

Certified VBA Logo and Breeder Trademark Guidelines

Permission may be granted to members for use of the trademark only where the member accepts the terms and conditions of use.

Terms and Conditions of Use

Use of the Certified VBA Breeder Trademark is allowed:

- following Board approval of a member's application using the Certified VBA Breeder Trademark Application Form (hard copy form or online application through the member's section of the VBA website)
- agree to use the trademark as it is supplied by VBA Ltd
- only while in good financial standing with VBA Ltd
- only utilising the uses specified or approved and following procedures in these guideline
- the member agrees to remove the trademark from any use if or when asked by the VBA Ltd Board within 14 days of the request

Uses of the Certified VBA Breeder Trademark

The certified VBA Breeder Trademark may be used on the following:

- Member stud brochures, information or business cards
- Member stud signage
- Member stud websites

Where other uses are desired, members may contact the VBA Ltd Board for permission.

Procedures for Use of the Certified VBA Breeder Trademark

Once permission is granted, members will receive an electronic copy of their usable trademark.

1. Present the VBA Breeder Trademark exactly as supplied by VBA Ltd
2. Do not alter or distort the trademark from what is supplied by VBA
3. Ensure use only implies membership and certified breeder status; ensure VBA does not appear as the owner of or representing the views of VBA Ltd
4. Don't display or use the trademark in any way that may potentially be viewed as violating laws or regulations
5. Do not incorporate the trademark into members' own trademarks, logos or business names

The Certified VBA Breeder Trademark is registered to and the property of Valais Blacknose Australia Ltd.
