

WRITERS GUILD MANIPUR

LOUSING POETRY COMPETITION

Objective:

Writers Guild Manipur (WGM) registered with MSME, Govt. of India, brings for the very first time from the vibrant state of Manipur, a pan India online poetry competition by the name Lousing Poetry Competition to be conducted once every year under the theme series “Manipur, the Land of Many Stories”.

Named after the Manipuri word “Lousing” meaning “Knowledge”, this competition is built under WGM’s umbrella initiative of publishing, mentoring, and community building. WGM, a brainchild movement to bring change through individualised stimulation, aims to foster transformation through this literary medium. By exploring Manipur through a microscopic lens under the theme series “Manipur, the Land of Many Stories”, Lousing poetry aims to promote the state by encouraging participants to read and write about this unique land. Situated at the corner of Northeast India, Manipur was bestowed as the “Jewel of India” by India’s first Prime Minister, Jawaharlal Nehru. Rich in biodiversity, known for its scenic beauty, Manipur state of India is also a cradle of civilisation having its share of contribution in historical geopolitical shifts. A home of hundreds of indigenous group, Manipur stands out in its vibrant culture and traditions, diverse societal aspects, hidden knowledge and inspiring stories. Misunderstood and misinformed often due to knowledge gap, it stands strong till today as an example of resilience and sustenance. WGM's aim through this competition is to boost creativity and promote literary excellence by providing a platform to explore the diverse narratives of Manipur. The objective is to provide a platform where youths can amplify their voice, learn about this state and narrow knowledge gap, foster visibility, and gain recognition in their take to bring change.
