Setting

The five regions of the United States

Scene 1: The Visitor Center

(Lights up. TRAVELER enters a roadside visitor center.)

NARRATOR:

One afternoon, a traveler stops at a small visitor center along a long highway.

Inside the building is something enormous —

A giant map of the United States.

TRAVELER:

Whoa. That map is huge! Look at all these places.

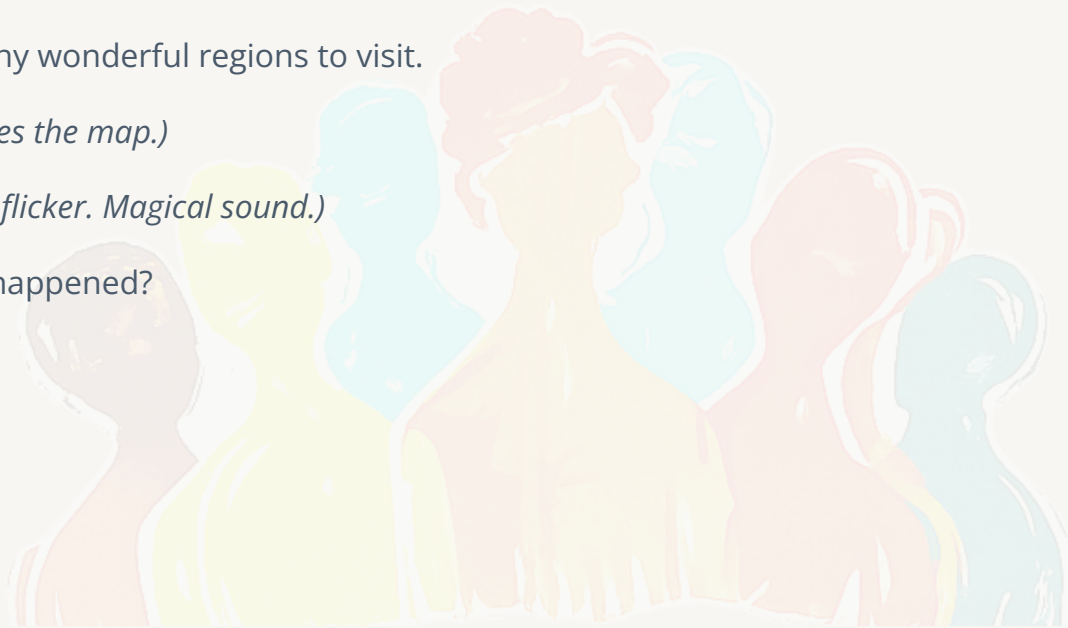

I see mountains... rivers... cities...

So many wonderful regions to visit.

(Touches the map.)

(Lights flicker. Magical sound.)
