rails converge so tight
On the horizon burning bright

Appearing fading with the speed
Infinity we chase the dream
Minutes pass like shifting sand
Who moves the world with unseen hand

Run towards the open sky
Let your dreams ignite and fly
Every step a victory
Chasing what we long to see

World rushes like a freight train
Straight paths hide the risk and pain
Triangles of roads unfold
Layers of light stories told

Rumble fish feel restless now
Passing stores forgotten somehow
Hunger drives the pot of gold
Rainbow stories left untold

Run towards the open sky
Let your dreams ignite and fly
Every step a victory
Chasing what we long to see

Run towards the open sky
Let your dreams ignite and fly
Every step a victory
Chasing what we long to see

In every heart, a fire burns
One dream at a time, we'll seize
Through night and day, we'll ignite

With every breath, we'll climb to the top together.
Run towards the open sky
Let your dreams ignite and fly

Run towards the open sky; let your dreams ignite and fly

11: I am the legend (2025) Dr. Preset

I'm the king of my own realm
A legend in the making, it's real
With every step, I claim my throne
My legacy, no one can throw

From the ashes, I rise again
Unstoppable, like a rising sun
No one can stop what I begin
My destiny, I've got the plan

I see myself in every star
A shining beacon, never far
My name's carved in history
A hero's tale, you can't deny

I am the legend, you can't ignore
My story's epic, I'm the core
With every breath, I rewrite fate
In this game, I'm the one who's great

Through the storm, I stay strong
A legend's journey, full of wrong
But I stand tall, through the night
My legend's song, I won't hide

I paint my path with bold strokes
A masterpiece, it's not jokes
My name's whispered in awe
A legend's power, I own

I see myself in every star
A shining beacon, never far
My name's carved in history
A hero's tale, you can't deny

I am the legend, you can't ignore
My story's epic, I'm the core
With every breath, I rewrite fate
In this game, I'm the one who's great

I am the legend, I won't fade
My story's written, I'm the shade
With every move, I carve my name
A legend's legacy,
I claim.
