

Admission Requirements for Bachelor and Master Studies in Germany

This document provides a concise 1–2 page overview of the key requirements for admission into Bachelor and Master programs in Germany.

Bachelor Studies – Requirements

Typical requirements for Bachelor admissions in Germany include:

- Secondary school certificate equivalent to the German Abitur
- Language proficiency (German: TestDaF, DSH; English: IELTS/TOEFL for English-taught courses)
- APS Certificate (for applicants from certain countries including India)
- University application via Uni-Assist or direct institution portal

Master Studies - Requirements

Master admissions typically require the following components:

- Recognized Bachelor's degree in a relevant field
- Minimum ECTS requirements (usually 180–210 depending on program)
- Language proficiency (German or English depending on program)
- Motivation letter, CV, and sometimes recommendation letters
- Some programs require entrance tests or interviews