Dr. Lee Ann B. Marino, Ph.D., D.Min., D.D. (she/her) (she/her) is “everyone’s favorite theologian” leading Gen X, Millennials, and Gen Z with expertise in leadership training, queer and feminist theology, general religion, and apostolic theology. She has served in ministry since 1998 and was ordained as a pastor in 2002 and an apostle in 2010. She founded what is now Sanctuary Apostolic Fellowship Empowerment (SAFE) Ministries in 2004. Under her ministry heading Dr. Marino is founder and overseer of Sanctuary International Fellowship Tabernacle – SIFT (the original home of National Coming Out Sunday) and Chancellor of Apostolic Covenant Theological Seminary.

Affectionately nicknamed “the Spitfire,” Dr. Marino has spent over two decades as an “apostle, preacher, and teacher” (2 Timothy 1:11), exercising her personal mandate to become “all things to all people” (1 Corinthians 9:22). Her embrace of spiritual issues (both technical and intimate) has found its home among both seekers and believers, those who desire spiritual answers to today’s issues.

Dr. Marino has preached throughout the United States, Puerto Rico, and Europe in hundreds of religious services and experiences throughout the years. A history maker in her own right, she has spent over two decades in advocacy, education, and work for and within minority spiritual communities (including African American, Hispanic, and LGBTQ+). She has also served as the first woman on all-male synods, councils, and panels, as well as the first preacher or speaker welcomed of a different race, sexual orientation, or identity among diverse communities. Today, Dr. Marino’s work extends to over one hundred countries as she hosts the popular Kingdom Now podcast, which is in the top twenty percentile of all podcasts worldwide. She is also the author of over thirty books and the popular Patheos column, Leadership on Fire. To date, she has had five bestselling titles within their subject matter: Understanding Demonology, Spiritual Warfare, Healing, and Deliverance: A Manual for the Christian Minister; Ministry School Boot Camp: Training for Helps Ministries, Appointments, and Beyond; Discovering Intimacy: A Journey Through the Song of Solomon; Fruit of the Vine: Study and Commentary on the Fruit of the Spirit; and Ministering to LGBTQ+ (and Those Who Love Them): A Primer for Queer Theology (and its accompanying workbook).

As a public icon and social media influencer, Dr. Marino advocates for healthy body image (curvy/full-figured), representation as a demisexual/aromantic, and albinism awareness as a model. Known to those she works with, she is spiritual mom, teacher, leader, professor, confidant, and friend. She continues to transform, receiving new teaching, revelation, and insight in this thing we call “ministry.” Through years of spiritual growth and maturity, Dr. Marino stands as herself, here to present what God has given to her for any who have an ear to hear.

podcast q&a

Q: WHY IS YOUR PROGRAM CALLED "KINGDOM NOW?"

A: We believe God's Kingdom is not an idea for a bygone or future era. God's Kingdom is alive and active, as much today as at any other point in history. Kingdom Now emphasizes we are the Kingdom, as the Kingdom of God belongs to the outcasts. We feature information, ideas, and teaching for those who need it most: those who are often hurt by church or religious experiences in general. We intend to start a conversation of belief for "whosoever" that ignites a fire worldwide.

Q: ARE YOU ASSOCIATED WITH DOMINION THEOLOGY/NAR?

A: No. We are not dominionists, nor are we associated with NAR. Apostle Marino's ordination is in no way associated with the New Apostolic Reformation.

Q: WHY DON'T YOU DISCUSS POLITICS?

A: We feel like there are enough outlets to discuss politics. We want to start a conversation about faith that's different and not marked with heavy political overtones that, after awhile, become tiresome and boring.

Q: ARE ALL GUESTS CHRISTIAN?

A: Most of our guests are Christian, but we do have some guests who are from different backgrounds. They may come on to talk about their beliefs or expertise on a topic.

Q: WHAT REQUIREMENTS DO YOU HAVE FOR GUESTS?

A: Guests must be versed in their topic as well as respectful of our values. All must fill out our online registration form at least one week prior to record date. If a guest promotes a book or album, we request an electronic or hard copy be sent to Apostle Marino at least one week in advance for content review.

Q: WHAT EQUIPMENT DO I NEED TO COMPLETE THE INTERVIEW?

A: Guests must have a headset with mic (or some combination therein) and a laptop or desktop computer. Interviews cannot be done using a cellphone.
