About Us

WHO WE ARE

Success Management Global Consulting partners with organizations, leaders, and communities to build Courageous Cultures by dismantling the Silent Tax of Fear—the hidden cost of silence, inaction, and disengagement that drains innovation, momentum, and human potential.

Founder Siphokazi Buwa is a Transformation Keynote Speaker, Strategic Coach, and Author of "How I Got My Shine"—a memoir of faith, resilience, and rising from rock bottom.

MESSAGE FROM THE FOUNDER

For years, I witnessed brilliant leaders, high-potential teams, and incredible individuals held back not by a lack of skill, but by an excess of fear—fear of being wrong, of speaking up, of not being certain. This silent tax drains momentum, innovation, and trust. I founded Success Management Global Consulting to codify a better way. Our actionable frameworks help clients replace fear with psychological safety, and silence with strategic courage. Whether in the boardroom, the leadership circle, or the classroom, our work is about turning unused potential into tangible impact.

VISION

A World Where Fear No Longer Silences Potential

We envision a society—in organizations, communities, and individual lives —where the Silent Tax of Fear has been dismantled. Where every person feels safe enough to speak, brave enough to try, and supported enough to become who they were truly meant to be. A world where...Courage is the norm, not the exception.

MISSION

To Build Courageous Cultures by Dismantling the Silent Tax of Fear

We achieve this through:
