

Streetline Performance & Accessories, Inc.
ORDER CANCELLATIONS POLICY
Last Updated: March 2026

Overview

All orders placed with Streetline Performance & Accessories Inc. are considered final once submitted.

Customers requesting to cancel an order must contact Streetline Performance & Accessories Inc. directly by telephone and speak with a company representative in order to request a cancellation.

Cancellation requests are not considered valid unless confirmed by a Streetline Performance & Accessories Inc. representative and a cancellation confirmation number has been issued.

Requests submitted by email, fax, voicemail, or other electronic messaging methods are not accepted as official cancellation requests.

Cancellation Approval

Submitting a cancellation request does not guarantee that the order will be cancelled.

Streetline Performance & Accessories Inc. reserves the right to approve or deny any cancellation request depending on the status of the order, including but not limited to:

- Order processing status
- Product availability
- Supplier fulfillment status
- Warehouse processing stage

Cancellation confirmations may take up to 72 hours to process, depending on the product ordered and the order status.

Orders That Have Already Shipped

Streetline Performance & Accessories Inc. reserves the right to refuse cancellations or limit future purchases from customers who demonstrate repeated order cancellations, abuse of store policies, or fraudulent purchasing behavior.
