

OFFICIAL RULES

Street Jumper Battle – 16 and older

1. SPIRIT OF THE BATTLE

The Street Jumper Battle is a Double Dutch competition based on performance, creativity, musicality, and individual expression.

It is an artistic and sporting battle where participants are judged on their technique, fluidity, and musical interpretation.

Originality, risk-taking, and individuality are encouraged in order to allow each participant to develop their own style.

2. ACCEPTANCE OF THE RULES

Participation in the Street Jumper Battle implies full and complete acceptance of these rules as well as the conditions validated during registration via HelloAsso, including in particular parental authorization (for minors) and image rights.

Any participation constitutes acceptance of these rules.

3. CATEGORIES

The battle is organized into two $ categories:

MEN CATEGORY

- Age: 16 years old and older (adult included)

WOMEN CATEGORY

- Age: 16 years old and older (adult included)

The organization reserves the right to register a participant younger, with their agreement and that of their legal guardian, subject to availability.

4. COMPETITION FORMAT

- Format: single elimination (1 vs 1)
- 2 round per battle
- 3 rounds in the final

5. Battle Procedure

- The timer starts when the jumper enters the ropes.
- Duration of one round: 30 seconds
- 2 round per participant per battle
- 3 rounds in the final

At the end of each battle, the judges immediately designate the winner.

6. JUDGING

Each battle is evaluated by 3 judges.

The field is divided into two colored zones.

Each judge has two flags corresponding to the two participants.

Each judge votes for the participant they consider to be the winner.

A judge may also, if they feel unable to separate the two participants, cross both flags to indicate a tie.

The participant receiving the majority of votes wins the battle.

7. TIES

In the case of a tie during a battle:

- Both participants perform an additional round.

In the event of another tie:

- The jury will make a final decision after deliberation.

The judges' decisions are final and not subject to appeal.

8. LATE ARRIVALS AND ABSENCES

All participants must be present when called.

In the event of a delay:

- the organization reserves the right to declare a forfeit
- or to disqualify the participant
