

Harry's Silly Hat

A Mini Mini Story by Skipper-Bloo

It was a beautiful day.
Harry the Hedgehog should have been happy.
But he felt bored.
What to do? What to do?

“Well, I’m not going to mope around!” said Harry.

So he sniffed around his back yard in search of something amusing.

Lo and behold, a giant leaf!
It was bigger than his whole head!

He wanted to wear it as a hat, but he wondered:
“What if I look silly?”
What to do? What to do?

He took a deep breath and placed the leaf on his head.

Right away he felt happy. It felt good to try something different.

Harry smiled all the way home.
