About Us

Who We Are

We are recent graduates who have mastered the art of navigating London. Having spent our university years uncovering the city's secrets, we've turned our "budget-science" into a professional service for those who want an authentic, smart, and expertly guided experience.

What We Offer

We provide custom-tailored journeys that hit the iconic landmarks without the tourist bus price tag. By using historic walks, the Tube, and red buses, we show you the city just like a local. From famous sights to hidden local eateries, we ensure your day is personal, geographically smart, and unforgettable.

Our Mission

We are a social initiative designed to provide dignity and fair wages to London's graduates. Every penny of your booking fee goes directly to your guide for the day. By choosing us, you receive a thoughtful, professional tour while directly supporting a graduate building their future in this city.

Terms & Policies

To ensure transparency and provide the best possible experience, please review our core service policies:

- Our guiding services are currently London-focused. However, we offer assistance in securing affordable rail tickets and accommodations for travellers heading to destinations outside of the city.*
- We operate with total independence and have no commercial associations with restaurants or hotels. Any recommendations provided are subjective and based solely on our authentic local experiences.*
- Our guides are university graduates, not Blue Badge guides. Consequently, internal lecturing is restricted at sites such as the Tower of London, St Paul's Cathedral, and Westminster Abbey. Historical context for these landmarks is provided externally before entering.*
- We do not require advance online payments. 50% of the total fee must be transferred directly to your guide on the day of the tour, before the start of the itinerary.*
- In line with our mission to provide dignity and fair wages, our fees are capped at the London Living Wage. While not required, customers are welcome to tip their guides if they are particularly impressed by the service.*

Final Note

Thank you for choosing Thomas Tours London. We started this initiative to turn our "budget-science" of navigating the city into a professional city tour service that provides dignity and fair wages to graduates like myself.

When you book with us, you aren't just getting an authentic, geographically smart experience; you are directly supporting a graduate building their future in this city. We look forward to showing you our home, your way.
