Your opinion is very valuable to us.

If you enjoyed your experience, we would love for you to leave us a review.

Help us get more people to discover the Margarita Apartment!

How to get around in La Paz

Getting around La Paz is easy, but here are some options depending on your preferences:

Car rental is ideal if you plan to visit beaches or leave the city.

Recommended agencies:

MEX Rent a Car

Notice

Alamo

Car Rentals La Paz

All with offices in the city center or airport.

Transportation and taxi apps

- App Didi
- They operate steadily throughout the city.

Traditional taxis

You can take them on the boardwalk or order them by phone (Always ask the price before getting on).

Activities in

LAPAZ

La Paz is full of hidden gems waiting to be discovered: beaches, promenades, street art, and unique experiences. In the following pages, we share our recommendations to help you make the most of your stay, whether you're looking for adventure or something more relaxing.

Activities in La Paz

SUNSET ON THE MALECÓN

Walking along the boardwalk at sunset is almost a must, where you can see sunsets like nowhere else.

Sculptures, color palettes in the sky, and marquesitas stands.

From the kiosk to the new pier.

EL TECOLOTE BEACH

Spacious, with gentle waves, perfect for families or for dining by the sea.

It has several restaurants where you can go and enjoy the beautiful sea.

25 min drive from the center.

Recommendation: ceviche and micheladas at the beach restaurants.

BALANDRA BEACH

One of the most beautiful beaches in Mexico. Ideal for photos and floating in its crystal clear waters.

Access is limited per day and per time. We recommend arriving early (before 8:00 a.m.)

Bring an umbrella, snacks, and biodegradable sunscreen.

SANDBOARDING IN EL MOGOTE

Do you like adventure? You can slide down the dunes facing the sea.

You need a car or a private tour.

For private tours you can search on Instagram @choyeros_sandboard.

Ideal for epic sunset photos.

HIKE TO SKULL HILL

A short walk with one of the best panoramic views of the bay. Ideal for nature lovers.

15 to 25 minute climb.

Located next to the La Paz–Pichilingue scenic highway, between the viewpoint and El Coromuel Beach. You can park on the side and you'll see the trail that goes up the hill.

Recommended for sunrise or sunset photos.

CENTRO HISTÓRICO

The heart of the city holds a special charm: quiet streets, colonial facades, colorful murals and many small shops with local products.

Explore the streets around the Velasco Garden, passing by the Cathedral, La Paz alley, and finish with a coffee or artisanal ice cream on one of the terraces.

Ideal for a relaxing morning, taking beautiful photos or buying authentic souvenirs.

SWIMMING WITH THE WHALE SHARK

From October to April, La Paz offers you the chance to swim with the world's largest fish. An unforgettable experience (don't worry, it's harmless!).

Book in advance.
Departures from the boardwalk.

ESPÍRITU SANTO ISLAND TOUR

Considered a World Heritage Site by UNESCO, this island offers snorkeling with sea lions, turquoise waters and pristine landscapes.

Half-day or full-day tours.
Departures from the Fiscal Dock.
