NARRATOR:

Some people think science is boring. But today we're going to discover something surprising.

Science...

is BANANAS!

(Pause.)

Meet Benny the Banana.

BENNY THE BANANA:

Hello, everyone!

I'm Benny, and behind me is a bunch of my friends.

Being part of a bunch is great. We hang out together. We travel together. And most importantly...

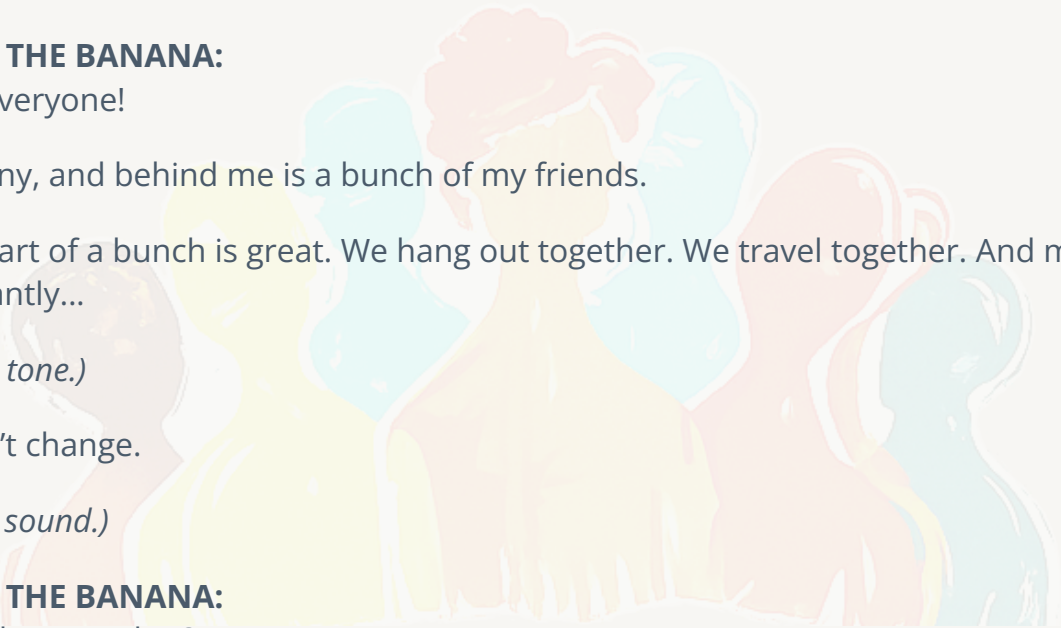

(Serious tone.)

We don't change.

(Peeling sound.)

BENNY THE BANANA:
