LEADERSHIP TEAM PROFILES

Martin Van Lonkhuijzen
Founder & Chief Executive Officer

Martin leads Strategix Capital's strategic vision, client relationships, and investor engagement. He brings over 25 years of experience spanning banking, entrepreneurship, and business development across Africa, Europe, and the United States. His career includes senior roles as consultant for corporates and banks in emerging markets, serving as integration specialist, COO, CCO, and interim CEO for several banks and corporate companies in Africa and Europe.

Martin has developed new business for retail and corporate operations and managed large M&A projects within the banking industry in Africa. He served as senior project manager and consultant for boards of directors and senior management, specializing in business development, operational excellence, and compliance. His extensive M&A experience includes leading complex cross-border transactions, post-merger integrations, and strategic restructuring mandates across multiple jurisdictions

Alphonse Kouagou
Managing Director

Alphonse Ibi Kouagou is a seasoned executive and development finance professional with over 30 years of experience across Africa, Latin America, the Caribbean, and Asia. He spent 22 years with the World Bank Group, including 18 years at the IFC and service as Executive Director representing 23 African countries on the World Bank Group Board. He currently serves as the African Borrowers Representative for IDA21, advocating for African voices in the replenishment and implementation cycles.

Alphonse has deep expertise in structuring corporate and project finance—notably in infrastructure, venture capital, and private equity—and in portfolio management. At IFC, he led the development of the Investment Portfolio Valuation Framework, marking-to-market equity and quasi-equity holdings. His experience includes blending financial instruments such as guarantees, derivatives, and other de-risking tools to ensure project bankability. Through Ibi International Finance Ventures, he provides investment and advisory services focused on ESG-aligned project structuring, helping startups and public-private sponsors access risk capital and develop bankable ventures. Alphonse holds an MBA from the University of Maryland, a BSc in Accounting from Marymount University, and is a U.S. Certified Public Accountant (CPA). His extensive global expertise and leadership make him a key contributor to Africa's economic development and a trusted advisor within the investment community.

Lydia Schot
Associate Director
Energy & Structured Finance

Lydia leads renewable energy and infrastructure finance advisory at Strategix Capital. With over 25 years of experience in renewable energy development and finance across Europe and Africa, she combines her background as Director of offshore wind projects for utilities such as RWE with senior leadership roles including Director of Business Development at Globeleq and Manager at IFC's InfraVentures early equity fund.

Lydia has led the development of large-scale offshore wind projects valued at over $1.2 billion, managing multi-disciplinary teams and building strategic consortia of industrial and financial players to secure successful market entry and project delivery.

In Africa, she has directed early-stage project development and equity investments for independent power producers, bringing both project origination expertise and investor perspective to structure finance in challenging markets. Her dual track record in European utility-scale developments and African IPP renewable markets enables her to catalyze substantial investment for the energy transition
