TOUR ITINERARY

DAY 01: HARIDWAR-BARKOT

When you arrive in Haridwar, you will be met and assisted by our cab driver, and you will be ready to travel to Barkot via Mussoorie, stopping at Kempty Falls in Mussoorie or Vikasnagar along the way. Later, drive straight to Barkot. Check into the hotel on arrival. Dinner and overnight stay.

Day 02: BARKOT-YAMUNOTRI-BARKOT

Early morning, after breakfast, drive to Janki Chatti or Phool Chatti and start a trek from here to Yamunotri, which is 6 km long (either by walk, horseback, or doli at your own cost). After taking a bath in Jamunabaikund's warm water and having a darshan of "Yamunaji," return to Janki Chatti from the trek. Later drive towards Barkot. Have dinner and stay overnight at the hotel.

Yamunotri Temple: Maharani Gularia of Jaipur built the temple in the 19th century. It was destroyed twice in the present century and rebuilt again. At Yamunotri, one can cook rice by packing it in a cloth and dipping it in the hot water of the tapt kund. Pilgrims take this cooked rice home as "Prasad." Near the temple, "Puja" can be offered to Divya Shila.

Surya Kund: There are a number of thermal springs near the temple that flow into numerous pools. The most important of these is Surya Kund.

Divyashila: A rock pillar, worshipped before entering the Yamunotri Temple.

Day 03: BARKOT TO UTTARKASHI

In the morning, after breakfast, check out of the hotel, then drive to Uttarkashi. On arrival, check into the hotel. Later, visit Kashi Vishwanath Temple. (This should be visited by the client on the way, not specially.) Return to hotel, dinner, and night stay.

Uttarkashi: Uttarkashi is home to a number of ashrams and temples, similar to Varanasi. The town of Uttarkashi is also situated on the banks of the Ganga. This place is also known as the north of Kashi.

Vishwanath Temple: Vishwanath Temple is one of the oldest Shiva temples in northern India. Reconstructed in 1857 by Maharani Khaneti Devi of Tehri State in the ancient architectural style it is situated in the heart of the town. It is a massive iron trident, and it was worshipped in ancient times. Shree Ganesh Ji, Sakshi Gopal, and Markandeya Rishi's mini shrines are also part of the temple complex. Special Aarti in the morning and evening are offered along with Akhand Jyoti and Akhand Abhishek. As per the Skanda Puran, Uttarkashi is known as 'Saumya Varanasi', the abode of Lord Shiva in Kaliyug, and is counted as one of the twelve Jyotirlingas..

DAY 04: UTTARKASHI-GANGOTRI-UTTARKASHI

In the morning, Morning breakfast, drive to Gangotri. Further drive to Gangotri via the beautiful Harsil Valley. Harsil is famous for its natural beauty and for the majestic views of the deodar trees and mountains. On arrival at Shree Gangotri, take a holy dip in the sacred river Ganges, which is also called Bhagirathi at its origin. Perform puja and darshan, and after that, relax for some time in the lovely surroundings. Later, drive back to Uttarkashi. Have dinner and stay overnight at the hotel.

Gangotri Temple: The temple was constructed by the gorkha general Amar Singh Thapa in the 18th century, and it is situated on the banks of Bhagirathi.
